

Speaker Slated For Conference Of Career Girls

The women's business conference to be held on the campus Thursday will feature as speakers several prominent business women in Oregon.

Miss Betty Robb, at present a buyer for Russell's in Eugene, will speak on "Buying as a Profession." She will cover her recent buying trip to New York, the process of becoming a buyer, and things to be considered on a purchasing assignment.

Miss Robb, formerly of Seattle, received her degree from Washington university as a major in Romance languages. She was house-mother at Kappa Alpha Theta on this campus for over two years. She began her career as buyer by clerking in a store in Eugene.

Miss Loa Howard, who will address the group interested in the questions involved in social work, is the administrator of the state public welfare commission in Portland. Nationally known as a member of associations and commissions on social work she is well qualified to speak on the importance of public welfare programs and their effect on business.

Jesuit to Speak To Newman Club

Rev. V. J. Jensen, S.J., will speak to the Newman club at 6:45 in the YMCA on "Problems in Psychology."

Father Jensen is currently teaching psychology at Sacred Heart hospital school of nursing. From Port Townsend, Wash., he received his master's degree from the University of Toronto, and has taught at Gonzaga university in Spokane, Wash.

Freshman Assembly Scheduled Thursday

Freshman nominating assembly for the class of 1951 will be held on Thursday, January 22, at 6:30 p.m. in the Gerlinger annex back of the library.

Lecture Slated On Architecture

The University winter term lecture series will open Thursday evening with Marion Dean Ross speaking on the subject, "Colonial Architecture on the West Coast of South America." Ross, assistant professor of architecture, will speak in Chapman hall at 8 p.m.

"Existentialism" will be the lecture subject of Dr. Lucien Wolff, professor of English literature at the University of Rennes, France. Dr. Wolff will appear on the campus February 5. Existentialism is the name given to the contemporary school of philosophy founded by Jean Paul Sartre on the "left bank" of Paris.

Tentatively scheduled for February 12 is the lecture, "The Emerson Nobody Knows." Dr. H. H. Hoeltje, professor of English, who is an authority on New England authors will be the lecturer.

Dr. E. A. Cykler, associate professor of musicology, will lecture

Infirmiry Checks Activities of Twenty

Twenty students checked into the infirmiry this week.

They are: Floyd Mitchell, James Carley, Carol Driskell, Betty Giere, Phyllis Potter, Virginia Walker, Catherine Holman, Richard Martin, Ben Holcomb, Frank Blockleaf, Robert Peterson, Phyllis Brady, Pat Gately, Gordon Wright, W. E. Tassock, John Bryan, Eugene Gillard, Elvin Hale, and Morris Merrit.

Copy Desk

Bob Stephensen, editor
Herb Lazenby
Margie Scandling
Bill Wallace
Bob Schade

on "Music and Humanistic Studies" on February 26.

The last lecture of the winter term series will be given by Dr. Leonard Loeb, professor of physics at the University of California. Dr. Loeb's lecture subject is "Lightning Discharges."

UO Alum Mag Calls Workers

A call has been issued for all students interested in working on the business staff of Old Oregon, alumni magazine.

An orientation meeting, directed by Les Anderson, alumni secretary, will be held today at 4 in the Old Oregon offices in Friendly hall.

The Old Oregon provides ample opportunity in gaining experience in both advertising soliciting and layout work, Jordis Benke, business manager said. It is issued once a month throughout living organizations on the campus, and to 4000 alumni throughout the United States.

Every spring term, a banquet is held for all who have contributed to the magazine during the year.

Scheduled for Wednesday, at 2 p. m., are pictures of the staff to be taken in the Old Oregon office.

Night Staff:

Dean Blankenburg, Editor
Roger Moore
Betty French

Oregon Chooses 'Ballerina' Tops

Top popular song on the Oregon campus is "Ballerina", according to the Chesterfield "College Corner." Francis Craig's "Near You" rated second place with "Serenade of the Bells" as third. Honoring the University of Oregon, the Chesterfield record party introduced Edward Crowley, president of the Los Angeles Alumni association and manager of the Town House, to help Peter Potter, regular disc jockey, introduce the songs selected by the Oregon students as their favorites. Crowley, who attended the University during 1925-8, participated in track and was an outstanding pole vaulter.

35 m.m. FILM

Anso Ultra Speed
Eastman Plus-X
36 exposure rolls in metal cartridges
50c each - Ph. 1128

"Doc Payne 754 E. 13th

Miss Your Dinner (if you have to)

Miss Your Date (if you must)

- But don't miss ...

THE NEWEST, MOST THRILLING TALENT HUNT IN AMERICA
INCLUDING TOP STARS FROM THE COLLEGES...

"PHILIP MORRIS NIGHT

WITH

HORACE HEIDT"

• Every Sunday Night Over NBC, PHILIP MORRIS FINDS A STAR in a search for the great stars of tomorrow. Performers from all over the country ... including the top talent picked from the colleges! Music, drama, thrilling entertainment... weekly prizes of $250... and to the winner of the year - movie and radio contracts, plus a grand prize of $5000 in cash!

Yes! For perfect listening, make a date for Sunday night and bear the stars of tomorrow with PHILIP MORRIS! And for perfect smoking... today, tomorrow, always... light up a PHILIP MORRIS, America's FINEST Cigarette!

BE WITH US EVERY SUNDAY NIGHT OVER NBC... UNTIL THEN

CALL FOR PHILIP MORRIS

Keep the folks in the know on your college activities by sending them a subscription to the EMERALD

$4.00 a year
$2.00 a term
$4.00 a school year