

Seven Senior Oregon Gridders Set To Don Yellow-Green Livery for Last Time

Big Crowd Awaits Tilt

Los Angeles, Nov. 21—(UP)—The biggest football crowd of the season anywhere in these United States, some 103,000 rabid fans, could talk of little else than the crucial meeting between Southern California and UCLA, both hometown schools.

The game will decide if Southern California gets the Rose Bowl bid as western representative. But a win by UCLA will throw the Pacific coast conference in a three or four-way tie, leaving it up to faculty representatives to make a choice Monday.

JOHN KAUFFMAN

PETE TORCHIA

WAYNE BARTHOLEMY

LARRY STOEVEN

By GLENN GILLESPIE
An estimated 20,000 people will crowd Hayward field this afternoon at 2 p.m. to watch a determined hoard of Oregon football players, members of the best Duck squad since 1935, engage an earnest outfit from up Corvallis way in one of the granddaddy grudge fifts of them all, intent on their objective, to "Win for Bill."

Seven of these Webfoot grid- ders, Jake Leicht, Jim Newquist, Bob Koch, John Kauffman, Pete Torchia, Wayne Bartholemy, and Larry Stoeven, will be playing their final game for the University today, and are set on winning this last one, since none of them have played on an Oregon team that has beaten OSC. The Ducks last emerged victorious over State in 1940.

Three of the seven, Leicht, Koch, and Newquist, better known as the "Three Horsemen of Oregon," will team with Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin to form the starting offensive backfield, and have been named co-captains for the Aggie fray.

Jake Leicht, the mainstay of Oregon's attack, will open at left half today, providing Coach Jim Aiken with a dangerous break-away runner and number one scoring threat. Jake shines on long end runs and optional pass-run plays, and is also used through the middle on quick-opening plays. He is a top-notch pass receiver and handles conversion assignments. This will be Leicht's third OSC game.

An All-American for Oregon in 1945, Leicht was handicapped by injuries in the '46 season, returning this year to play the best football of his career. His home is in Stockton, California.

Jim Newquist will share the halfback posts with Leicht today. The hard-running scat-back from Camas, Washington, will operate from the right half position, carrying his share of the Lemon and Green offensive load. He came to Oregon in 1940, playing varsity ball in 1941. He returned last year after three and a half years in the Navy, to handle most of the running assignments. Newquist is fast on his feet, and has been a big cog in the Duck power attack. This will be his third year against the Beavers.

Fullback Bob Koch is the third of the "Three Horsemen" to see his last action in a Duck jersey today. He was a starter in 1941, and played 425 minutes out of a possible 500 last year. Koch is a powerhouse on straight running plays through the middle, and is also used as a receiver of flat passes.

John Kauffman, a two-year letterman, should get in his whacks today at a defensive guard position. Kauffman performed for the varsity in 1945 and '46, playing 225 minutes last year. He is a tough customer to move out and will be playing his third contest against State. He comes from Long Beach, California.

Pete Torchia, a rugged two-year letterman at right end, battled OSC as a varsity player on the 1942 and '46 Oregon squads. One of a trio of ends finishing collegiate careers against OSC today, Torchia will be used mainly on defense. He is from Johnstown, Pennsylvania.

Wayne Bartholemy is slated to open for the Webfoots at right end against Oregon State, marking the second time he has played against the Beavers. A 193 minute vet from last year, Bartholemy has been turning in some fine defensive performances in the last few games. His home is in Portland, where he played prep ball for Jefferson high.

The third end singing his swan song this year is Larry Stoeven, a holdover from 1946. Stoeven has developed into a dangerous offensive threat, and may be on the receiving end of Van Brocklin aerials today. Stoeven, who hails from San Mateo, California, will be seeing his first action against the Aggies.

Lettermen to Attend Hayward Fish Fry

The Order of "O" banquet this year is incorporated into the Bill Hayward Fish Fry, according to Ed Dick, president. The Fry begins at 11:45 in Gerlinger hall. All present lettermen and past "O" men are asked to meet at that time.

Cal Aggies Clip SON Win String

DAVIS, Cal., Nov. 21—(UP)—The California College of Agriculture today snapped a football winning streak of Southern Oregon Normal college at 15 straight, defeating the Oregon team 21 to 6 in a far western conference game.

Poetry is when every line begins with a capital letter.

At Oregon
LAURA OLSEN
smokes
CHESTERFIELDS

Laura says:
"To me the words cigarette and Chesterfield are synonymous."
June says:

A nation-wide survey shows that Chesterfields are TOPS with College Students from coast-to-coast.

DROP BY, AFTER THE GAME

for
a refreshing snack
CONVENIENT SERVICE
at the

The Midway DRIVE-IN

where 13th meets the highway
OPEN UNTIL ONE SATURDAY NIGHT

Show your school colors

at the
DUCK BEAVER GAME SATURDAY

with a genuine Pendleton wool reversible O blanket for $24.50.

ROOTERS LIDS $1.00

A 100% wool, green and yellow plaid blanket made by Brownsville Woolen Mills for only $7.50.

U of O "Co-op"

Curvaceous
CORAL

Permit us to wax rather oral
On the charms of a lady named Coral.
She can steal any swain
From Tacoma to Maine,
So give heed, we implore, to
this moral:

ALWAYS WEAR HOSIERY
"As You Like It"
FULL-FASHIONED