

Phi Beta Honors Music Grads

Phi Beta, music and drama honorary, paid tribute to the graduating seniors with the Graduating Candle Light ceremony in Gerlinger hall, Thursday evening, April 8. The Candle Light formal tea is sponsored each year by the Eugene alumni of Phi Beta.

A program was presented by the winter term pledge class in addition to the ceremony. Three members performed. They were Dorothy Gangneith, soprano, and Betty Perry, pianist, of the music school; and Emilierose Jackull of the drama school, who read Browning's "Up at a Villa, Down by the Sea."

Two national awards were presented for outstanding service to the fraternity in the past year. The recipients of these awards were, Sylvia Killman, pianist, who was awarded the bracelet for outstanding professional achievement of a senior, and Claire Lee Ogle, sophomore in music, who was awarded the scroll for outstanding service.
