

New Song, Yells Wanted to Stir 'Big Game' Pep

A contest for original fight songs and yells will be held from Nov. 6 through Nov. 20, the song and yell committee of the Webfooters announced yesterday.

First prize for the fight song will be $25, and writers of the three winning yells will be awarded $5 each. The songs and yells will be introduced homecoming weekend.

This is the first such drive in several years, Joanne Frydenlund, president of the committee said. "In addition to giving us new

Clark to Attend Centennial Meet

Dr. Dan E. Clark, head of the history department, will attend a meeting in Portland Friday of the committee appointed by the late Governor Earl Snell to act as the planning group for the celebration of Oregon's 100th anniversary as a territory.

According to Dr. Clark, the 17 members of the committee will probably be assigned their specific tasks connected with the centennial at this Portland meeting to be held at the Portland chamber of commerce.

songs and yells, we hope that the contest will build up spirit for the big game," she added.

Onthank Lists Job Placements

Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration, gave word Wednesday of two calls received from business concerns at the placement office recently. He advised that those interested should contact him soon.

A Portland merchandising concern has asked for young women prospective executives in the merchandising field. Other stores have also asked for young women in this capacity.

A Columbia steel, a Western branch of United States Steel asking for graduates to learn the work of industrial engineers. This does not require technical engineering training.

Types of work would include time study, wage incentives, material flow, equipment layout, work methods. Those accepted will get on-the-job training for a 12 to 18 month period.

Onthank again stressed that those who will graduate soon, particularly December graduates, wishing placement, should register as soon as possible.

ISA to Pick Secretary

A secretary of the Independent Students association will be elected tonight at the meeting of the congress at 6:30 p.m. in 105 Commerce building, President Don McNeil said yesterday. Tom Burbee, junior in architecture, was selected to the office last year but he will not return to school because of injuries received in an auto accident last month.
