

Wesley Group Plans Outing

Picnicking, swimming, dancing and sports will be the order of the day Saturday as Wesley foundation holds its annual picnic in honor of the graduating seniors who have been active in the Wesley organization.

Cars will leave the house at 2 p.m. and go directly to McCredie Springs, near Oakridge, where the grounds, swimming facilities and Softball, volleyball, and other games will be provided for those who do not wish to swim in the afternoon. The picnic dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Total cost for the day, including transportation will be $1. All interested students are invited. All those planning to attend are asked to sign up at Wesley house, or phone 35, before Friday noon.

Voting Place Listed For Many Students

Nine additional campus living organizations have been added to Eugene voting precincts for the Oregon primaries tomorrow, according to information received from the Lane county clerk's office.

Pi Kappa Phi will be included in precinct 20, with voting headquarters at the residence at 618 E. 11th street. Now zoned in precinct 24 are Ann Judson house, Rebec house, Hendricks hall, Susan Campbell hall, and Gerlinger hall. These houses will vote at University high school at 16th and Alder. Highland house, University house, and Thacher cottage will vote in precinct 25 at Condon school, 1550 Moss street.

The polls will remain open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Orides Plan Tea

Orides will present a tea for seniors from University, Eugene, and Springfield high schools at 3:30 p.m. today. The tea will be at alumni hall, Gerlinger. Campus clothes will be in order.

There are more than 25,000 school bands and orchestras in United States schools, according to the National Association of Music Merchants.

Music Program Set for Sunday

Students of the music school will present the first two acts of "Hansel and Gretel" in costume this Sunday at 8 p.m. in the music school auditorium. No admission will be charged.

In addition scenes from "La Boheme" and "Tosca" will be sung. Denton Rossell, voice teacher whose students will perform in the program, is staging the scenes.

In the three-act "Hansel and Gretel" Barbara Detrick will sing Hansel, Mary Hawkins will be cast as Gretel, Barbara Heartfield and Don Jordahl will carry the roles of the mother and father, and Marilyn Griffith will sing the part of the sandman.

Two large scenes from "La Boheme" and "Tosca," also presented in costume, and with dramatic form, will have James Kays, Janet Nielsen, Millard McClung and Jean Lichty carrying leading roles.

Accompanists for the program will be Helen Hudson and Millard Kinney.
