

Drama Confab Invited Here For 1949 Meet

Host to the Northwest Drama conference and regional meet will be the University of Oregon again in 1949. This was decided by delegates to the 1948 convention at the general business meeting Saturday morning.

Horace G. Robinson, director of the University theater, said Monday that the significance of the conference's return to Oregon could not be overestimated. University drama students especially benefit when the conference is in Eugene, he said, because they have an opportunity to hear and meet outstanding figures of the theater at little or no expense or inconvenience.

More than 200 delegates from Idaho, California, Washington, and Oregon attended this conference of the American educational theater association, the first one held since the war.

A semi-formal buffet banquet on Saturday night was the last official meeting of the conference. Le-Jeune W. Griffith, senior in journalism, was chairman of the banquet with entertainment planned by members of Phi Beta, women's national music and drama honorary, Wayne Sherwood, junior in music, and Eleanor Culver, senior in music, sang selections from musical comedies, "Oklahoma" and "Showboat." Incidental music was furnished by Maryen Roberts, freshman in music. Toastmaster for the banquet was W. A. Dahlberg, associate professor of speech and drama.

YW Co-Executives To Meet Thursday

YWCA Execs Recommend Constitution, By-Laws Revisions

The following revisions have been suggested to the YWCA constitution and by-laws. President Bjorg Hansen has announced that Y members will be given the opportunity to vote on the changes at YWCA elections at the beginning of spring term.

In Article I, Section II of the by-laws the position of second vice-president would be added to the list of officers.

In Article III, Section III, duties of the second vice-president would be added. They include:

1. Acting in the absence of the first vice-president.
2. Acting as chairman of the freshman program.
3. Responsibility of leadership of the junior advisers.
4. Leadership of the freshman commission and counseling program.
5. Submitting a written report of each term's work.
6. Other duties pertaining to her office.

Article IV, Section I of the constitution now reads: "Officers of the YWCA include president, vice-president, second vice-president, secretary and treasurer. They shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the association at the beginning of spring term and shall assume their duties immediately."

The clause stating that final nominations should be posted by the nominating committee at least 48 hours before the election would be dropped from Article IV, Section II of the constitution.

Section III would be added to Article IV, stating that if any cabinet vacancies occur, they shall be filled by the president at the next business meeting of the cabinet.

Throughout the constitution and by-laws the title, general secretary, has been changed to executive director.
