

Varsity Trims Frosh in Cage Scrimmage

By DON FAIR

The varsity basketball team, showing flashes of a scoring punch, walked over the Frosh cagers in a two-hour scrimmage session yesterday afternoon. Following the session, Coach John Warren said that his candidates were beginning to get in shape for the coming season.

The contemplated shifting of Jim Bartelt from forward to guard was apparently stymied following the practice, when the husky Ashlander, performing at his usual post, took the day's scoring honors with 31 points. Bartelt had his sights leveled, pumping in perfect swishers from beyond the key.

Roger Wiley, who has been playing a different brand of ball this year, put in 23 points, and Bob Don caged 17. Don has been improving on backboard play, and yesterday found the scoring range. Lavey and Berg each scored 16 points.

Of the Frosh members, Willis Urban and Eddie Artzt each tallied six points, and Mel Krause five. Ernie Wilde, ex-Eugene all-stater, and Don Peterson and Jack Keller, both from Portland, displayed flashes of mid-season form for the yearlings.

In the first session, the unit of Bartelt, Bob Amacher, Wiley, Stan Williamson, and Reedy Berg whipped the Frosh quintet of Urban, Bob Taggesell, Gene Hovert, Krause, and Wilde, 17-5. Bartelt hit four field buckets for eight points, and Wiley tallied six.

The team of Archie Gacek, Lynn Hamilton, Don, Al Popick, and Lavey downed Ducklings Stan Grimberg, Don Peterson, Bruce Ford, Bruce Davidson, and Artzt, 24-7. Don with eight and Hamilton with six paced the winners.

The third varsity-frosh session was won 24-0 by the unit of Bartelt, Don, Wiley, Williamson, Berg, Gacek, and Popick over Brad Fullerton, Jerry Barde, Pitcher, Rod Slade, LeRoy Coleman, Jack Keller, and Tom Edwards. Bartelt scored eight, and Wiley and Berg six.

Lavey, with 10 points, sparked his team composed of Dick Unis, Amacher, Roger Mockford, Paul Cooper, and Don to a 20-11 win over Krause, Wilde, Hovert, Urban, and Taggesell. In the final scrimmage between the two Oregon squads, Williamson, Berg, Wiley, Amacher, and Bartelt chalked up a 37-19 triumph over Peterson, Barde, Artzt, Edwards, Grimberg, Keller, Fullerton, and Pitcher. Berg was high with nine, followed by Wiley and Bartelt with eight.

Warren also held intrasquad games. Popick, Lavey, Don, Hamilton, and Gacek outpointed Unis, Kenny, Seeborg, Mockford, Marv Rasmussen, and Cooper, 13-6; and Bartelt, Amacher, Wiley, Williamson, Berg, Seeborg, and Rasmussen defeated Darrel Hawes, Jerry Sherwood, Bill Green, Dick Wilkins, Bob Charleton, Don Kimball, and Hal Mink, 17-11.

IM Playoff Cuts Field Of Entrants

The first play-offs of the 1947 intramural volleyball season went into the books yesterday afternoon as two high-g geared upper-division outfits, ATO and Sigma Chi registered their initial title-seeking triumphs. The remainder of the day's action found another pair of squads battling their way into the lower-division play-off and still another pair writing the last chapter of their 1947 season.

Sigma Chi Wins

Headlining the afternoon's action was the Sigma Chi's two out of three game play-off victory over the Delts. The initial tilt of the three game set was a see-saw affair for the first ten points as both squads matched point for point. However, the Sigs pulled it out of the fire as they battered the net for five consecutive counters, totake the issue 15-11. The second game was a complete reversal from the first as the Delts jumped into an early lead and maintained it throughout the battle as they won handily, 15-7. In the third and deciding game the issue was in doubt until the final moments as both teams battled to the wire in an effort to grab the bacon. It was only in the fading moments that the Sigma Chis registered a narrow 15-13 to take the series.

ATO Hot

The defending champions of ATO continued to find things much to their own liking as they trounced an outmanned gang of Sig Eps by 15-5 and 15-9 counts to notch their fifth straight triumph of the year and snare their initial play-off win. Both games were run off in much of the same manner as the defenders nabbed an early lead at the outset of the contest, and then coasted in.

In the lower division the Sigma Nus gained the play-off as they (Please turn to page five)

Ducks Set For Beaver Grudge Tilt

Thirteen weeks of heavy preparations for the Oregon State Beavers were finished yesterday as Oregon's determined gridmen went through their last hard workout before the Saturday battle. On slate today is a light running drill to top off a season's practice sessions.

Since the practice session opened the first of September, the Webfoots have been quietly pointing towards this weekend's game, although they faced some rugged opponents beforehand. After a slow start that saw the Ducks stumble twice over non-conference teams and once over a league member the Eugene eleven finally hit its stride and have whipped through five consecutive victories.

Three veteran backfield stars were named to captain the Webfoots in the "Civil War" fray Saturday. The three, Jake Leicht, Jim Newquist, and Bob Koch, will be appearing in an Oregon uniform for the last time, along with four other gridgers.

Oldtimers Leave

Newquist and Koch are the veterans of the team, having performed as sophomores on the 1941 eleven, before they went into the service. Leicht was tabbed an All-American in 1945, and is currently leading the coast conference in both scoring and rushing.

The other four seniors are Larry Stoeven, Wayne Bartholemey and Pete Torchia, ends, and John Kaufman, guard. It appears likely that Kaufman and one of the graduating ends will start the intrastate

Cruncher

Ken Carpenter, ace Beaver left halfback, has been on the injury list recently, but will play in the Civil War battle Saturday.

Crane Leads Ag Gridders

Ray Crane, stellar right guard on offense and a demon line-backer on defense, will captain Oregon State's Beavers in tomorrow's renewal of the Oregon Webfoot feud. Crane is a two-year letterman and played his high school ball at Klamath Falls.

Coach Lon Stiner has sent his boys through light practice sessions all week as insurance against further injuries. Dick Lorenz, Dave Anderson, and Jim Swarbrick are all definitely out of tomorrow's clash, while Kenny Carpenter, Bob Grove, Ray Crane, Paul Evenson, and Bill Austin have suffered injuries in recent games, but are expected to see some action.

Six squad members will play their last game for the Orange tomorrow. Paul Evensen, Hal Puddy, Warren Simas, Bob Duncan, Dick Miller, and Ralph Harper are the lads that are playing their finals for the alma mater.

Early Gridiron Favorites Fail To Play as Dopesters Figure

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20 (UP)—The tides of fortune in football, just like in any other business, move quickly.

Three months ago, Oregon State would have been favored to whip Oregon; Washington to down Washington State; Stanford to tramp on California and UCLA to thump USC.

But the "big" games of the week find the reverse true in every instance—the result of one of the most topsy-turvy football seasons in the history of the west coast.

UCLA, unbeaten in conference play in 1946 and the Rose Bowl representative, opened the 1947 season with a resounding 22-7 victory over Iowa and the Bruins were expected to romp to their second straight Pacific coast conference championship. But in Saturday's fray the Trojans of USC, undefeated this year, are favored by seven points.

California, coming off one of its worst seasons, wasn't expected to have much this year—probably do well to win half its games. On the other hand, Stanford has rated by many the "dark horse" of the PCC chase. But there is many a slip between the opener and the closing of a football race and in this instance Stanford comes to the game with a record of no victories and eight losses; California with eight triumphs and one defeat.

Pi Kappa Phis Win

In Wednesday's volleyball action the Pi Kappa Phis defeated the Legal Eagles instead of the reverse, as was reported. Playing with only five men the victors knocked off the Eagles two games out of three after dropping the first. The Pi Kappa Phis started their victory in the second game as they knocked off the Eagles, 16-14, and turned the final frame into a rout, winning 15-5.
