

Webfoots Earn Rest After Fray

Following the two games with Washington State, Oregon Coach John Warren gave his basketball team a rest yesterday, but preparations will begin this afternoon for Saturday night's Oregon State battle at McArthur court.

A lot will probably be at state in the final Civil War titanic with the Aggies, in the last Northern Division encounter for both teams. Washington, the only other quint in the loop with an outside chance of tying OSC, will have to defeat Idaho twice in Seattle. The Webfoots must down the Oregon Staters to have the title race end in a two-way deadlock between the Beavers and Huskies.

Fourth Place

Another factor which the Ducks will be shooting at Saturday night is to even their wins and losses in division play this season. For the second straight year, Oregon is destined for a fourth place finish, behind the Cougars from Washington State. A victory against the Aggies would put the Lemon-and-Green's record at eight wins and eight losses.

Including preseason contests, Oregon now has a net of 17 wins and 10 setbacks to its credit. The Webfoot-Beaver clash will also be the final appearance in an Oregon cage uniform for seniors Dick Wilkins, Al Popick, Stan Williamson, and Reedy Berg.

Wiley Leads

Roger Wiley leads the Duck scoring parade in ND competition with 197 points, and trails WSC's Vince Hanson, with 220, and Washington's Jack Nichols who has 205.

Wiley is also tea mhigh in field goals with 67, free throws with 63, and free throws missed with 40. Wilkins has the most personal fouls of the Webfoot cagers with 48. Williamson has the best gift toss average with 49 conversions of 73 attempts.

SC Thinclads Meet Arizona

LOS ANGELES, March 3—(UP)—Coach Dean Cromwell tonight named a 22-man USC track squad which will entrain Friday night for Saturday's dual meet with Arizona State at Tempe, Ariz.

Mel Patton, the Trojans' world record-holding sprinter, will accompany the squad and appear in an exhibition but not in competition.

"Patton is starting his training slowly in this Olympic year," Cromwell said, "and is not yet in competitive shape."

Except for star shotputter Bill Bayless, all the outstanding Trojan cindersmen will make the trip.

In 1752, a man was appointed at Yarmouth, Mass., church "to chastise the boys who play in meeting."

Ducklings Face Rooks On Aggie Floor Today

Taking advantage of a varsity layoff, Coach Carl Heldt's Oregon Frosh basketballers took over the floor in McArthur court yesterday afternoon, in the first of two practices scheduled before they wind up their season today and Saturday.

The fourth game against the stubborn Rooks from Beaverland is on the books this afternoon at 4, in the Men's gym at Corvallis. The game was originally scheduled Friday night.

The ducklings face only three more contests to complete their 22-game schedule. After the Baby Beaver tilt, the Heldtmen play a game with Toledo high school here Saturday afternoon at 4 and engage the Klamath Falls Pelicans Saturday night in a preliminary before the Duck-Beaver varsity clash. The Frosh edged K-Falls 47-44 in a previous game.

With a record of 15 wins and four losses, the Freshmen will be out for another victory today against Paul Valenti's crew. Dick Mase and Brad Fullerton are down for starting rolls at forwards, along with Will Urban at center, and Jack Keller teaming with Don Peterson at the guards.

A second line, composed of Ernie Wilde and Gene Hover at forwards, Bob Taggesell at center, and guards Leroy Coleman and Eddie Artzt, will see plenty of action.

Probable Starting Lineups:

Frosh	Rooks
Mase.....F	Crandall
Urban.....C	Tansell
Keller.....G	Denny
Peterson.....G	Harper
