Festival Draws Music Students

Harriette Stewart, Georgene Shanklin, and Betty Bagley, all freshmen in music, traveled to Portland last Friday to participate in the 1948 festival of the Oregon Music Teachers' association.

Miss Shanklin played a Gigue by Bach, Waltz in E Minor by Chopin, and Toccata by Khatchaturian. The Waltz Song from "Romeo and Juliet" was sung by Miss Stewart, and Miss Shanklin and Miss Bagley played a two-piano arrangement of Beethoven's Concerto in C minor.

Misses Stewart and Shanklin will perform together at the Sunlight Serenade during Junior Weekend.

Bob Frazier was Journal Junior city-wide yo-yo champion in 1930.

Exhibit to Feature

A cross-section of contemporary painting and sculpture done in the Pacific Northwest will be exhibited in the art gallery of the school of architecture and allied arts from May 11 through May 30.

Representing work of members of the Oregon artists guild, the exhibition is the first held by the guild in this area for many years. It contains pieces by artists from Eugene and other Oregon cities.
