

Play Cast For 'Dream' Completed

Orchesis Members, Dance Class to Act Clown Part, Lullaby

Queen Titania's fair court for the April 24 production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will be members of Orchesis and the women's intermediate dance class, Rosamond Wentworth, associate professor of physical education and co-director for the dance sequences of the production, announced Monday.

The dance soloist is Margaret M. Moran, instructor in health and physical education. Miss Moran, who acts as co-director of the dance sequences, came to the University campus this year from Texas State college for women, where she taught dancing. She received her university training at Mary Washington College at Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Modern dance will take the place of ballet for the production with about 36 dancers scheduled for the fairy court. Dancers will be costumed in Grecian robes of solid colors, with sets of six dancers dressed in the different shades within a color family.

The fairies' first dance the scherzo in the introduction to Act II, which sets the mood for the entrance of Titania, the queen of the fairies. Miss Moran solos in the scherzo.

The fairy dancers return to dance for Titania when she goes to sleep. This lullaby number is accompanied by a choral group as well as the University Symphony orchestra, which plays for the entire production.

Special Music Used

Mendelssohn's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" music will be used for the presentation. This music has been the accepted musical accompaniment for the play since it was introduced in Germany. The use of music and dance in the production conforms to the places where Shakespeare suggested their use.

A comedy burgomask, dance of the clowns, will be given as a part of the presentation for the Duke and his bride, Hippolyte near the end of the play. Five members of Orchesis will dance the burgomask: Suzanne Dimm, Alene Litson, Harriet Minot, Pat Williams, and Barbara Knodell.

Orchesis members who will dance the scherzo are: Estella Allen, Joyce Bailey, Fely Corcuera, Suzanne Dimm, Lywayne

Violinist to Play Concert Sunday

Audiences of "Humoresque," the Warner Brothers movie, did not know that John Garfield's musicianship really belonged to Isaac Stern. This 27-year-old violinist will perform in Eugene at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Before ghosting the "Humoresque" sound track, Stern was labeled "one of the world's master fiddle players." A recent profile of the artist described him as a short, chunky young man who looks more like a "Dodger fan than a great violinist."

He was born in Russia, but his family moved to California when he was a year old. "They took me to concerts," the violinist recalled, "but I did not come back and cry for a violin. I was far from a genius."

Years later after an appearance in Town Hall in New York, Stern made a similar comment: "I wasn't the greatest thing since Paganini." He was 17 when this New York debut was made.

After two years of plodding, he was signed by Impresario S. Hurok. Stern is still under Hurok's direction. Now he plays 90 concerts a season, records for Columbia, and has appeared with most of the major symphony orchestras in the United States.

Engwall, Beverly Howard, Cassie Hyde, Barbara Kletzing, Joan Kronsteiner, Alene Litson, Harriet Minot, Marilyn O'Neil, Margaret Moran, Lucretia Prentiss, Genevieve Siskey, Pearl Van Atta, and Patricia Williams.

The lullaby will be danced by members of Miss Moran's intermediate dance class: Nancy Apfel, Marilyn Anderson, Julianne Chevrier, Grace Hoffman, Barbara Cassidy, Carol Chambers, Lucy Holloman, Joan Hodecker, Pat Helgeson, Barbara Knodell, Patricia Lane, Shirley Phelps, Lucia Pedron, Lucille Queen, Yvonne Sneed, Elmarie Wendell, and Pat Springer.

Press Club Invites

Upper division journalism students have been invited to attend the first program meeting of the Eugene Press club tonight at 8 p.m. in the upstairs room of the Cafe

Del Rey. Charles Howard, professor of law, will be the speaker.

A social period will be held from 8 to 8:30, and again later in the evening. A short business session to explain the workings of the club to newcomers also will be held.

Phi Theta Calls For Twistie Bids

Freshman girls are asked to petition for chairmanships of the annual Phi Theta Upsilon twistie sale which will be held May 17 and 18, according to Laura Olson president of the junior women's honorary. Committees include cleanup finance publicity, house sales, distribution, booths, posters, schedule, and general chairman of the sale.

The only requirements for petitioning are a 2-point cumulative and a 2-point GPA last term. Miss Olson asked that suggestions be included on the petitions, which should be turned in by April 21 to June Goetze at Susan Campbell or Laura Olson at the Tri-Delt house.

Profits from the sale will be put into a scholarship fund for deserving junior women.

Service Honorary Requests Petitions

Petitions for Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's service honorary, should be turned in to Laura Olson at the Tri Delt house or Ann Woodworth at the Theta house by April 23. Petitioners should be third term sophomores and have a 2.2 cumulative and at least a 2-point GPA winter term.

"THE BEST IS YET TO BE"

The telephone will be seventy-two years old this year. Its development within a single lifetime has been a modern miracle. Yet it is only the beginning.

There are any number of men in the telephone business today—some just starting out—who will see greater progress than the past has ever known.

Year by year the next half century will be increasingly theirs. New leaders will appear from among them. Step by step, rung by rung, they will mount the ladder to the top. For telephone management is employee management and comes up from the ranks.

There will be more good jobs for qualified men in the telephone business in 1958 and 1998 than now. It just can't help being that way. For of all the businesses and professions, there are few more interesting and necessary.

So the future is bright for those who make telephony their life work. For them, "The best is yet to be."
