

Nancy Swem Named Weekend Ruler

Alpha Phis, Sigma Nus Win All-Campus Sing

By PHYLLIS KOHLMEIER

With a regal smile and gracious bearing befitting a queen, Nancy Swem, junior in liberal arts, was crowned queen of the 1948 Junior Weekend court last night in McArthur court. Winners of the All-Campus Sing were Alpha Phi in the women's division and Sigma Nu in the men's division.

The honorable John H. Hall, governor of Oregon, crowned Queen Nancy in an impressive ceremony before approximately 6000 spectators who jammed the court.

Weather Forecast-- 'Very Few Showers'

"Partly cloudy with very few showers" is the weatherman's promise for today. After pronouncing his verdict just before midnight, he amended it by saying that there is a possibility of a few showers.

The weatherman estimated the temperature for today to be around 65.

Sunday, he promises, will be a better day. He made no mention of precipitation, but cautiously added that there will be "increased cloudiness in the afternoon."

The numbers which carried off top honors in the sing were "Andalucia" by the Alpha Phi chorus and "John Peel" by the men of Sigma Nu. Susan Campbell with "I Wonder as I Wonder," and Phi Gamma Delta, singing "Dry Bones" placed second. Delta Gamma sang a medley from "Look for the Silver Lining" and "Til the Clouds Roll By" to place third, along with Sigma Phi Epsilon, who presented "Beautiful Saviour."

Judges for the Sing were H. Johann Eschbach, Melvin Geist, and Tom O'Brien. Groups were judged 20 per cent each on tonal quality, interpretation and diction, and 10 per cent each on musical arrangement, appearance and ability to follow the leader. The first half hour of the program was broadcast.

Novelty Numbers

Novelty numbers were sung by the ATO quartet during intermission.

During intermission Genevieve Siskey, junior in business, was awarded the Hazel Schwering scholarship, which was presented by Mrs. Perrie Dolph.

Rebec house won the Josephine Evans Harpham library cup for an "excellent reading program."

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sherry Ross hall were second and third, respectively.

Twenty-seven students were presented with diplomas for having their names appear in "Who's Who in American Colleges" by Dean Fogdall and Dean Wickham.

Miss Swem was escorted by George Bell; and Princess Joy Hamm was escorted by Dick Perkins. Glenn Warren was the escort of Princess Mary Handelin. Bill Van Dyke escorted Princess Mary Lou Hill, and Ernest Jaqua escorted Donna Stageberg.

Crown bearer was Skipper Seigrist, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Seigrist. Ann Rohlfis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Rohlfis, and Alexandria Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fischer, were trainbearers.

Miss Swem, of Medford, is a member of Gamma Phi Beta. The queen and her court will rule over all the festivities of the weekend.

Band to Escort 'Storybook Wonderland' Floats; Queen, Court to Ride in Place of Honor in Parade

The University band will escort 26 "storybook" floats down Willamette and up Thirteenth street to the campus today at 4 p.m. Mo Thomas, parade chairman, predicted yesterday, "It looks like Saturday may be a nice day, but rain or shine, the floats will roll."

Besides the floats, five convertibles will carry the queen and her court through Eugene's main streets. A motorcycle escort has been arranged by the committee.

By 3:45, all the floats should be at Fourth and Willamette streets. Chairman Thomas said they will be numbered as they arrive.

The first one should stop at Willamette with following floats lining up behind it east on Fourth street and north on Lincoln street.

Judges will be Les Anderson, Stan Williamson, Kenneth Carlyle Mrs. Howard Boyd, Mrs. William Russell, and Mrs. Charles Snellstrom. John Stehn will direct the University band.

Each house represented by the following float will receive a trophy, according to Thomas. There are either two or three living organizations sponsoring a float.

The trophies will be awarded at intermission of the Junior Prom tonight. Last year's winners were the Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Chi houses.

Route Set

To get to the formation point at Fourth and Willamette, the floats will follow a special route. This was planned by the committee and Eugene Chief of Police Keith Jones to avoid congestion of downtown traffic.

Thomas said houses may take their entries downtown any time today just so they follow the route and line up by 3:45.

The route is west on Fifteenth to Olive, north on Olive to Thirteenth, west on Thirteenth to Lincoln, north on Lincoln to Fourth, and then to Willamette.

Other members of the parade committee are Bill Monroe and Mary Stadelman. Chairman Thomas commended them for their "fine cooperation."

SX Wives, Mothers To Fete Visitors

The Sigma Chi Wives and Mother's club of Eugene will honor visiting mothers and fathers of Sigma Chi's tonight at a buffet supper.

The supper will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Titus at 214 Thirteenth Ave. East from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Co-chairmen will be Mrs. W. T. Plummer and Mrs. Harry Williams.

Mothers and fathers of Sigma Chi, wives, active members and Sigma Chi alumni are invited to the supper.

Parents to Assist In Wesley Forum

"A Parents-Eye View of Marriage" is the topic to be discussed by a panel of University parents in the "Love, Courtship, and Marriage" interest group at Wesley house Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Antone Fossen are the parents who will participate in the panel and other parents present may help out in the question period.

Speakers in the other two groups include Rev. Wade L. Carter, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Vancouver, Washington and former Army Air Corps chaplain who will speak on the "Shinto" religion to the group on "Comparative Religions," and Rev. Robert Bull, who will speak on "Evil" to the group on "Understanding the Bible."

All students are welcome to attend these Sunday evening meetings and are especially invited to bring their mothers. A snack supper will start the evening at 5:30 p.m., followed by a chapel talk and the Interest groups at 6:30 p.m.

Make-Believe Ballroom Prom Scene

WILL OSBORNE

Cinderella's Ball, the queen's make-believe ballroom, will be the scene of the annual Junior Prom in McArthur court tonight, complete with all of the finery of a typical Storybook Wonderland, said Joe Conroy, chairman of the prom.

Dancing is scheduled from 9 to 12. Dark suits for the men and formal for the women are required. Flowers are in order.

Pumpkin at Entrance

With a huge pumpkin guarding the entrance, the couples will enter the dance floor through Cinderella's pumpkin at the north side of the court. The queen's balcony is located in the south-east corner and Will Osborne and his orchestra will be in the south-west corner of Mac court. A golden slipper, representing Cinderella's own, will decorate the back of the orchestra's stand. Velvet draperies will line all walls and each exit is flanked by two pillars with special lighting adding that make-believe touch.

The music of Will Osborne will be aired over KUGN and KORE from 9:30 to 10.

Entertainment at 10:30

Entertainment is scheduled for 10:30 with the processional of the queen and the princess opening the festivities. Mo Thomas will present awards to the float parade winners Bert Brown Barker, vice president emeritus of the University, will award his scholarship award. Dean Vergil S. Fogdall will present the Koyle cup and Dean Golda P. Wickham will present the Gerlinger cup to the outstanding junior man and woman respectively. Druids will tap new members. The class honoring the most mothers this weekend will also be announced, said Joan Frycmanlund, Mothers' Weekend chairman.

As the queen and her court are descending the golden stairs from the balcony, the spotlight will pick out each member of the court and the queen will lead the first dance. Robin Arkley is Prime Minister.

Tickets for the dance are being sold at the educational activities office until noon today and at the door.
