

Hello Hop Set for 9 At Igloo

First all-campus social event of the season, the Hello dance, will be held tonight from 9 to 12 in McArthur court. Freddie Yahn and his 13-piece band will supply the music which will welcome freshmen and new students to the University.

Admission to the traditional dance, sponsored by the educational activities board is free to all students. Sport clothes are in order for the affair. Though it is a stag dance, dates will be allowed.

Begins at 9

Dancing will begin at 9 p.m., allowing freshmen and new students an opportunity to attend the president's reception in Gerlinger hall from 8 to 9:30.

Faculty, administrative, and student leaders will be in the receiving line at the reception. There will be an opportunity to meet and talk with Oregon leaders.

Dignitaries

In the receiving line will be President and Mrs. Harry K. Newburn, E. M. Pallet, Mr. and Mrs. Donald DuShane, Clifford Constance, Karl Onthank, ASUO President Bob Allen, and AWS President Beverly Pittman.

Mrs. Golda Wickham and Virgil Fogdall, director of women's and men's affairs, respectively, will handle introductions. At the punch bowl will be Mrs. Pallett, Mrs. Onthank, Mrs. Constance, and Mrs. Fogdall.

Award for Dr. Paul

Dr. Frederick Paul, left, receives a certificate of achievement from Lt. Col. A. L. Cobb, second from right, in President Newburn's office. Looking on are Commander K. A. Ayers, President Harry K. Newburn, and Col. F. R. Maerdian.

Dr. Paul Receives Award for Outstanding Scientific Research

Dr. Frederick W. Paul, associate professor of physics, was presented Wednesday with a certificate of appreciation for outstanding scientific research and development which contributed to victory in the last war.

Commander K. A. Ayers, U. S. navy, presented the award to Dr. Paul in the office of University President Harry K. Newburn. The presentation was made on behalf of the armed forces of the United States.

To bring about and retain the scientific equality of the United States, Lt. Col. Arthur L. Cobb, Fort Lewis, said in presentation remarks, the armed services need the technical processes developed by men like Doctor Paul.

Approximately 700 civilian scientists on the west coast have done research and development recognized by the United States as contributing to victory and aiding in national defense. The certificates are presented on behalf of the secretary of the navy and the secretary of defense.

Present at the ceremony were President Newburn, Commander Ayers, Lt. Col. Cobb, A. E. Caswell, head of the physics department, Dean E. L. Johnson of the college of liberal arts, R. T. Ellickson, associate dean of the graduate school, Col. F. R. Maerdian, head of the military department, Mrs. A. C. Paul, Dr. Paul's mother, and his three children, William, Beverly, and Jacqueline.

loged and cards are filed in both the general library catalog and special catalog in the department's office. All films and recordings acquired by the University are stored and loaned by the department.

The division has at present three listening booths and space for showing films, film strips, and slides to small groups of people.

Expands

The department has continued to expand its activities and increase its equipment until it now employs three full-time workers. During regular school terms 7 or 8 part-time helpers are needed.

Dances, assemblies, and other activities on the campus are supplied loud speaker systems by the department. Many tape recordings have been made and are being made to preserve events on the campus. The all campus sing during Junior weekend, music festivals, and the University Singers are some of the tape recordings on file for students listening in the audio-visual department.

Sports Staff Meet

There will be a meeting of the Emerald sport staff Monday evening at 6:30 in the shack. All those who applied for positions on the staff are requested to attend.

Advance ROTC Quota Filled; 79 Of 140 'In'

The quotas for the advanced ROTC courses of all three branches, infantry, air force, and transportation corps, have been filled, according to Colonel Frank R. Maerdian, professor of military science and tactics at the University.

Of the 140 applicants for the first year advanced program, only 78 were accepted because of limited quotas in all three branches. Twenty-nine were accepted by the Air ROTC, 25 in the infantry, and 25 in the transportation corps.

Names Withheld

The names of the men who have been accepted are being withheld pending the outcome of the physical examination which must be successfully passed by each applicant. The physical will be given to the applicants Monday evening.

The men who enter into the first year advanced ROTC will undergo two years of training in the branch of their choice. Between the first and second years, they will attend a six-week summer course of practical on the job training at an army or air force field designated by the commanding general of the Sixth army or Fourth air force.

Summer Camps

Normally the infantry students attend summer camp at Fort Lewis, Washington, the air force students at McChord field, Washington, and the transportation corps students at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Upon successful completion of the two year course and summer camp, the students are awarded reserve commissions as second lieutenants in the branch in which they have undergone training. New regulations also provide that any student in the upper third of his class may apply for a Regular Army or Air Force commission, and Air Force graduates may apply for flight training providing they meet existing requirements.

$1200 Stolen From 5 Houses Early Thursday

Cash and valuables totalling nearly $1200 were stolen from five University fraternity houses in a series of early morning robberies Thursday.

The fraternities raided were Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Chi, Pi Kappa Alpha, and Phi Delta Theta, all centrally located on the campus.

The largest part of the loot taken was in cash, an unofficial check by the Emerald revealed yesterday. Sigma Alpha Epsilon reported the loss of about $300, with one member losing $165 in cash. Phi Delta Theta lost most heavily, with some $435 missing from the house. Phi Gamma Delta was robbed of about $250, Sigma Chi lost $50, well split up among the members, and Pi Kappa Alpha had $75 unaccounted for, most of which sum came from one member.

Eugene city police officials are investigating the thefts.

Business Staff to Meet at Emerald

A meeting of the Emerald upper business staff will be held at 12:30 Monday in the Emerald business office. Business Manager Virgil Tucker requested that all day managers attend.

In announcing the meeting, Tucker also advised that all new business staff workers who have not yet been assigned definite work days to be at the Emerald business office Monday.

Phonographs, Projectors Part Of Audio-Visual's Equipment

Campus-wide service is the job of the audio-visual department started on the campus two years ago this September.

Equipped with phonographs, recording machines, movie projectors, films, and other related equipment and material the new division offers extensive service to classrooms and research students.

Before becoming a separate department the audio-visual department was a division of the physics department. The services grew until it needed to establish quarters of its own on the lower floor of the library.

Under the direction of Don L. Hunter, the department acquired a library of films, recordings and a collection of audio-visual documents for personal instruction and research use.

The department's library is cata-

Wesley Starts Fall Program

Wesley Foundation, Methodist student center located at 1347 Onyx Street, will begin its fall program Sunday evening, Sept. 19, with a meeting for old and new students.

Beginning at 5:00 p.m. with a get-acquainted mixer and student supper, the feature of the evening will be a special musical program presented by Miss June Kelso, violinist; Millard Kenny, pianist; Miss Eleanor Cluver, soprano; and James Kays, tenor.

Miss Kathy Dobson, president of Wesley this year, will welcome new students. The Rev. David Seaman, director, will briefly outline the purpose and organization of this nationally recognized Foundation for Methodist students. The Rev. L. O. Griffith, pastor of First Methodist Church of Eugene, will bring greetings from that parent organization.

Wesley Foundation is beginning its 26th year on the Oregon campus and invites all students to participate in its social and religious, student-led program.

Housemothers

All housemothers are to meet at 1:30 p.m. Monday at Gerlinger hall. Dean Golda P. Wickham emphasized yesterday that this is not to be a heads of houses meeting.

Group Plans Picnic

A picnic for Lutheran students will be held Sunday, September 19, on the McKenzie river. Transportation will be provided, and the Lutheran council will be present to plan the group's fall term program.

Cleone Olson, Lutheran student counselor, may be contacted at 266-M for further information.
