

The Weather

Cloudy with light rains today. Showers Sunday. Little change in temperature.

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

Oregon Wins

The Webfoots edged out Idaho, 43 to 41, last night. See sports page for further details.

VOLUME XLIX

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1948

NUMBER 86

Campus Prepared to Extend Royal Welcome to Fathers

Designer To Speak At Confab

New Yorker Slated Principal Speaker At NW Conference

Highlighting the second and final day of the Northwest Drama conference and regional meet of the American Educational Theater association on the University campus will be a talk by Lee Simonson, leading New York stage designer.

He will speak on "The University and Community Theater as Leaders in Decentralized Theatre" at a general session at 2:30 p.m. in the music school auditorium.

Open to Public

In response to requests from townspeople and students, this session only will be open to the general public.

Opening today's program will be a general session in Johnson hall at 9 a.m., which will include a business session and announcements. The general session will adjourn into three divisional meetings at 10 a.m.

The discussion on high school theaters with Robert D. Steman, Medford senior high school, as chairman will be held in the Guild theater, Johnson hall.

University theater discussion with Everett Courtright, Oregon state college as chairman will be held in A Quonset, 1. Community or civic theaters will be explained by Helen Weed, Tacoma Little Theatre in C Quonset, 2.

Sectional Meetings

From 11 a.m. to noon the following sectional meetings will be conducted: Technical, G. Edward Hearn, University of California at Los Angeles, chairman, at A Quonset, 1; Direction, Robert Gray, University of Washington, chairman, at Guild theater, Johnson hall; Playwriting, George Savage, University of Washington, (Please turn to page three)

Sunday Concert Features Grieg

Mu Phi Epsilon actives will present the fifth browsing room concert Sunday. The concert will begin at 4 p.m. and will feature the music of the Norwegian composer, Edvard Grieg. The program includes:

Concerto in A minor for piano and orchestra; the Peer Gynt suite (No. 1) in four parts, 1. Morning, 2. In the Hall of the Mountain King, 3. Anitra's Dance, and 4. The Death of Ase; Sonata No. 2 in G major for violin and piano; Elegiac Melodies, 1. Heart Wounds, and 2. Last Spring. Norwegian Dance No. 3 and No. 4 will also be played.

Bev Pitman and Art Johnson, co-chairmen of Dads' Day, express the sentiment of students at the University as they display a welcome sign from one of the living organizations. Special event today for both students and their fathers is the Dads' Day luncheon at John Straub.

David McCosh Slated to Lecture On Prints Sunday in Art Gallery

David McCosh, assistant professor of art, will lecture Sunday at 2 p.m. on "Print Techniques." His talk will be given in the art gallery of the art and architecture school.

McCosh's talk is related in topic

Bargelt Reigns As Heart King

Ken Bargelt, sophomore in business administration, was crowned the 1948 King of Hearts during half-time at last night's basketball game. Sharing the spotlight with him were the two knaves, Mo Turner and Bill Burness.

Bjorg Hansen, president of the YWCA, acted as prime minister to crown the newly-elected royalty.

Bob Leicht, son of football star Jake Leicht, served as crown bearer. He marched up the floor while the band played regal music. A momentary assist was given him by Chuck Cameron.

Bargelt received his royal dunking at 11:30 p.m. in front of the Alpha Delta Pi house at the hands of Malcolm MacGregor, last year's King of Hearts. Bargelt will hold the title until next year, when he will dunk his successor.

Other half-time entertainment included original compositions played by campus musicians. They include Joe Ingram, Marty Wright, Lee George, Bill Fletcher, and Arnie Martin.

The five vocalists were Sid Rosen, Bill Monroe, Carl Reusser, Norman Lamb, and Mart Bonime.

to an exhibit of French prints from Corot to Picasso being shown in the art gallery from 1 to 5 p.m. daily. The prints are on loan to the school of architecture and allied arts from the permanent exhibit of the San Francisco museum of art.

Ends February 26

Prints of works by Renoir, Veres, George Roualt, Matisse and Toulouse-Lautree are included in the display which will end February 26.

McCosh commented, "Since the period of Romanticism, painters have developed either point of lithographers crayon in order to record the fleeting patterns of age. These mediums offer a variety of techniques and style, originality, vitality, and the moment as it is preserved in the freshness of line—all of which tend to put us in closer communion with the artist."

French Poetry

The next Sunday, February 22, Dr. W. S. Baldinger, associate professor of art, and Dr. Laurence LeSage will hold a discussion on "French Poetry from Baudelaire to Surrealism."

AWS Prexy Calls Weekend Petitions

Petitions for the chairmanships of the AWS Preview Weekend committees, invitation, Nickel Hop, and exchange dinners were called for yesterday.

Petitions should be turned in to Barbara Johns, president of AWS, at the Delta Gamma house by February 20.

Places to Take Dad Told by Committee

If students are wondering where to take dad this afternoon here are some suggestions submitted by the Dads' Weekend committee:

The law school, art school, journalism school, YWCA, YMCA, Westminster house and Wesley house will be open all day.

Open during the afternoon will be the Oriental art museum and the home economics department.

The men's physical education building will be open to visiting dads from 8 to 12 a.m. and from 4 to 5 p.m. today.

Women to Dine For Benefit Fund

See Exchange List Page 6

Women's living organizations will hold exchange dinners Wednesday night to raise money for the Dean Hazel P. Schwering scholarship fund, Genevieve Siskey, chairman of the dinner announced yesterday.

The scholarship is given to a junior girl who would not be able to graduate without financial aid. Each girl on the campus is asked to contribute at least a dime to the fund when she goes to dinner, Miss Siskey said.

From last term's dinner $107.20 was added to the fund.

Formerly, the dinner was given just once a year, but beginning fall term, it was decided to have a dinner once a term.

Besides raising the money to help some deserving junior girl, the dinners also serve to broaden friendships among campus women, Miss Siskey added.

'Weekend' Slate Told By Heads

Registration Today Plans for Luncheon, Meetings Announced

(See Schedule Page 6)

Dads may register at the Eugene and Osburn hotels and Johnson hall from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. today, according to Registration Chairman Richard Neeley.

Tickets for tonight's basketball game will be sold at registration.

Valentine Theme

Luncheon Chairman Joan O'Neill has announced that decorations for today's luncheon will follow the Valentine theme. Governor John H. Hall is the featured speaker. He will be presented by Colonel Thomas F. Gunn, president of the Oregon Dads' club.

The annual business meeting is scheduled for 2:15 p.m. today. Election of next year's officers will be the main order of business.

Entertainment Planned

Half-time entertainment at tonight's basketball game has been planned in honor of Dads. A committee consisting of Alex Murphy, Bob Mathison and Joan Frydenlund planned the program.

Ed Anderson, award chairman, has stated that he will present first and second place awards to the houses with the highest percentage of dads in attendance. At half-time he is also giving cups to the winning men's and women's houses in the sign contest. Assisting Anderson in registration tabulation are Bill Walker and Jim Hershner. The house with the largest number of freshman dads as guests is also receiving a prize.

Requests Tour

Hospitality Chairman Janet Beigal has requested students to take their dads on a tour of the campus buildings open for inspection. She has also announced that special services are being held in Eugene churches. All campus living organizations have planned Sunday dinners honoring dads.

Al Pietschman, promotion chairman, was interviewed about Dads' Weekend plans at half-time of last night's basketball game by Announcer Jimmy Morris of KOAC.

Honoraries Aid

Members of women's honoraries, Kwama and Phi Theta Upsilon, are assisting in registration. Other members of the registration committee include Pete Poort, Clark Austen, Sally Johnson and John Lewis.

Other members of the Dads' Weekend committee include Co-chairmen Bev Pitman and Art Johnson; special events, Jordis Benke; invitations, Marie Lombard; and publicity, Nancy Peterson.