

'Captain' Doesn't Shoot, Just Enters Contests

Red-haired Barbara Bennett is pictured as she will appear to Tyrone Power when he ponders over Little Colonel candidate photos. Power will pick the winner.—(Photo by Kirk Braun.)

Eugene Co-ed Combines Sociology Books, Beauty, Brains, and Big Brown Eyes

Auburn haired and innocent of things military is Barbara Bennett, junior in sociology, Little Captain of Company F. Going down the list Barbara cannot shoot a cannon, rifle, pistol or bow and arrow, but is old hand at such events as the Little Colonel contest.

Barbara was entered last summer by the Eugene Junior Chamber of Commerce in the Oregon Centennial pageant held in Eugene. As a princess she visited festivities being held in other Oregon towns and cities—the

Music of Germans On Record Concert

Music by German composers will be featured at the record concert presented by the Mu Phi Epsilon actives, Sunday afternoon at 4 in the browsing room of the library.

The program is: "Organ Sonata in C minor" (on the 94 Psalm), by Reubke, played by E. Power Biggs; and "Piano Concerto 2" by Brahms, played by Rudolph Serkin.

The concert is open to the public.

Portland Rose festival, the Lewis and Clark centennial at Seaside, the Bend Water carnival and others.

At the Taft red-head roundup she was entered in a bathing beauty contest and was awarded first prize.

Barbara is from Eugene, and is affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi. The brown-eyed Little Colonel candidate is five feet three inches tall, and hopes to go into social case work when she graduates from Oregon.

Stassen to Address Oregon Press Conference; 'Freedom Struggle' Theme of February Speech

Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and candidate for nomination for president of the United States, will speak to the Oregon Press conference February 20 and 21 at the school of journalism. He will give the address at the annual banquet on Friday evening. The topic of his talk will be "The Struggle for Freedom," and will be followed by a question and answer period.

Stassen was elected governor of Minnesota in 1938, and again 1940 and 1942. In 1942 he resigned the governorship to go into active service with the navy. He served under Admiral William F. Halsey as assistant chief of staff. During the period he was in the navy he was promoted from lieutenant-commander to commander, and later to captain.

He has received two citations for performance of duty, the legion of merit for performance of duty, and

HAROLD STASSEN

VOLUME XLIX
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE

NUMBER 71
SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1948

Seniors Prepare Gala Ball For First '48 Campus Formal

Smarty Party Invitations Out To Frosh Girls

Freshman women who earned GPA's of 3.00 or better will be honored Tuesday at Mortar Board's Smarty party. An annual affair, the party will begin at 7 p.m. in alumni hall, Gerlinger.

President Helen Hicks announced yesterday 75 girls out of 200 are qualified to attend.

Invitations to the party were issued when members of the senior women's honorary called at women's living organizations during the noon hour Thursday. Clad in traditional black robes and gold tasseled mortar boards, the girls read off the names of the freshmen eligible to attend the party.

Many Invited

They include: Donna Babb, Betty Lou Bagley, Carla Baldwin, Jacqueline Barbee, Margaret Bates, Audrey Blomquist, Helen Blumenstein, Rebecca Bovingdon, Donna Mary Brennan, Linda Brennessoltz, Eleanor Brownhill.

Mrs. Clarajane Browning, Shirley Bruck, Betty Burkett, Elizabeth Ebbert, Jane Edgeworth, Joyce Everson, Margery Hammond, Janet Hamren, Anita Holmes, Janice Hughes, Glenna Hurst.

Mary Ellen Holland, Elizabeth Hopper, Betty Lagomarsino, Ruth Landry, Betty Marjorie Lane, Kathryn Littlefield, Elaine Loftus, Lena Mae Nelson, Evelyn Nill.

Mary Louise Overlin, Ada Carolyn Parker, Margaret Perkins, Elizabeth Margaret Perry, Martha Piper.

More and More

Maryan Joan Roberts, Beverly Rohrer, Joan Carr, Anne Case, Dorothy Jean Christensen, Helen Marie Collins, Alma Marie Dopson, Nancy Lee Gaveney, Bonny Mae Gienger, Joyce Ione Good, Jeannine Marie Gossler.

Arlene Beatrice Jacobson, Betty Irene Jones, Patsy Ruth Kellogg, (Please turn to page three)

DICK JURGENS

Jurgens Music Will Highlight Dance Tonight

Tonight at 9 p.m. the doors swing open for the annual Senior Ball presented by the Class of '48. The dance this year features the music of Dick Jurgens and his orchestra.

The ball is formal with dark suits or tuxes in order for the men. Flowers are definitely not in order for the dance, stated Bob Wallace, senior class president and chairman of the event.

Approximately 200 tickets for the dance will be sold at the door tonight, the ticket committee announced.

Tickets will be on sale at the educational activities office until noon today.

The appearance of Jurgens and his orchestra will mark their first trip to this area in several months.

Leader Outlines Frosh Elections Vote Procedure

Procedure for freshman class elections to be held Tuesday in the YMCA building was released Thursday by Howard Lemons, ASUO vice-president and director of elections. Representatives of both ISA and ASA will be present at the polls from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Candidates' names—Steve Button, ASA; Barbara Richter, ISA; Wes Robinson, ISA; and Barbara Stevenson, ASA—will appear on the ballot in alphabetical order. Students are to vote in order of preference, 1, 2, 3, 4. Ballots marked in any other fashion will not be acceptable.

Tabulators Listed

Ballot counters are John Miller, Joe Conroy, Earl Reusser, Art Johnson, and Lemons. Assistant dean of men Vergil Fogdall will supervise the tabulation.

All freshmen properly enrolled in the University and with 35 hours or less are eligible to vote. They will receive a ballot after presentation of their educational activities card, which will be checked with the registration book.

"Any student who believes he is eligible," stated Lemons, "but whose name does not appear on the registration book may go to the registrar's office for a slip entitling him to vote."

Supervisors Named

Students on hand to supervise the election are Helen Nickum, Don Latham, Bob Davis, Bob Henderson, and Joe Conroy, ISA; Al Pietschman, Jeannine Macaulay, Cal Smith, Alicia Orcutt, Joan O'Neill, Ron Phillips, Betty Lagomarsino, Clay Meyers, Larry Lau, and John Miller, ASA.

Members of Druids and Phi Theta, junior men's and women's honoraries, respectively, will also aid at the polls. No campaigning will be allowed within 50 yards of the YMCA building on election day.

Lemons has scheduled a meeting of all persons concerned with freshman elections this afternoon at 1 in room 104 Journalism.

Collegiate Meet To Beckon Two

Two delegates to the Pacific Northwest College congress scheduled for March 3 to 6 on the Whitman college campus, Walla Walla, Washington, will be selected Tuesday. Deans of the schools of liberal arts, business administration, and journalism have each submitted the names of four students.

Recommended by Dean Eldon Johnson of liberal arts are Robert Allen, sophomore; Dale Harlan and Warren Miller, seniors in political science; and Margaret Winslow, junior in political science.

From the school of journalism, Dean George Turnbull has recommended Trudi Chernis, sophomore; Mrs. Betty Mack Lynch, senior; Courtney Swander, junior; and Tom Swint, senior.

Dr. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, recommended William H. Burton, sophomore; Arthur Johnson, sophomore; Winthrop Ware, sophomore in liberal arts; and John Yeager, senior.

The students will be interviewed at 1:30 p.m. in the committee room of Johnson hall.

To Choose Two

The two student delegates will be chosen from this group on the basis of their background and knowledge of national and international affairs and the United Nations. Not more than one of the delegates may be a senior.

Each candidate will be interviewed Tuesday by a faculty-student committee composed of Deans Morris and Turnbull; Dr. Paul S. Dull, assistant professor of political science and history; Stan Williamson, ASUO president; Howard Lemons, ASUO vice-president; and Robert Frazier, Emerald editor.

(Please turn to page three)