

Slides to Show National Parks

Kodachrome slides of the U. S. national parks will be shown by J. C. Stovall of the geography department this afternoon at 4 p.m. in the browsing room.

Stovall will discuss Yellowstone, Black Hills, the Bad Lands of Wyoming, the Grand Canyon, Zion and Bryce parks, Canyon DeChelley, and many others.

These lectures will be given by members of the faculty on the last Tuesday of each month, and are sponsored by the House Librarians association, under the leadership of Miss Bernice Rise, readers' consultant of the library.

The lectures are open to the public.

and brown hair. As a freshman at the University, he is a liberal arts major, but plans a change to business administration next year. He played on the freshman football team.

Five-foot three, with blue eyes and dark brown hair, Barbara Stevenson, Kappa Alpha Theta, ASA number two candidate, has combined activities and scholarship with a great deal of success, both at Grant high school and at the University.

As a student at Grant, she was secretary of her senior class and was May fete queen. She was an officer in several clubs and received both the Diamond and Journal awards for scholarship.

In her college career, Barbara has so far been equally busy. Her GPA for the past term was a near-perfect 3.94. She was president of her Theta pledge class, chairman of a "Y" commission, and has worked on the business staffs of the Oregon and Emerald. During Homecoming week she was chairman of decorations for the Bill Hayward fish fry.

Her major is liberal arts, and she enjoys dancing and listening to records.

Druids Sponsor Football Movies

Movies of the Oregon-Stanford football game played last November will be shown in room 207 Chapman hall tonight. The first showing will begin at 6:30, with a re-run scheduled at 7:05. There will be no admission charge.

Druids, junior men's honorary is sponsoring the films. Films of last year's Homecoming game with Oregon State will be shown February 3.

again too. This time it's Barbara Link who is wearing the DU pin of Randy Polson, and likewise for Phyllis Chelf and Dick Davies. Alfa Phi June Cowell, a Montana transfer now has Bill Duhaine's DU pin.

Valentine's day is the wedding date chosen by ADPi Rebecca Bovington and Bill Bales. Tri Delt Elizabeth Nelson is sporting a big, handsome rock from SAE Scott Adams. She announced her engagement at a fireside with little nosegays of the SAE flower, violets.

It's just that PiPhi GINNY Walker and Sigma Nu Darrell Robinson are together so much that led people to believe them pinned. Sorry, my friends, for rushing things a bit!

Chi Psi Dwight Gabbert, president of the freshman interfraternity council, says that when the grades for the various houses are compiled, the pledge class with the highest GPA will get a cup for their efforts. Incidentally, you can keep the cup, whatever house you are.

Enough of this luff making. I'm off to the infirmary for a Virus X cure. Buy your coffee at the Side. It kills off all sorts of germs.

Outstanding at Oakridge

"Outstanding girl of the senior class" was the presentation made Miss Richter when she was graduated from Oakridge high school. This award was the result of the popularity and leadership she displayed in her handling of the positions of student body treasurer, vice-president of the girls' league, and vice-president of the girls' athletic club.

Miss Richter, a brown-eyed, five foot-five brunette, has kept up her interest in sports on the campus. She's represented Susan Campbell hall on the volleyball, swimming, and basketball intramural teams. This ISA candidate for the num-
