

Young University Writers Hit Bigtime

Barbara and Rex Gunn, both University students, are shown in a scene typical of the ones they portrayed in an article by them appearing in the latest edition of the Saturday evening Post. Barbara is feeding their one-year-old son Bren while Rex attempts to study. See page one for story. (Photo courtesy Register Guard)

Plate Tags Available

License plate tags bearing the 1948 schedule of the Oregon football team are now on sale by the University athletic department.

Made of stamped metal, and painted green and yellow, the tags give the complete schedule for next fall's gridiron activities, and can be easily fastened on the tops of regular state licenses. The plates are on sale at the athletic ticket office in McArthur court, and at the Co-op for 25 cents each.

Police drove pickets away from the entrance to the New York Stock Exchange, thus teaching them not to trifle with the money changers.

Prizes Offered Senior Orators

Oratorical prizes totaling $250 will be awarded on Friday, June 11, to the members of the senior class who shall pronounce the best original oration at the time of his graduation.

Called the Failing-Beekman prize after the two founders of the award fund, the prizes are divided into the $150 first place Failing award and the $100 Beekman second place award. A third prize, not to exceed $50, has been provided for the past five years through the gift of the late Mrs. W. F. Jewett.

Winners of last year's awards were William Baird, major in history, with his oration on "Faith vs. Reason." Beverly Carroll, major in social science, won the second-place Beekman prize with her speech on "Not by Bread Alone." Marjory Skordahl, major in Romance language, placed third with "Can We Understand Them?"
