Speech Contest Honors Won By U of O Students

Liberal Art Juniors New State Champs

First place honors were won by University of Oregon students in both men's and women's divisions of the extemporaneous speaking contest of the Intercollegiate Forensic association of Oregon.

New State champions are Elizabeth Misner, junior in liberal arts, and Warren Webster, junior in liberal arts. Miss Misner's ten-minute extemporaneous talk was titled, "Should Communism Be Outlawed in the United States?."

A general subject for men and another for women was assigned the contestants previously. At the meet they were given a choice of three more specific topics, under the broad heading, on which to prepare a ten minute speech.

Each of the speech coaches, who also acted as judges, cast one vote for each contestant except the one from his own University.

General subject for men was "Of Human Values;" for women, "The United States and Communism."

Last year the University took first place in the men's division, and second place in women's division.

Irish Production Opening 7-Day Run at Theater

Over, Hurst in Leads; Mrs. Seybolt, Director

"Playboy of the Western World," Irish comedy-drama directed by Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, will debut on the University theater stage in Johnson hall at 8 tonight for an initial run of four days.

In a tribute to Irish "imagination," author J. M. Synge uses the simple, earthy background of western Ireland for his sharp, salty characters in the early 1900's.

Presented in Ireland First presented by the famed Abbey theater in Ireland, the play has since been introduced to Broadway twice, the latest production starring Burgess Meredith in 1946.

The leading role of Christy, a timorous young man from "a windy corner of high, distant hills" who seeks refuge in a village in western Ireland because he believes he has killed his father, is played by Bob Over, senior in drama.

The warm Irish humor and pungent speech of the play has prompted critics to say "Playboy of the Western World" remains after 40 years one of the fine things of the theater.

Other members of the cast include Allen West as Shawn Keogh; Emilie Jackull as Widow Quin; Dick Rayburn as Michael James; Paul Deutchmann as Philly Cullen; Paul Bender as Jimmy Farrell; Mary Ellen McKay as Susan Brady.

Betty White as Nelly; Donna O'Brien as Honor Blake; Louise Clouston as Sarah Tansey; Ted Schultz as Old Mahon; Gerald Lundy as the Town Crier; and Dick Nelson, Bob Cockburn, and Keith Cockburn as villagers.

Pre-Registering Ends Saturday

Today is the deadline for students to pick up registration material for winter term, Registrar Curtis E. Avery announced Tuesday.

No class enrollments can be made after December 6 and if a student intends to pre-register, he must have completed the process by that date, Avery declined.

Approximately 2000 students had completed advance registration and paid fees Tuesday. About 5000 students had picked up registration material before the Thanksgiving holidays, leaving 3000 left to finish registering, Avery said.

Students with pegged grades will not be able to register until the scholarship committee has passed on each individual case, Avery said. Regular winter term registration will take place January 5, 1948.
