

Musical's Cast Now Complete

Completion of the cast for the "Beggar's Opera," to be presented in its entirety with an orchestra next May, has been announced by director Herman Gelhausen, associate professor in the school of music.

Members of the cast are Sally Peabody as Polly Peachum, Claire Lewis as Mrs. Peachum, Virginia Walker as Lucy Lockit, Wayne Sherwood as Captain MacHeath, James McMullen as Peachum, William Putnam as Lockit, and James Roles as Filch.

Roles of eight ladies of the town will be sung by Treva Rice, Barbara Detrich, Marjorie Graham, Janet Nielsen, Jean Lichty, Shirley Anderson, Mary Margaret Dundore, and Joyce Davis.

Lowell Chase, Clell Conrad, Elend Pentilla, Loren Bush, William O'Leary, Phillip Green, Derald Parks, and Earl Anderson will act as the eight men in Mac Heath's gang.

Rehearsals for this production, sponsored by the music school, are scheduled to begin next week.

Director Gelhausen sung with the original English "Beggar's Opera" company, which made a two-year tour of the United States in the 1920's.

The opera was written in 1728 by John Gay.

Pi Kappa Phi Installation Set

Pi Kappa Phi, a new social fraternity at the University of Oregon, will be granted a charter and installed on the Oregon campus December 6. The University chapter of the fraternity will be known as Alpha Omega.

Installation will be held in the Osburn hotel at 5:30 p.m. December 6, followed by a banquet.

Dr. George Odgers, president of Gray's Harbor college at Aberdeen, Washington, and past district Archon of Pi Kappa Phi, will be the principal speaker. J. Al Head, national secretary of the fraternity will give the welcoming address and act as installing officer, and Vergil Fogdall, assistant dean of men, will welcome the chapter to the University of Oregon campus. Marion Sigovich, district Archon, will also speak.

The fraternity, originally founded in 1904 at the University of South Carolina, was formed last spring at the University of Oregon. The new chapter is now housed in Hunter hall.

Charter members of the University chapter of the fraternity are Robert Chapman, John Jackson, Alfred Ruedy, Lynn Bucklin, Don-

Yuletide Concert Slated

Co-chairmen of the Mu Phi Epsilon-Mu Phi Alpha Sinfonia Christmas concert to be given in the music school auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday are Beverly Howard and Wayne Sherwood.

General co-chairmen for tomorrow's combined Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and Mu Phi Epsilon Christmas concert are Wayne Sherwood and Beverly Howard, seniors from the University school of music. The concert will be presented tomorrow in the school of music auditorium, at 4 p.m.

Sherwood, a voice student, entered the University from Portland, where he had appeared on a weekly quarter-hour radio show. Last month he won the statewide vocalist division of the Portland Symphony orchestra Young Artists' contest, and he will appear with that orchestra as a featured soloist in a 1948 concert.

Beverly Howard, a piano student, also entered the University from Portland. She has had an original work presented in the 1947 Odeon, and is scheduled to appear in a senior recital next year.

Arabian Oil Firm Offers Varied Jobs

The Arabian-American Oil company now has openings for service in Saudi Arabia for accountants and stenographers, as well as engineers, geologists and geophysicists, according to word received recently at the office of Karl Ontlank, dean of personnel administration.

Those interested in this type of work, as well as those interested in placement of any kind, should see Dean Ontlank as quickly as possible.

comparatively new fields that Thompson believes will employ a great many journalists in the future.

Thompson stressed the importance of local news coverage by radio stations if they are to retain their audience and advertisers. This will require, according to Thompson, the hiring of journalists to cover, report, and write for radio the "home town" news.

Sigma Delta Chi held its traditional fall initiation at the banquet. Initiates were Merle Pugh, Dan Sellard, Tom Swint, Roy Williams, Larry Lau, Wally Hunter, Warren Mack, and Rex Gunn.

The conference continues today with the final address by Floyd W. Lansdon, head of the Portland AP bureau, at 11 a.m. in room 207 Chapman hall.
