

Visitor to Give Added Courses Spring Quarter

Two courses in the department of religion for spring term will be taught by Dr. Henry N. Wieman, professor of the philosophy of religion, University of Chicago, who will be visiting professor of religion for the term. Dr. Paul B. Means, head of the department of religion, yesterday explained the courses.

One course, "Philosophy of Religion," numbered R-323, will be scheduled at 11 a. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The other, "Contemporary Crisis in Our Civilization," R 464, is scheduled for 3 p. m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and is expected to prove a popular course, both for audit and credit, Dr. Means said.

Doctor Wieman, who recently finished a book on the subject, has outlined the latter course as follows:

1. Can our civilization survive: the cycle of civilization.
2. Can our civilization survive: the maturity of a civilization.
3. Can our civilization survive: the problem of survival.

The course will be open to upper division students, graduate students, and townspeople who may care to register for audit. It will deal with the various theories of the nature of the development and decline of civilization as set forth in Oswald Spengler, Brooks Adams, Gordon Childe and Arnold Toynbee.

Conditions under which development and decline occur will be dealt with in the course. Attempt will be made to apply the above principles to the problem of contemporary civilization.

Residents and visitors of Kenosha, Wis., contribute between eight and nine tons of pennies and nickels each year to parking meters.

The Ohio State museum and historic sites in the state attracted 1,349,802 visitors during 1947.

Insurance Movie Slated for Students

A motion picture showing the operation of an insurance company will be shown at 11 p. m., March 11 in the Commerce building Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration, has announced. It will be open to members of insurance classes and all others interested.

The movie will be shown in conjunction with the interviewing of applicants for insurance jobs by Wayne W. Thompson of the North American companies. Thompson, assistant director of training school in Philadelphia, will be looking for men interested in the property and casualty insurance fields, Onthank said.

Those qualifying will be given six months training in the school at Philadelphia, with transportation paid, accommodations found by the back, if the applicant should be unsuccessful.

WORLD HEADLINES

HELSINKI, Finland, March 1—

The conservative party announced its opposition to negotiations of a Russo-Finnish military alliance today a few hours after President Juho K. Paasikivi discussed the proposed pact in a secret session with Finland's top political and military leaders.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 1—Democratic leaders of South Carolina and Tennessee today turned thumbs down on President Truman as the party's 1948 candidate for the White House.

At the same time, the Mississippi Democratic committee voted to withdraw from the party's nominating convention in June unless it pledged itself to fight

"anti-southern" laws — that is President Truman's civil rights program.

The Crump forces, headed by Sen. Kenneth D. McKellar, led the fight against Mr. Truman at the Chicago convention in 1944 when the late President Roosevelt wanted him for vice-president. Mr. Truman was nominated but the Tennessee delegation held out until the bitter end.

NEW YORK, March 1—Thirty-year-old seaman Filipe Torres couldn't take the juke box tune that goes "bongo, bongo bongo" another time. To prove he wasn't fooling, Torres early today shot a young girl fancier of the song, a bartender who tried to intervene and finally—after a running gun battle with police—was shot himself.

PITTSBURGH, March 1—A "students for Wallace" rally at Carnegie lecture hall was nearly broken up today by the boos, catcalls, and heckling of Pitt and Duquesne university students. Police stemmed off what may have turned into a riot, which threatened when pro-Wallace speakers invited Wallace opponents to take the stand. Scores of students hurtled over chairs in a race to the platform, but the police, armed with riot clubs, staved them off and made them mount one by one.

YOU CAN BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CITIZEN MARINES

Yes, now the Citizen Marine Corps (Reserve) is opening its membership to young men between the age of 17 and 32, both veterans and non-veterans. This organization is the civilian branch of the famous U. S. Marines whose accomplishments and proud traditions are written in history.

If you wish, you may receive the well-known Marine training under competent instructors; obtain high school and college credits, or training in a trade. You are invited to engage in sports, recreation, parties and dances. You may even be paid to visit Virginia, Southern California or North Carolina with other young men from your community during the summer.

It is possible to earn from $157 to $350 per year in your spare time, depending on your rank (reservists receive promotions!). All this, and you're still a civilian!

So, if you want to share the prestige and tradition of the finest, phone or visit your local Marine Reserve Headquarters. There is a spot for you.
