

Music Group Plans Initiation For Professor

The initiation of Professor Robert Hord into Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, men's national music honorary, will take place during the honorary's convention on December 6.

Hord, assistant professor of piano in the school of music, will present a piano pledge concert for members of the fraternity and the faculty of the music school shortly before his initiation. Further concerts will be presented by Hord on a tour of the southeastern United States after the first of the year.

Hord, whose home is in Inglewood, California, took his undergraduate work at Southern Methodist university, where he received awards as the outstanding sophomore and later as the outstanding senior in music. On the basis of his undergraduate record, Hord received a graduate fellowship to the Juilliard school of music, where he was chosen as concert soloist with the graduate orchestra. He later did further graduate work at the University of Southern California.

Senior to Play Lead In Coming Production

By PAT KING

A true son of the theater is Bob Over who plays the leading role of Christy in "Playboy of the Western World," to be presented Dec. 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, and 11 by the University theater. With a mother who was a child actress and a father who was in vaudeville, how could Bob be anything else but an actor!

A senior in drama, he has demonstrated through his performances in "I Remember Mama," "Green Pastures," and "The Man Who Came to Dinner" his versatility and talent. After graduation he plans to go to New York to continue studying in a professional school and try out for Broadway productions.

"When my father knew I was serious in working in the theater he gave me his own make-up kit that he had used when he was in vaudeville," said Over. His father had built the light weight kit complete with mirror, light, and electrical outlet and used it before Max Factor made a fortune selling them to the theater world.

Over's career began early, as he discovered from a psychology graduate with a flair for hypnotizing. Under hypnosis he recalled his opening line in his first play "Christmas Present" in which he appeared at the age of five.

As for his latest play Bob, whose dark hair and eyes suit him well as the Irish Christy, said, "It's a difficult part because of the wide range and fluctuation of emotions that it demands."

Aside from his participation in the play, he is also box office manager—a combination that leaves him time for little else.

Directed by Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, the play's cast includes Glenna Hurst, Allen West, Dick Rayburn, Paul Deutchmann, Paul Bender, Emelie Jacull, Mary Ellen McKay, Betty White, Donna O'Brien, Louise Clouston, Ted Schultz, Gerald Lundy, Dick Nel-

Insurance for G.I.s Due December 31

Deadline for reinstating lapsed G.I. insurance without a physical examination is December 31, Donald C. Schworer, Veterans Administration contact representative for this area has warned.

Only for the remaining weeks of this year, he said, may a veteran reclaim his term insurance by paying only two months' premiums and completing a simple three-question form. After December 31, if a term policy has lapsed for more than three months, the vet-son, Keith Cockburn, and Bob Cockburn.

Box office is open in Johnson hall from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. On performance days the box office will remain open until curtain time.

Still Believes At His Age

Paterson, N.J., Dec. 2.—(UP)—Harry Frechette, 47, a steeplejack, will climb the City Hall flagpole today and remain there until Dec. 6, on the lookout for Santa Claus who is scheduled to arrive by helicopter. City merchants will pay Frechette $200 for the five days.

eran will be required to take a medical examination to prove his insurability before he can regain his insurance.

Any VA office or service organization has the reinstatement forms, Schworer said.
