

Suggested Bill Will Affect GI Subsistence

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3—(UP)—The house today unexpectedly shelved other business and took up legislation to increase the benefits for veterans who are studying under the GI bill of rights. Chairman Edith Nourse Rogers, R., Mass., of the house veterans committee moved to suspend regular procedures and consider the legislation. The first bill would affect veterans training under an apprenticeship program. A veteran in training may now receive a total income of $175 a month if he is still single and $200 if he has dependents. The new proposal would allow him $250 when single, $325 with one dependent and $350 for more than one dependent. Another measure on the program would increase subsistence payments to veterans enrolled in regular schools. This would authorize monthly payments of $75 to single veterans, $105 to veterans with one dependent and $120 to veterans with more than one dependent.

Feb. 7 Set at Co-op For Vets' Deadline

February 7 is the deadline for purchasing veteran's books and supplies under the G. I. bill, according to Miss Ida Zinser, Co-op manager. She also stated that special order books will be in open stock after Saturday. The Co-op has mailed students one or two notices for special book orders which must be picked up before Saturday.

Magazine Gets Three Students

Barbara Gunn, senior in English; Kit Wilhelm, junior in journalism; and Joan Mimnaugh, sophomore in journalism, were recently accepted to membership to Mademoiselle's 1947-8 college board. They will be competing with over 800 college girls from 46 states for the award of a month's work in the New York offices of the magazine.

This award is given annually to the 20 board members who excel in their Mademoiselle assignments during the year. These 20 girls become guest editors of the August college issue of the magazine.

Students submit three assignments during the year in which they report on college activities and current campus trends.

Affairs Committee Publishes News

The public affairs committee of the YWCA, under the leadership of Janet Beigal, junior in advertising, is publishing its second news sheet this week to be sent to all women's living organizations.

The committee each week prepares a summary of news of local, national, and international importance. It requests each house to read the bulletin and post it.

The purpose of the committee is to stimulate student interest in world affairs.

WINS POPULARITY CONTEST

NO, the man in this picture is not upside down! You must be reading this standing on your head. Little wonder you can't pass the Finger-Nail Test. Better straighten up and streak down to the corner drug store for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil Hair Tonic. Just a spot of Wildroot Cream-Oil grooms your hair neatly and naturally—gives it that neat, well-groomed "college" man look. Relieves annoying dryness and removes loose, ugly dandruff . . . It's non-alcoholic, so don't try drinking it. Remember, however, it contains soothing Lanolin. Get Wildroot Cream-Oil hair tonic today and see for yourself why it's "again and again the choice of men who put good grooming first." For generous trial supply free, send this ad with your name and address to Wildroot Co., Inc., Dept. C-D, Buffalo 11, N. Y.
