

Talks Scheduled On Republican Political Timber

Discussion of presidential candidates and a report on the state Young Republican convention are on the agenda for the Young Republicans tonight at 6:30 p.m. in room 105 Oregon building, announced Clay Myres, president. Also up for discussion will be the voting registration drive now in progress at the Co-op.

Ed. S. Boehnke, chairman of the Lane county GOP central committee; Stewart Weiss, former chairman of the Multnomah county GOP central committee; Lars P. Peterson, Coos Bay; Edward E. Sox, Albany, and William M. McAllister, state representative and former speaker of the house of representatives, are five of the candidates for delegate to the GOP convention from the fourth district that will the contest allowing them only one hit. Big Ed Dick's grand slam homer in the second inning put the Sigma Nu cause out of danger. Leftfielder Hank Steers pounded out two timely blows and drove in five runs to lead in that department.

SAE 14, Sigma Chi 4
The wildness of pitcher Ray Coleman, who issued 11 bases on balls and forced in seven runs made it simple for Sigma Alpha Epsilon to post a 14-4 win over Sigma Chi. SAE also hammered out 11 base hits to show its power discuss the candidates for president with members of the club.

Delegates Report
The ten delegates from the group that attended the Young Republican convention in Portland, March 5, 6, and 7 will present their report of the convention. Delegates were Kay Lindebergh, Gordon Cook, Sam McKinney, Joe Flemming, Clay Myers, Herb Lazenby, Connie Kamm, Rod Dickinson, Larry Lau, and Sallie Timmens.

at the plate, a matter to be dealt with by its future opponents.

Delts 12, Sherry Ross
With the help of the two-hit hurling of Fitcher Ed Sanford, Delta Tau Delta handed a 12-0 shellacking to Sherry Ross hall. The big eight runs scored in the fourth inning put the game away for the DTD nine. Only one error marred the play of both teams during the action, being chalked up against the Delts in the third inning.

Theta Chi 12, Stan Ray 8
Theta Chi didn't possess the luck enjoyed by the other victors of the day but finally surged ahead of a determined, but poorly organized, Stan Ray hall squad to turn in a 12-8 victory. Pitchers Glenn Warberg and Bill Hutchinson limited the vets dorm team to a lone single but three errors by their teammates allowed the score to become knotted at 6-all after three innings of play. However Roy Baughman's long triple to centerfield with the bases loaded put the game out of danger for the Theta Chi crew.

worryes. There are five veterans who are capable of handling every spot. At first, Dick Bartle, regular first sacker from the '47 varsity, has the job all to himself. A smooth fielder and good hitter.

At second base, Walt Kirsch, captain of the Oregon nine, will repeat. He has been all-division for the last two seasons, and has a good chance to take the honor again. The best fielder in the inner circle, he also carries a good share of the batting load.

Al Cohen will handle the short-stop assignment, and at third base, Don Kimball and Ray Stratton will share the duties. Stratton is the handy man of the infield crew, being able to play either third, short, or second. Cohen can also move from his short-stop position to first base if necessary.

Catcher: Bill Burgher will be the first string back-stop. He is one of the finest receivers Oregon has had in many years. His experience and knowledge of handling pitchers will be of great value. A long ball hitter. Dick Rodiger has the second string job.

Outfield: Hal Zurcher, Don Dibble, Johnny Kovenz, and Pat Wohlers look like the top four to fill these positions. Zurcher is one of the finest defensive center fielders in the league, and if his hitting fits the bill, he will be the regular center slot man. John Jones and Al Smolish are fighting hard for a berth.

Pitchers: Whitey Lokan, should be the top man on the hurling staff. Dick Wilkins, has shown good form up to date, and will be counted on. Bob Thomson, a big strong right hander with lots of speed and a corking curve. DeWayne Johnson, a good left hander. Tends to be somewhat wild. He will get a chance. Dick DeBernardi, has good control and a curve. He needs work. Willard Stadley, a left hander who throws with a side arm motion.

OLD Mother Goose

When she went out to drive
Obeyed all the rules
And came home ALIVE!

Mother Goose was no goose! Wise drivers enjoy living enough to obey the simple driving rules that are made for their safety. The tragedy is that too many are willing to take chances just to save a few seconds. Result—93 killed—3,300 injured every day of the year.

You should know the rules of the road; if you don't, learn them. Behind the wheel, remember them—respect them, and the chances are you'll drive free from accidents. Ignore them and you gamble with precious lives—including your own!
