Phi Thetas Tap Twenty Women For Members

Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, tapped 20 outstanding sophomore women for membership during the dinner hours this week.

The list, as announced yesterday by Phi Theta President Laura Olson, includes:

Barbara Heywood, Marguerite Johns, Jeannine Macaulay, Marilyn Turner, Louise Clouston, Dorothy Orr, Carol Becker, Marge Petersen, Donna Kletzing.

Margaret Harrison, Joan O'Neill, Mary Stadelman, Marie Lombard, Mildred Chetty, Billie Jean Riethmiller, Joanne Frydenlund, Helen Sherman, Lou Weston, Sally Waller, and Velma Snellstrom.

The twenty girls will be inducted into the honorary May 27. A banquet and election of officers will follow.

USA Releases Platform

Two planks of the United Students association as announced by Warren Miller, president of the USA, and Bob Allen, party candidate for the ASUO number one position, are:

1. The wiping out of social lines in campus politics. The choice of candidates should be only on the basis of the ability and integrity of individuals.

2. Increased student participation in student affairs. An autonomous, responsible student government. A divorcement of student affairs from administration and faculty control. A financial independent ASUO. An incorporation of student government.

Newman Clubbers To Picnic Sunday

Students attending the Newman club picnic will meet in front of the Side at 11 a.m. Sunday. The event will be held at Playground park past Jasper, Fran Mahula, president, said.

Students owning cars are asked to bring them, picnic chairman Gordon Tovani said. All interested in attending the event, are asked to call Tovani at ext. 323. Refreshments will be furnished by the club.

Golfers Ready

rels will be: Staffer (O); Provost (O); Draper (W); Mallory (W); Ralph Dichter (OSC); John Morley (Idaho); and Lyons (WSC). But there are many other golfers playing on the various teams who are capable of walking off with the medalists' trophy.

Two Acts of 'Hansel and Gretel' Set for Music Program Tomorrow

An evening of operatic excerpts, including two complete acts of "Hansel and Gretel" in costume, will be given tomorrow by students of Denton Rossell, voice teacher, at 8 p.m. in the music school auditorium.

In addition a large scene from "La Boheme" will be presented. The previously scheduled excerpt from "Tosca" has been canceled.

Kays Plays Poet

In the selection from "La Boheme," Rudolfo, the poet, played by tenor James Kays, meets for the first time the flower girl Mimi, who will be Janet Nielsei, lyric soprano.

Leads in "Hansel and Gretel" will be sung by Barbara Detrick as Hansel, Mary Hawkins as Gretel, Barbara Heartfield and Don Jordahl as the mother and father, and

Marilyn Griffith as the Sandman. Three-Acter

This three-act opera, written by Humperdinck, was selected for the first broadcast by the Metropolitan Opera company on Christmas day, 1929.

Scenes are being staged by Rossell. There will be no admission charge.

June 1 Deadline Set For Degree Cards

Seniors who contemplate graduation in June were advised yesterday by Registrar Curtis E. Avery that no degree application cards can be filed after June 1. Cards must be in by that time if students wish to graduate this spring, he said.

Degree fees of $6.50 must also be paid on or before June 1.

Veterans' degree fees will be met by the Veterans administration, but must be applied for by June 1.

In ancient times, prospective fathers were reequipped to go to bed and abstain from certain kinds of food at the time of their wives' confinements.

He who is afraid of doing too much is always doing too little.

BA Honorary To Induct Ten

Ten University students will be initiated into Beta Gamma Sigma, business administration honorary, at a banquet at 6 p.m., Tuesday in the faculty club. Dr. Victor P. Morris, dean of the business administration school, will be the speaker.

The ten pledges are Eugenia Karns, Raymond Turrell, Betty Jean Bennett, Walter Gould, Wally Berning, Betty Jean Carlin, George Fleshman, Edward Hoffmaster, Lois May Hunt, and Charles Flesher.

Sherman Holmes will be presented the Beta Gamma Sigma award as the freshman in business having the highest scholastic standing.

Laxton's Life Loaded With Men Husband, Hero, Mix up Matters

By PAT KING

As Ellen Turner, female lead in "The Male Animal" to be presented by the University theater May 21, 22, 26, 27, 28, and 29, Pat Laxton has a veritable emotional picnic throwing books at her husband (Bill Tassock) and breaking ashtrays and thermos bottles.

"Ellen thinks she is cool headed, understanding, and more stable than her husband, but actually she is a very emotional person, constantly fluctuating between her professor husband and her former all-American football hero boyfriend," Miss Laxton explained.

Commenting on her part, she said, "The hardest thing is to try to convince the audience that I'll never leave my husband at the same time I'm screaming at him that I'm going away with another man."

Although she appeared as one of the fairies in "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and has worked on many stage crews, this is actually her first try behind the footlights. But the lure of grease paint and her "name in lights" has no appeal for Plat who would prefer to teach the technical side of the theater in schools.

A sophomore in drama, she is also a representative on the theater advisory board, member of Phi Beta, and of Delta Zeta sorority. This summer she plans to attend her sorority's national convention in Massachusetts as a delegate from her chapter.

"As long as I'm that close to New York, I plan to stay in the big city with another girl for three days and cram in as many plays as I can," she remarked.

The supporting cast includes Lavern Taylor, Chuck Boice, Carolyn Parker, Gordon Erickson, Dick Monnie, Virginia Woods, Pat White, Donna Mary Brennan, and Chris McCarroll.

Reservations for tickets may be made by calling ext. 401 in Johnson hall. The box office is open from 10 a.m. to noon, and from 1 to 5 p.m.

ADS Offering Scholarship

Alpha Delta Sigma, national men's advertising fraternity, is this year offering a special $50 scholarship to an outstanding junior man in advertising, according to Earl Walter, new president of the campus chapter.

All junior men in advertising are eligible to compete for the scholarship. Petitions for the award should be turned in to Dr. R. D. Millican, chapter adviser not later than Tuesday, June 1, Walter said.

Dr. Millican's offices are in the journalism building and Commerce hall.
