

Reds See Task Force Arrive, Ex-Emerald Columnist Reports

Buck Buchwach, former Emerald columnist, reported in the Honolulu Advertiser last week that a Soviet flotilla witnessed the secret arrival of an atomic task force bound for Eniwetok.

The agent for the Russian ships said they had been detained until port charges were settled. Buchwach claimed the ships were within easy binocular distance when the task force left Pearl Harbor for the testing grounds.

Buchwach, while working on the Emerald, wrote a junior weekend editorial, "Please Don't Let It Rain," that has been reprinted every year previous to the annual springtime affair. He was also on the editorial board, a sports writer, and was president of Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism honorary.

Chairman Picks Mother's Day Committee Men

Committee chairmen for Mothers' Week-end announced Friday by Joanne Frydenlund, general chairman of the event. They include Nancy Peterson, housing; Margaret Wickenden, registrations; Al Pietschman, promotion; Mary Stadelman, hospitality; Margaret Johns, luncheon; Midge Harrison, tea; Bob Buchanan and Bob Hankins, signs, and Marilyn Turner, publicity.

The three day event will be held in conjunction with the Junior Week-end festivities scheduled on May 7, 8, and 9. Students are requested to invite their mothers so that they may take part in the Mothers' Week-end events planned, Miss Frydenlund said.

Highlights planned for the mothers include the annual business meeting of the Oregon Mothers, a tea for the Oregon mothers to be sponsored by the Associated Women students, Young Women's Christian Association, and Eugene Mothers' club, and a breakfast at the Eugene hotel.

Mothers will also be welcomed at all Junior Week-end events according to Miss Frydenlund.

Mail Orders Open Monday for 'Dream'

Mail orders for Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream," to be presented at McArthur court for one night only by the University Theater, April 24, at 8:30, will be accepted beginning Monday April 12, announced Bob Over, box office manager.

All mail orders must be accompanied by cash, money order, or check made out to University Theater, and a self addressed, stamped envelope. Season ticket holders may mail in their stubs or get their tickets when the regular box office opens, April 19.

For a better selection of seats, Over advised sending in for tickets early.

Admission is $2.40, $1.80 for reserved seats; $1.20 for general admission; and $.60 for students.

UNESCO Leader To Arrive Thursday

Miss Constance Roach, executive of the U.S. national commission for UNESCO, will visit Eugene Thursday on her itinerary of 12 Oregon communities. Friday evening a banquet, open to all interested, will be held in the Osburn hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Peter Oregard of Reed college are expected to come to Eugene with the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural organization executive. Banquet reservations are available at the Osburn hotel, or at Jensen's Drug store, 917 Willamette street.

Libe Group Slates Frost Readings

Ottillie Seybolt, associate professor of speech and drama, will read from the poetry of Robert Frost at 7 p.m. tonight in the browsing room of the library. She will appear before the book and author discussion group, sponsored by Bernice Rise, reading consultant of the University library.

Next week Rudolph Ernst, associate professor of English, will discuss George Bernard Shaw, with special emphasis on one play.

Passing Emphasized

At the guards Chet Daniels and Ed Chrobot are currently filling the spots, with Ted Meland alternating. At center Brad Ecklund has that spot for certain.

Darrell Robinson, who hurt his knee early last week is still out of practice and won't see action until about Thursday. Guard Jim Berwick was also out of practice with a cold.

Recent activities of the Russians have at least served to remove all doubt as to who won the war.

Larceny might be easier to forgive if stolen money were put to good uses more often.
