

The Weather

Eugene and vicinity: increasing cloudiness with widely scattered showers today; cooler.

Hollywood's Here
Jimmy Fidler visits the Oregon campus—and lets his readers know the scoop. See page two.

VOLUME XLIX

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1948

NUMBER 88

Dull Named To PNCC Delegation

Faculty Members Accorded Official Status at Meet

Paul S. Dull, assistant professor of political science and history, has been appointed faculty representative to the Pacific Northwest College congress.

Dull will accompany Warren Miller and Bob Allen, student delegates from Oregon, to the meeting on the Whitman college campus, Walla Walla, Washington, March 3 to 6. This is the first time in the three-year life of the congress that faculty members have attended with official status.

Charles Leigh Wheeler of San Francisco, past president of Rotary International and member of many welfare and charitable organizations, will be the featured speaker on the Marshall Plan section of the student congress.

College Delegates

Whitman President Wilslow S. Anderson also announced that 16 colleges have thus far made plans to send delegates to the meeting. Delegates will soon receive a 25-page syllabus which will include questions to be discussed, background of the problems, and suggested reading on the topics.

Dull has taught at Oregon two years. Before that he was at the University of Washington, where he was connected with the far eastern institution. He has previously worked with the department of state and was assigned to cover the United Nations conference.

(Please turn to page three)

Exploration Films On 'Free Flicks' Bill

Tonight's audio-visual movie offerings are "The Bottom of the World," about the south polar explorations, "The Tragedy of Mt. Everest," the story of Captain Noel's expedition to climb Mt. Everest. This film also depicts the customs of the people in the surrounding area.

Third of the movies is "Krakatoa," a movie about volcanoes. The first showing of these pictures will begin at 7:30 p.m. in room 207 Chapman.

University to Host Celebrity

Stassen, Presidential Aspirant, To Speak Saturday at Mac Court

The former governor of Minnesota and now candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, Harold E. Stassen will appear before the student body of the University and Eugene townspeople in a meeting Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in McArthur court. The topic for Saturday night's meeting has not been announced.

Stassen will also speak Friday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the Oregon press conference banquet at the Eugene hotel. His address Friday night will be on "The Struggle for Freedom."

Before arriving in Eugene for the press conference banquet, Stassen will make a series of stops at small towns in the Willamette valley to make short speeches. He will fly to Bend early Saturday for a meeting and then will fly back to Eugene for his campus speech.

In a recent campus poll Harold E. Stassen was selected by the students as their choice for the next president of the United States.

Winning Essay to Receive Philo Sherman Bennett Prize

Announcement of the Philo Sherman Bennett prize for an essay on political science has been released by Dr. Waldo Schumacher, chairman of the award committee for 1948.

This prize, totaling $50 this year, will be given to the University student submitting "the best essay on the principles of free government," under the terms of the bequest. The two subjects chosen for the 1948 contest are: "The Place of Third Parties in American Politics" and "The Status of Civil Rights in Oregon."

Essayists may pick whichever subject they are most interested in for their topic, although the papers will all be judged together and only the one prize will be given.

Faculty to Install B.C. Honorary

Three members of the Romance language department will leave February 27 to install Beta Iota chapter of Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary, at the University of British Columbia.

Making the trip will be D. M. Dougherty, head of the department, L. O. Wright, professor of Romance languages and Clarence Kraft, instructor in Romance languages and national president of the honorary.

Following the installation the Oregon professors will attend a Seattle executive conference of the Northwest chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. Wright is national AATSP president.

The conference will settle plans for an annual meeting of the association in April at the University of Washington, in commemoration of Miguel Cervantes' 400th birthday.

The three will return to the University February 30.

The contest rules state that any undergraduate in the institution is eligible to compete. The essay itself must be 6000 words or less and follow strictly the standard documentation practices. Deadline for the contest is May 15, 1948.

Full information may be obtained from the announcements on the bulletin boards of all University academic buildings, or from Dr. Schumacher and the other two members of the award committee, L. D. Epstein and R. W. Smith.

University Seniors Receive Awards

Graduate scholarships and store service awards at the University of Pittsburgh have been awarded to five University of Oregon seniors. They are Betty J. Bennett, Benjamin Elder, Jr., William Hodgson, Alfred Schmachel, and Charles Slaymaker. All are enrolled in the school of business administration.

The students will work part time in Pittsburgh department and specialty stores while attending school.

Order Yearbook Now, Says Business Head

Oregana Faces Cut Unless Enough Copies Are Purchased by Tomorrow's Deadline

OLGA YEVTICH

Olga Yevtich, business manager of the 1948 Oregana, stressed the importance of ordering yearbooks in the educational activities office before 5:30 tomorrow in an announcement made yesterday. She said that sections of the book are now being printed so a decision concerning the number of books to be issued will have to be made immediately.

In case a sufficient number of Oreganas is not ordered, 4000 books will be printed instead of the 4200 authorized by the educational activities board. Miss Yevtich said this cut of 200 books may not be necessary if enough orders are placed by Thursday morning.

The business manager stressed that a partial payment of $2 can be made with the remaining $4 to be paid before April 15. She said this plan was instituted for the benefit of students who want Oreganas but cannot pay the full amount now.

Any cut in quantity will definitely not affect the quality of the 1948 yearbook, Miss Yevtich added.

The educational activities office in McArthur court is open from 8 to 12 noon and 1 to 5 p.m. daily.

Mu Phi Epsilon Plans Silver Tea

Patronesses of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music honorary, will hold their annual silver tea this afternoon at the Delta Delta Delta house from 3 to 5. Proceeds from the tea are used to benefit the Mu Phi Epsilon scholarship fund. This scholarship is available to women music students.

A program of American music will be presented by active members of the honorary at 3:30 and 4:15 p.m. "Suite for Clarinet and Piano" by Halsey will be given by Margaret Holm, accompanied by Wilma Jean Wilson. Dorothy Schaefer will present a medley of American folk songs, a string bass solo.

A trio consisting of Marie Perry, Joyce Davis, and Virginia Burt will sing "Perhaps to Dream" by Douglas Moore and "ABC Sharp" by John Pasher Howard. They will be accompanied by Pat Heinrich.

Wilma Jean Wilson is president of the local chapter. President of the patronesses is Mrs. John H. Beck.

Mrs. Wickham to Talk

Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, dean of women, will speak on "Plans for College" Thursday evening at a meeting in Coos Bay of high school senior women of the area.

Chances Open To Upperclassmen

Examinations which will offer junior and senior students the opportunity of participating in special training programs in the fields of engineering, mathematics, chemistry, physics, meteorology, and metallurgy have been announced through Karl Onthank, dean of personnel administration. The examinations will be given in April by the board of U. S. civil service examiners.

Onthank stated that this is the first time that such examinations have been open to juniors. He explained that qualified students who pass the examinations may receive provisional appointments prior to completion of their college work. They will enter upon duty after graduation.

Onthank added that a full description of the program, jobs open, and sample questions for the examinations may be obtained at his office in Friendly hall.

Prominent Oregon Publishers to Speak at Conference

By CONNIE JACKSON

Friday's opening sessions of the Oregon newspaper publishers association conference will feature talks and forums led by prominent newsmen of the state.

Leading off with the topic "Making Grass Roots Grow" will be William L. Blizzard, publisher of the Oswego Review. One-time publisher of a California paper, Blizzard holds a masters degree in journalism from the University of Kansas. During the war he served with the navy.

"What and Why Is a Cartoon," a discussion of some of the problems of cartooning, will be given by Quincy Scott, editorial cartoonist on The Oregonian for the past 17 years. He is known as one of the most capable men in the cartooning field.

William L. Thorniley, J. Walter Thompson Company, Seattle, will speak on "Advertising—Yesterday and Today." Thorniley has an unusual hobby, that of collecting old type faces, and he is expected to tell of some of his experiences, and opinions of how small town newspapers are regarded by advertisers.

Assistant news editor of the Oregon Journal, David Eyre will talk on the American Press Institute seminars.

At the joint faculty and conference luncheon Friday noon, Dr. Harry K. Newburn, president of the University, will discuss the current situation at Oregon, and some future plans.

After lunch, Dr. Laurence Campbell, journalism professor, will open the afternoon program. His subject will be "Let's Give the Newspaper Reader a Lift."

Following Campbell's talk, Charles E. Gratke, foreign editor of the Christian Science Monitor and second annual Eric W. Allen Memorial Fund lecturer, will speak on "Covering This Foreign World." Gratke is an alumnus of Oregon and a recognized authority on foreign news coverage.

Clifford Kaynor, Ellensburg Daily Record, Ellensburg, Washington, will discuss "Organization and Our Publisher Problems."

Chairman of the Nation Editorial association's non-metropolitan daily newspaper committee, Kaynor has taken an active part in state and national newspaper association activities.

Managing editor of the Eugene Register-Guard William M. Tugman will discuss the program for accrediting journalism schools. He served recently as the newspaper representative on the accrediting committee which inspected three California journalism schools. Tugman is president of the board of trustees of the Eric W. Allen Memorial Fund.

"The Struggle for Freedom" is the subject of Harold E. Stassen, candidate for the nomination as president of the United States. Former governor of Minnesota, Stassen will speak at the annual banquet Friday evening.

Saturday, three group breakfasts will be held, and following these will be conference forums. The ONPA will hold its semi-annual meeting at 11:30 a.m. following the forums.

"Early Oregon Newspapermen I Have Known" will be the topic of Fred Lockley, editorial writer and columnist for the Oregon Journal. Lockley will address the closing luncheon Saturday noon. Officers of the press conference for the following year will also be elected at the luncheon.