

Officials Survey Frustrated Fans Activity Trends, Says YW Prexy

The National Student Young Women's Christian association is now celebrating the 75th anniversary of its founding at Normal, Illinois, Laura Olson, president of the local YWCA, said yesterday.

The founding of the campus Y was March 18 when it celebrated its 54th anniversary. When this chapter was formed, the late Mrs. W. G. Beattie (Willa M. Hanna) of Eugene was the first president, and Mrs. Frank Chambers (Edith E. Brown), also of Eugene, was the first secretary.

In observance of the anniversary, national YWCA officials conducted a survey to determine the trend of student activity today, compiled from detailed reports from University organizations over the United States.

"Today's college woman faces the years after graduation with a realism and practical experience in human relations which will well fit her to combine the roles of mother and citizen of tomorrow." This is the consensus of the national organization, basing the statement on the reports submitted.

The University of Oregon was mentioned in the report on the local YWCA's veterans' nursery located at the Fairmount Presbyterian church. The material submitted may be used for special articles for the Woman's Press and for release to several other women's magazines, Lois Greenwood, executive director of the Y, said.

Activities of the YWCA on other campuses was summarized in the report, touching the topics of personal problems, taking part in community and international affairs, volunteer work in school nurseries, baby-sitting, information booths, and extensive work in racial problems on the campuses.

Frustrated Fans File Bowl Suit

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28—(UP)—Four football fans who claimed they were "fraudulently" prevented from buying tickets to the Rose Bowl game New Year's day were granted the right yesterday to file suit in a Los Angeles superior court.

The state supreme court ordered the superior court to consider their case against the Tournament of Roses association in its June calendar. The men asked $100 damages each.

The ruling reversed the superior court's earlier decision that the case should be tried in municipal court since the four fans had asked damages of less than $1,000.

The men—Claude Weaver, M. W. Kelly Kelso, Dustin Girton and W. E. Long, all of Los Angeles—charged they stood in line Dec. 23 when 7,500 public admission tickets were to be sold for the USC-Michigan classic. They claimed they had stubs which "guaranteed" them a place in line and the right to buy two tickets, but after 1,500 had been sold the box offices were closed. They had to listen to the game over the radio.

Co-op Will Accept Used Text Books

A representative of Long's College Book co., will be in the Co-op for the final day Wednesday to buy second hand text books from students.

Texts need not be those which have been used for classes on this campus. Cash will be paid for the books, according to the company's representative.

Haddock now costs only 18 cents a pound and a talented cook can make it taste like $1,000,000.

Cockroaches Free To First Comers

It's Christmas at the Orphanage!

A big present of a free box of assorted cockroaches and teletype rolls has been offered to the first comer by Dean George S. Turnbull of the school of journalism. The box can be found in the corner of the journalism lab room.

Journalism school theorists have advanced the idea that perhaps the beasts thrive on the yellow teletype paper.

Cal Tourney Draws Golfers

MONTEREY, Cal., April 28—(UP)—Top amateur and professional stars of the west toured Pebble Beach golf course her yesterday as they prepared for the opening of the annual $3,500 California State Open Golf tournament on Thursday morning.

Headlining the cast were such standouts as Lawson Little, former British and American national open champion; Ellsworth Vines, the former world tennis titleholder; defending champion Art Bell, one of the longest drivers in the game; and Ernie Pieper, former state open and amateur champion.

Smiley Quick, Los Angeles stylist, toured the course, along with Ross Smith and Warren McCarty, San Jose State shotmakers; Jack and Eli Bariteau, the golfing brothers from San Jose; and Bill Fritz, San Francisco star.

The entry list is expected to top the 100 mark for the 72 hole tournament that will be played during the four days of competition, with the final round slated for Sunday.

Best argument in favor of freedom of information is that murder will out anyway.

Phi Delta Phi Holds Annual Initiation

Chase Inn of Phi Delta Phi, international legal fraternity, held its annual initiation at the Lane county courthouse Saturday. The initiation was followed by a banquet at the Del Rey cafe. Paul A. Sayre, Portland attorney, was the principal speaker.

A number of local attorneys assisted in the initiation and were present at the banquet.

The new members, first year students in the school of law, are: Richard D. Bennett, Bryan Blackhurst, George Brustad, John Caldwell, Edward L. Clark, Donnell Clinch, Wayne Coffee, Edgar Dick, James Goodwin, John Jaqua, Wally Martin, Robert McKechnie, Robert Myers, and George Proctor.

The robin is back again, still wondering why people haven't found out how to solve the housing shortage.

You Get A GOOD DEAL

IN THE

CITIZEN MARINES

If you are an American citizen between the age of 17 to 32 (older if you are a veteran) it will pay you to join the Citizen Marine Corps (Reserve). This organization is the civilian branch of the famous U. S. Marine Corps, whose achievements are known to every American.

Membership in the Citizen Marines carries with it many concrete advantages, but no less important it also carries the tradition and prestige which over 170 years of faithful service have built.

WEAR THIS LAPEL EMBLEM

The Reserve is a spare-time activity. It does not interfere with your regular civilian occupation. A few of the more important opportunities in the organized reserve are

PAY — EDUCATION — TRAINING — PROMOTIONS
TRADE COURSES — TRAVEL — SPORTS

Why not get in touch with your local Marine Reserve Headquarters? There is a spot for you. You veterans should ask about regaining your old rank.
