Curtains rise at 8 and 8:15 p.m. respectively.

World Headlines

BERLIN, Feb. 13—Russia set up a German administration in its occupation zone today in a move which emphasized the split between East and West and ended immediate hope of a unified regime for all Germany. Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Soviet commander in chief, announced the Russian decision which follows the lead the United States and Great Britain gave in establishing a German economic administration regime in their combined western zones.

LONDON, Feb. 13—Amid the noisy diplomatic battle between the East and West, Russia has quietly opened negotiations in London for multi-million dollar purchases of British industrial and scientific equipment to implement the recent Anglo-Russian trade pact. Authoritative sources said the permanent Russian trade delegation here opened discussions with representatives of British industries and the board of trade for placing orders within the scope of the agreement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—Major changes in the government's program for supporting farm prices were proposed today in a tentative senate bill.
