Everyone Hits For Points As Cougar Hopes Killed

By DON FAIR

Lots of things happened at McArthur court last night, as Oregon shook a slump to wallop Washington State 73-54. Dick Wilkins, Webfoot forward, set a new all-time Northern Division scoring record, the Cougars were rudely bounced from the Northern Division title picture, and John Warren's Ducks played their best game of the season since the second Washington contest, before 6500 fans.

The Oregon cagers were deadly in all departments—from the floor, from the foul line, and under the backboards—as they polished off WSC, to narrow down the league pennant chase between Oregon State and Washington. Saturday night the Webfoots may again have the opportunity to play a wrecking crew role when they meet the Aggies.

Wilkins Sets Record

High Oregon man for the evening with 15, Dick Wilkins made a niche for himself in ND records at 5:50 of the second half, when he swished home a two-hand 30-footer to eclipse Red Rocha's total scoring mark of 634, set last year. Wilkins now has 639 markers to his credit, with the lone Aggie game ahead of him.

Warren pulled another rabbit out of the hat last night, when he started Kenny Seeborg at the forward spot, although Seeborg is normally a guard. And the change was just what the doctor ordered.

Seeborg Starts

Seeborg flipped in seven points in the first three minutes to start the Webfoots off on a scoring spree which the Cougars couldn't match. The Astoria lad started the ball rolling with a running one-hand shot from the side which WSC matched.

Then Seeborg, cleverly switching his dribble going through the key, canned a left-hand lay-in. He followed this up with an underhand flip from behind the backboard, and added a charity to put the Ducks ahead, 9-2.

From here on in, the rest of the Webfoot team took up the slack, although the battling Cougars made a game of it throughout the greater part of the first half. At the 13-minute mark, the WSC quint tied the contest for the fifth time. 23-23, which was the last time they really got close to the determined Ducks.

Bartelt Hits

Jim Bartelt took over at this point and hit a long beam-scraping two-hander, added a free toss, and dunked an over-the-head toss from five feet distant. Bob Amacher, who again played a dynamite game

University, Hendricks Meet For Girls' IM Hoop Pennant

By ANN MORTON

Harriet Minot of University house topped the scoring column and lead her teammates as they edged Highland house 35 to 30 in the last round of the girls' intramural basketball semi-finals. University house will play Hendricks hall this afternoon for the championship.

Miss Minot made 32 of her team's 35 points. The game became a duel between her and Willie Earnest of Highland house, who was never behind though Highland never behind although Highland narrowed the margin to one point several times and once tied the score. They were unable to muster offensive strength to take the lead, however.

Highland's biggest push came in the third quarter with the score 27 to 25 for University house. Miss Earnest sunk one from close in to tie the game at 27-27 but a free throw put the winners back in a lead they never relinquished.

In the fourth quarter, Highland matched University house basket for basket until Miss Minot made two field goals in rapid succession to give University house five points that won the game.

With three minutes to play, Highland's Hazel Peterson went out of the game with a leg injury.

The first half of the game was uneventful, with University house leading 19 to 16 at the break. The second half moved more rapidly as Highland tried desperately to win the game that would give them a berth in the finals. Speedy ball handling and good passing among the forwards characterized the winners, although the victory was due to Miss Minot's shooting.

Candidates Greet Call By Mentor

A total of 53 candidates, including eight lettermen, answered Coach Don Kirsch's initial varsity baseball turnout yesterday, as the diamonders began preparations for the coming Northern Division campaign.

Kirsch had the infielders and outfielders shagging flies, while the pitchers worked about 20 minutes apiece with the catchers. Following this, the baseball men went through a calensthetic session, and finished off the afternoon workout with some running exercises.

Kirsch said that the remainder of practices for this week would be more of the same type as yesterday in an effort to get the men ready for the season.

Eight Lettermen

The eight lettermen returning to the baseball fold this spring for Oregon are Dick Rodiger and Bill Burgher, catchers; Dick Bartle, first base; Walt Kirsch, second base; Al Cohen, shortstop; John Kovenz, third base; Whitey Lokan, pitcher; and Hal Zurcher and Pat Wohlers, outfielders.

The remainder of the turnouts include: pitchers—Jim Kays, Jim Ekstrom, Homer Brobst, Robert Thomson, Bob Charlton, Lawrence Beamer, Sid Mills, Dewayne Johnson, Horace DiBernardi, Bob Walker, George Watkins, Russ Hawk, Howard Kelterer, Don Henwood, Mel Krause, Kenneth Martin, Clair Dammarell, and Will Stradly.

Tournout Listed

Infielders—Dick Courtright, Chuck Strader, Don Dibble, John Helfner, George Huggins, Bud Smith, Bill O'Hearn, and Don Kimball. Catcher—Duff Kimsey.

Outfielders—Jim Vitti, Jack Hecht, John Jones, Bob Erickson, Al Lippman, Sam Smolish, John Green, Russell Niehaus, and Eugene Gehrke.

Frosh Take Marshfield In Third Stanza, 62-45

By GLENN GILLESPIE

Playing under the handicap of a home crowd's jeers and boos, the University of Oregon Freshman basketball team defeated Marshfield's defending champion Pirates, 62-45, last night at McArthur court, in a preliminary battle before the varsity game. This was win number 15 for the Frosh, against four defeats.

It was Marshfield's third defeat this season, and the second time that the Frosh have beaten them. The Heldtmen took a 57-47 win from the Pirates last Saturday night at Coos Bay.

It was the sharp shooting of Dick Mase which kept the Duckling score jumping in the first half, and Don Peterson warmed up after the intermission to bang in all 15 of his points. Mase, who started last night for the second time this week, is the most improved ball player on the Frosh squad. He collected 13 points, mostly close in and played a hard game under the boards. Along with Urban and Taffesell, the Frosh had the backboards under control most of the way.

Monty Hot

Rangy Bob Montgomery, a tricky ball-handler, hit three field goals in the first quarter to lead the Pirates. He topped Marshfield scoring with 12. Mase and Brad Fullerton led the Frosh to a 18-11 first-quarter margin, with eight and four points respectively.

Both teams cooled off in the second quarter, the Frosh scoring only three points, and Marshfield eight.

Scoring came thick and fast in the second half, with both squads going full steam. Peterson, Fullerton, and Jack Keller did most of the Frosh point-making, while Montgomery and Don Bruce kept Bill Borchers' preppers in the contest.

Frosh Spurt

The Yearlings started pulling away in this half, and the younger Pirates just couldn't keep up. Third quarter score was 41-32, Frosh.

Peterson was high for the Frosh with 15 second-half points. Mase's 13 and ten each by Keller and Fullerton tells the story. Mase and Fullerton led the Frosh in the first Marshfield game, scoring 21 points between them.

Marshfield took 57 shots from the floor and hit 15, for a .263 percentage. The Ducklings cast off 78 times and connected for 26 baskets, a respectable .333 percentage.

One of the metal hoops gave up the ghost after the first half, and it flopped around loosely when hit by a ball. It was repaired between games.

Spectators, mostly Oregon students, gave their Frosh team an all-around bad time. It seemed like the game was being played on Marshfield's home court, with the majority of cheering for the high school lads.
