

Duck Net Team Under Wraps; Faces Oregon State Today at 2

Coach Kermit Smith announced yesterday that fans will know his tennis squad line-up today at 2 p.m. when they turn out to see the Oregon State match on the local courts, and not beforehand.

Smith said that he had decided on the men for the first two positions on his team, but the other spots were yet to be determined by tournament play-offs and by his own decision. Smith refused to reveal the names of the men who will play number one and two today.

Smith said that Beavers and fans will see his squad this afternoon when the first ball is served. Looking good all week has been Dave Van Zandt, letterman from the 1945 net team. So far this season, Van Zandt has played below the number five spot. Spectators of the last week's practice sessions think that Van Zandt has a good chance of landing on the first five by today.

Still out of the line-up is Bob Corgan, who has not yet recovered from his injured abdominal muscle.

With the advent of good weather Smith said his squad has shown more hustle and drive than during previous weeks of practice. Smith was confident that the Beavers will see a hard fight today over the local nets, and that fans will see the same from the stands.

The Oregon squad lost a 7-0 match to Oregon State earlier in the season, and have also dropped contests to Washington State, Whitman college, and the Washington Huskies. Smith's crew looked impressive in drubbing Idaho 7-0 on the Emerald street courts recently, and could upset the dope cart and the Beavers this afternoon.

The withholding of the starting five may enable Smith to uncork the right combination of players.

Chi Psis Booted 7-3 In IM Softball Upset

Monday's Schedule

North Field 3:50—Campbell Club vs Legal Eagles
South Field 3:50—Phi Kappa Psi vs Westminster
Upper Field 3:50—Kappa Sigma vs Nestor Hall
North Field 4:15—Sigma Nu vs Delta Tau Delta

By DEAN DELAP

Six more victory minded softball nines rang the bell of triumph yesterday afternoon on the intramural diamonds, as play continued under ideal weather conditions. One of the biggest upsets of the current season occurred when once-beaten Merrick hall defeated the previously undefeated Chi Psi squad 7-3.

The Hallmen tallied five runs in the opening stanza on two hits, three walks and two costly Chi Psi boots. After the initial tally, two successive hits and a walk loaded the bases. Pitcher Bob Maxwell, of the losing team, then passed two opponents, forcing across an opposition duo of counters. An infield safety plus another error accounted for the final two runs of the inning. Chi Psi's Chuck Strader uncorked a long tripple in the third canto driving across two runs, and later scored when winning pitcher Warren Ward gave up three walks in a row. Third baseman Bob Gibson cut the rally short as he nabbed John Kroder's screaming line drive to end the inning.

Sammies 5, Yeomen 4

Sigma Alpha Mu edged a determined Yeomen outfit 5-4, by denting the plate four times in the second inning. Three hits plus two errors and a walk accounted for the scoring splurge. The Yeomen club tallied twice in the second, and two more times in the fourth canto for their combined total. Losing pitcher Bill Gardner gave up five hits, while opposition pitcher Jerry Barde allowed only three safeties in allowing up the win. Barde also recorded seven strikeouts in his afternoon's work.

Phi Psi 6, Minturn 3

Shortstop Jim Bocchi recorded two doubles and a triple in leading his Phi Kappa Psi mates to a 6-3 victory over Minturn hall. The Phi Psi bats connected for ten hits in the short tilt, while pitcher Rich Ward limited the hallmen to five bingles. Two walks plus a single in the first inning, gave the losers an early two run lead, which Phi Psi overcame in the second canto with a four-run scoring spree. Bocchi climaxed the rally with one of his two doubles.

Fijis 7, Westminster 2

Franka Dethrell limited the Phi Gamma Delta nine to only two hits but the Fiji boys took advantage of eight Westminster errors to cop a 7-2 win. Winning pitcher Floyd Fredrickson also gave up two bingles in recording his victory. The Fiji nine tallied three times in the first canto on one hit and two errors. Westminster tightened up the contest, by tallying twice in the third, but the winning nine countered again in the fifth, and three more times in the sixth.

DU 9, Lambda Chi 2

Delta Upsilon captured a 9-2 win over Lambda Chi Alpha in the days final tilt. The Lambda Chi nine could scrape only two hits from the stingy DU chucker Paul Huntzinger. Six walks combined with seven hits figured in the nine DU counters. They tallied twice in the first, three times in the second and four times in the fourth inning for their total of nine.

Hallmen Forfeit

Alpha Tau Omega remained in the undefeated column as they gained a forfeit win over the combined Cherney-French squad. The Hallmen failed to show at the scheduled time.

Games on tap for Monday are tilts that have been protested because of the time limit, or contests that have ended with tie scores. Tuesday's tussles are make-up games that were rained out April 26.

Vic Raschi, Ex-Beaver, Hurls Yanks to 3-0 Win

NE WYORK, May 15—(UP)—Well, just as a lot of citizens had supposed, those Philadelphia Athletics turned out to mere mortals after all.

Not supermen, but a pretty able and hustling bunch of ball players, they went down to defeat after 10 straight victories yesterday to what appeared a little better bunch, the New York Yankees, who beat them 3-0 on Vic Raschi's three-hit hurling.

The Yankees cashed in for three tallies on home runs by Johnny Lindell and Larry Berra. And they dominated Raschi nimbly afield. Joe DiMaggio turned in a gem of a catch in center, in which he took the ball at his shoe tops, turned a complete somersault and came up holding the ball.

Raschi, a lad up from last year's

Portland Beaver team, turned in the greatest game of his career. He struck out seven and walked only three, winning his second game against one defeat. It was New York's fifth straight victory and its seventh in eight games.

The St. Louis Browns got superb pitching in a 3-0 triumph over the Tigers at Detroit, Fred Sanford holding the beltless Bengals to five singles as he won his fourth game against two losses.

Rounding out an afternoon of fine mound duels, strong-armed Russ Meyer of the Cubs edged young Ketter of the Reds, 1-0 at Chicago, when Andy Pafko hit an eighth inning home run for the only tally of the game.

A wise man makes more opportunities than he finds.

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 15—(UP)—Medford was established as heavy favorite to win the 22nd annual Oregon high school track and field meet here today on the basis of preliminaries held on Bell field at Oregon State College Friday.

Coach Bill Bowerman's speedsters led the field of entries in preliminaries, by placing six men in nine events and qualifying its relay team.

Preliminaries were not held in four events, the mile, 880, pole vault and high jump, and Medford, was expected to pick up added points in the mile and half mile.

Colonials Place Two

Washington high of Portland, shared the championship with Grants Pass last year, placed two men in four events. Ashland placed three men in three events, and Milwaukie, Salem, and Jefferson of Paultiek placed two men each in three events.

Title prospects in the B division were far from being clearcut, although Henley appeared to have a slight edge by placing five men in seven events. Union was close behind with five men in five events, and four Siuslaw men placed in five events.

Chuck Missfeldt of Milwaukie won the javelin with a heave of 192 feet, 8 inches. He also placed second in the third heat of the 100 yard dash. Jim Crotty of Milwaukie won the fourth heat in the 440. Wells of Molalla placed second in the first heat in the 200-yard low hurdles.

Finals in both A and B divisions will start at 1 p.m. today.

Cal Poly Nine Wins

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal., May 15—(UP)—Pitcher Don Garman yesterday struck out 10 men as Cal Poly's baseball club defeated San Jose State, 6-0. Vernon BeBernes of Cal Poly homered in the first inning with one man on base.

Vaulter Flies To Relay Meet

George Rasmussen, ace University of Oregon pole vaulter, left by plane Friday for Fresno, where he will take part in the annual West Coast relays today against the top vaulters of the Pacific coast.

Accompanying Rasmussen was Leo Harris, athletic director at the University, who coached football at Fresno in the 1930's.

Rasmussen was the Northern Division champion last year in his event, in his freshman year, and tied for first in the national collegiate championships. He broke two records in dual meets during the season, and turned in the best jump of his college track career when he cleared 14 feet 2 inches against Oregon State. He has not cleared 14 feet this season, however.

As a high school senior at Bend, Rasmussen gained nation-wide acclaim as the outstanding prep vaulter in the country, turning in better performances than most college vaulters.

USC Near Ball Crown As Stanford Falls, 3-1

LOS ANGELES, May 15—(UP)—Pitcher Wally Hood yesterday led the University of Southern California baseball nine to a 3-1 victory over the Stanford Indians in a CIBA game at Bovard field here.

The game was the first of a two-game series between the teams. If the Trojans win tomorrow, they will be cinched for at least a tie in the CIBA conference.
