

Gas Shortage Slows Ticket Sales to Game

The normally large sale of tickets to the Oregon-Stanford game, to be played in Palo Alto September 25, has been slowed down as a result of the recent gasoline shortage, according to Athletic Business Manager Howard Lemons.

Students wishing ticket refunds on this account are reminded by Lemons that trains will still be running regularly.

Over 200 U. of O. supporters have already purchased their bids to be on hand when the Webfoots and Wolverines class in Ann Arbor on October 2. Some of these are alums in the East but most are local people.

Sales to the Orange-USC game, to be played in Portland October 16 are booming, said Lemons, but there are still many seats available in the end zone.

Luncheon Club To Meet Friday

The luncheon club of the YWCA will entertain prospective members Friday noon at the Y bungalow, Violet Meisenholder, chairman, announced yesterday. A short explanation of the purposes and customs of the club will be given and all girls are asked to bring their own sack lunches.

An informally organized group of girls who meet and eat lunch at the Y, the luncheon club has carried on past activities such as weekly potlucks, singing carols at Christmas, securing additional equipment for the bungalow, and entertaining graduating seniors. All programs are planned and executed by a steering committee of ten members of the group.

Activities Planned By Wesley House

Five night, a pot luck dinner for married students, and a morning chapel service are scheduled at Wesley foundation tomorrow.

The morning chapel, begun last spring term, will be held again this year from 7:30 to 7:50 a.m. each Wednesday.

A pot-luck dinner for married students will be held each Wednesday beginning tomorrow at 5:30 p.m. Any married student interested is invited to join the Wes-Weds this week.

Five night, a weekly dance session, will begin tomorrow at 9 p.m.

The Wesley players, dramatics organization, will meet today at 6:30 p.m. to discuss production plans for the year. The annual "fall round up," a western party will be held Friday from 8 to 11 p.m. at Wesley house.

Dr. Kent Installed As Head of Society

Dr. Leslie Kent, Eugene, was installed as president of the Oregon state medical society Saturday at the closing ceremony of the group's 74th annual session.

More than 260 doctors of medicine were registered for the four day session, which featured lectures by four outstanding clinicians from the University of Michigan, and ten Oregon physicians.

Among the speakers was Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette university, who discussed dangers of federal aid to higher education at the annual banquet held Friday night.

Extension Service Sets Night Classes

Thirteen courses are listed in the schedule of evening classes which began last night at the University, it was reported yesterday at the extension service.

Townpeople who are interested are urged to attend the Tuesday classes. Registration may be completed at the classes or at General Extension division office. Classes are held four nights a week.

Included in the schedule are courses in philosophy, woodworking, painting, physical education, education, and others.

A catalog, regularly issued by the extension division, has been delayed, but a schedule may be obtained at their office.

Means Offers Religion Class

Dr. Paul Means, head of the Religion department, has announced the addition of a new course entitled "Religions of Classical Antiquity."

All upper division students who wish to be enrolled should see Dr. Means in the Religion department office, 1 Friendly.

The course is numbered R461 and offers three hours of credit. Classes will meet on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 1 p.m.

A complete history of the culture and religions of the Egyptian, Babylonian, Greek and Roman races is the main subject matter of the course.

U. Theater Tryouts Monday in Guild Hall

Tryouts for the first University theater production, as yet untitled, will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Guild theater, Johnson hall. All interested students are urged to attend the tryouts by Horace Robinson, who will direct the first play.

Any student may appear in a University theater play, whether or not his major is speech.

Baseball Men Meet

There will be an important meeting of all men who plan to play either varsity or freshman baseball in room 101 PE building today at 4:30.

Pix Dates Set For Oregana Start Sept. 28

House pictures for the 1949 Oregana will be started September 28 by Kennell-Ellis studio, according to members of the yearbook staff.

They said men's living organizations will be photographed until the Sophomore Whiskerino interferes. Women's pictures will follow.

For this year's Oregana, men in each house will wear suits. No particular costume has been set for women except that those in each house wear uniform clothes for their pictures. White V-necked blouses were suggested by the photographer.

Three days at the end of the picture schedule will be allowed off-campus students, who will be photographed alphabetically.

YMCA Schedules Night for Freshmen

Orientation and entertainment for freshmen men will be the order of the evening at Freshman Men's night, slated for Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the YMCA hut. In inviting all freshmen men, Executive Secretary Jack Merner said a full evening had been planned.

Highlighting the evening will be a talk by Football Coach Jim Aiken which will cover the varsity athletic situation at Oregon.

Campus leaders will give information on ASUO activities, on religious activities, and on fraternities. Movies of last year's Oregon football team will be shown.

A freshman club, which will be set up within the YMCA this year, will be explained by Wes Nicholson, YM freshman adviser.

U of O Infirmary Gives Free X-Rays

All girls having chest x-ray appointments for September 23 should report to the University health service on September 22, it was announced yesterday.

Boys are to report to the basement for x-rays today and Thursday. Faculty members and employees will be examined Wednesday and Friday.

The health service particularly urges food handlers in campus living organizations to take advantage of this free checkup.

Intervarsity To Meet

Singing and accounts of activities at summer Bible training camps is on the agenda for the first regular meeting of the Intervarsity Christian fellowship tonight.

The meeting, scheduled at 7 p.m. at John Straub hall dining room, is informal and open to all University students.

Inter-varsity Christian fellowship is an interdenominational organization designed to meet the needs of University students.

Activity Books Still Available

Students who have not obtained their athletic tickets may pick them up at the athletic office afternoons from 1 to 5, and Saturday mornings from 8 to 12, announced Howard Lemons, athletic business manager. A total of 4706 tickets have been issued.

Each ticket must be signed by the owner before it can be used at football games.

Winter term books will be given out with registration material, omitting two separate procedures.

Applications Open In Women's Co-ops

Women students desiring immediate residence in Highland, Rebec, and University cooperative houses should make membership applications as soon as possible.

Membership Chairman Joan Kronsteiner has asked that interested women students contact her at 1335 Onyx street, or phone 3818.

Miss Kronsteiner explained that expenses in the cooperative houses are kept down by house jobs. Applications are accepted solely on the basis of need, scholarship, and character, with no other restrictions.

Expert to Talk On Atmosphere

Dr. Joseph Kaplan of the Institute of Geophysics, University of California at Los Angeles, will speak on "The Upper Atmosphere of the Earth," in room 207 Chapman hall, September 24 at 8 p.m.

In his lecture, Dr. Kaplan will discuss the problems that need to be solved which relate to the instrumental techniques, such as the use of the V2 rocket in sending recording instruments to high altitudes.

Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in 163 Deady hall, Dr. Kaplan will conduct a seminar on the subject "Laboratory Studies Related to the Physics of the Upper Atmosphere." Both lectures will be open to the general public.

Phi Thetas To Meet

All members of Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honorary, are to attend a meeting at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the Chi Omega house.

Classified Ads

FOR SALE: Varnished student desk, book shelves, drawer; price 10.50. Excellent condition. Mamie Chan, Hendricks Hall.

FOR SALE: Speed Graphic plus all accessories and tripod. CHEAP. L. V. Nuttman. Photo Bureau. (4)

Underwood Standard Typewriter
thoroughly reconditioned and in good shape $60.
Burroughs Adding Machine
with stand. Both in good condition. $75 at 305 I.O.O.F. Bldg. Ph. 4141

SEE OREGON TAKE MICHIGAN
Charter Plane to Ann Arbor
Oct. 2 — Depart Eugene Fri. A.M.
Return Sun. P.M.
Western Skyways Loaning Deluxe Lockheed Lodestar
—ALL EXPENSES PAID—
Ten Seats Still Open.
See Art Baumohl, Campus Representative
or Phone 788-J after 4 p.m.

Hello There

It's swell to see so many familiar & new faces on the campus.

We would like to take this opportunity to urge you to let us assist you in choosing and arranging your floral decorations. Drop in and talk things over with us; we like to talk.

The best of luck to you through the coming football season and school year.

from
Flowers Unlimited
Phone 2690
By Air — By Wires — By Sedan Delivery — Buy Flowers