DAVOS, Switzerland — Ex-King Michael of Romania and his Danish princess confirmed rumors that they are in love when they went into a movie-style elench today on a railroad station platform in their first reunion since he abdicated his throne.

Before leaving the station, Maj. Jacques Vergotti, one of Michael's aides, told the United Press that there will be no official announcement of the couple's engagement, because they have been engaged since December 6.

WASHINGTON — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's "definite and positive" decision to take himself out of presidential politics split his supporters into three camps today.

Some said the "Ike for president boom" will go on anyway. Some took prompt steps to abandon it. Others frankly said they didn't know which way to turn.

WASHINGTON — Under sharp cross-examination by Edwin W. Pauley and Democratic senators, Harold E. Stassen tonight stuck by his charge that Pauley and 10 other persons made nearly $5,000,000 profit on commodity speculation "on the basis of inside information" about government export plans.

WASHINGTON — The CIO political action committee tonight voted 7-2 to throw "all of its resources" against a third party movement.

This gave CIO right wingers a clean sweep over left wing opposition in three days of policy meetings.

CHICAGO — Men teachers at two high schools staged sitdown strikes today after the city council held up their pay checks, and members of the Chicago Teachers' federation (AFL) threatened a city-wide strike Tuesday unless their salaries are paid.

Group to Discuss High Living Cost

The "High Cost of Living" is the topic to be discussed at the Westminster house Sunday evening forum. Speakers will be three members of the University Symposium team, Viola Dunckley, William Boyd, and Dick Neeley. After the presentation, a question and discussion period will be held. A social hour will be held from 6 to 6:30 p.m. when the forum will begin.

Six Scorchers Played

Lambda Chi 26, Villard 18

In the final game of the afternoon a hard driving Lambda Chi Alpha team slaughtered Villard ball handily by a score of 26-18. Bill Cewellen's eleven points led the Lambda Chi offense, but it was Tom Patton's floor generaling that set up the team's win.

teachers' union, representing 7,000 of the city's 14,000 public school teachers, said that a majority of ballots in a strike vote had been returned by members of his union. "About 90 per cent" favored a strike if the board of education does not meet the payroll Monday, he said.

Athletic Gals Slate 6 Games

Tuesday's women's intramural badminton schedule calls for six games at 4 p. m. in the outdoor and indoor gyms.

Slated for the indoor gym are Yvonne Keith of the town team vs. Maryanne Hansen of Alpha Phi, Birdella Ball of Hendricks hall vs. Kay Richardson of the town team, and Margaret McKeen of Pi Phi vs. Georgene Shanklin of Susan Campbell.

In the outdoor gym Sue Dimm of Susan Campbell meets Maxine Arndt of Gamma hall and Betty Burkhart of University house opposes Donna Lyons of Pi Phi. The third game of the outdoor gym will pit the winners of the Williams-McKenna and Bruck-Dening games. Shirley Bruck and Barbara Dening will play this morning to make up a default.

Each match will be the best two out of three games of 11 points each. If no one is present to record the score the contestants are requested to notify Eileen Reimer by calling 4221.

Dorm Leaders Found Group

Formation of a men's dormitory council to unite men's halls of the campus was announced yesterday by Don Latham, junior in business administration, one of the organizers. The membership will be composed of dormitory presidents.

President of the new group is Bill Bond, sophomore in business, who was elected Wednesday night following an Inter-Dormitory council meeting. Also elected were Jack Broome, vice-president, and Lauren MacReynolds, secretary.

Purposes of the council, which corresponds with the Inter-Fraternity council for Greek organizations, are to organize the dormitories that they may work together in solving individual dorm problems through group discussion and action, and to build a strong organization for such cooperation, Latham said.

The group will confer at intervals with Assistant Dean of Men Vergil S. Fogdall.

An organizational meeting will be held at 4:30 p. m. next Thursday in the B-1 lounge of the Vets dormitory.

Amphibian Tryouts Scheduled Monday

The second tryout this term for Amphibians, women's swimming honorary, will be held Monday, January 26, at 7:30 in the Gerlinger pool, Shirley Sault, publicity director, announced.

Any student is eligible to try out, whether or not she has had any swimming training at the University. Tests will be made on the elementary back breaststroke, crawl, back and side strokes a standing front dive and a running front dive from the board.

Talented Quartet To Perform Sunday

A concert by the University string quartet will be presented Sunday at 4 p. m. at the school of music auditorium. Mrs. Jane Thatcher, faculty member of the school of music and guest artist, will play Franck's piano quintet.

Haydn's quartet, Opus 76, No. 1 in G major, which is one of 83 the composer wrote, and Debussy's quartet No. 10, are also on the program.

George Boughton and Mary Kapp Allton, violins; Edmund Cykler, viola; and Milton Dieterich, violincello, complete the group. They plan to give another performance during winter or spring term.

Oregana Staff to Smile

Business staff, editorial, and all other Oregana workers will have pictures taken for the 1948 Oregana, Tuesday at 4 p. m. in front of the Oriental art museum.

Panel Features Palestine Split

Partitioning Palestine will be discussed by panel members of the University Meeting of the Air at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in room 3 Fenton.

R. W. Smith, assistant professor of history; Mrs. David Halpern, regional president of Hadassah; Ivan Makinster, graduate student in political science; and Glenn Morgan, junior in political science, will take part in the discussion "Is Partition the Answer to the Palestine Problem?"

A question and answer period will follow the lectures.

The program is the second of a series planned by the International Relations club. The program will be recorded by KORE and broadcast.
