Grid Rally Scheduled For Tonight

To send the team to Stanford, a football rally will be held tonight outside the Southern Pacific depot at Fourth and Willamette.

Students will meet at the station at 8:15, daylight saving time. The rally is planned for the next half hour, according to Jim Bocchi, committee member.

Stanford Bound

Webfoot gridmen will board the southbound train which leaves at 8:48, for Palo Alto.

Cheers at their send-off rally will be led by the rally squad, Marv Horenstein, yell king, said.

Simple Signs

He asked that each living organization furnish a rally sign which is "not too elaborate" for the send-off.

Bocchi and Horenstein requested that no Greek lettering or identification be used on the signs because they will not be used on a competitive basis.

Band to Play

Music for the rally will be furnished by the band, Bocchi said.

Members of the football team are meeting at McArthur court earlier tomorrow night, and will be taken by bus from there to the train depot.

Upperclass Group Of YW Meets Today

Juniors and seniors interested in working on the upperclass commission of the YWCA must attend the organization meeting today at 6:30 p.m. at the Y bungalow, co-chairman Joan O'Niell and Dorothy Orr announced.

Miss O'Niell stated that all work in this commission will be done through projects this year, and all interested in working on the commission must attend the initial meeting.

Emerald Writers Report to Shack

Reporters who have been assigned Emerald beats, and those who do not have beats but desire to write for the Emerald, whether or not they have filed Emerald applications, have been asked to report to the Emerald quonset this afternoon or Friday afternoon between 2 and 5.

Beats will be re-assigned if the reporters on them do not check in on one of these two days. Managing editor Don Fair explained that several reporters are needed each afternoon to cover stories that are phoned in, and to do re-writes.

Stanford Ducats Sold Out; More At Palo Alto

Athletic Business Manager Howard Lemons has announced that the University of Oregon ticket office in McArthur court is sold out of tickets to the Stanford game in Palo Alto next Saturday.

However, a telephone conversation with Palo Alto today revealed that plenty of tickets are available on the Stanford campus. Tickets may be obtained in Stanford stadium on Saturday, September 25, the day of the game, at $2 each. A special gate will be reserved for the sale of these tickets.

Oregon students may gain admission to the Webfoot rooting section by showing registration cards.

Lemons further announced that no more tickets are available to next week's Michigan game.

Dean of Law School Elected C of C Prexy

Orlando J. Hollis, dean of the school of law, was elected president of the Eugene Chamber of Commerce Monday night at that organization's annual meeting.

"I have been intimately connected with the affairs of the Chamber for the last three years," Dean Hollis commented on his position, "and I look forward to the opportunity of playing some small part in directing the activities of the Chamber during the coming year, and in working toward the objectives stated in its constitution 'to promote the general civic interests of the entire community.'"

Dean Hollis has served as vice-president of the Chamber for the past three years, as chairman of the weekly forum committee during the last two years, and as chairman of the legislative committee of the Chamber.

Last year's president, John Snellstrom, was killed in a plane accident late last summer.

Dean Hollis has been at the University since 1928. He received his B.S. and J.D. degrees here in 1926 and 1928, respectively.

Petitions Asked

Petitions for chairman of flying speeches on the YWCA cabinet are being accepted this week at the YW bungalow. Sophomores or over are eligible.

Press Meet Invitations To Be Sent

Invitations for the 22nd annual Oregon High School Press conference will be mailed to the delegates next week from the school of journalism, the sponsoring agency, disclosed Warren C. Price, associate professor of journalism, in charge of arrangements.

This year's two day conference has been scheduled a month earlier on Nov. 5 and 6 so that high school journalists can make fuller use of the new techniques learned at the conference from the wider range of subjects to be offered on the program.

According to Price, the earlier date of the 1948 conference will not conflict with examination schedules at the University, and the weather is usually better for travel in November than in December.

Gordon Sabine, assistant professor of journalism, is assisting Price in making arrangements. The program will be arranged by Dr. Laurence R. Campbell, professor of journalism, assisted by Carl Webb, assistant professor of journalism and director of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association.

Two Members Added to Econ Faculty List

Two new members, Bernard Goodman and Dr. Zenon Szatrowski, have been appointed to the department of economics, University of Oregon.

Goodman will be an instructor in economics. A graduate of the University of Toronto, he has been doing graduate work in international trade and money and banking at the University of California at Berkeley, where he was formerly an instructor in economics. He replaces Edwin C. Robbins.

Statistics Expert

Dr. Szatrowski, who has been appointed as associate professor here, was born in Checopee, Massachusetts, took his BA and MA at the University of Indiana, receiving his Ph.D. at Northwestern university in 1942.

A specialist in statistics and mathematical economics, he has had much experience during the past several years as a consulting statistician for private industry in the Chicago area and has written a number of articles for such magazines as Econometrica, the Journal of Farm Economics, and the Journal of the American Statistical Association.

At the University of Oregon he will take charge of economic statistics, and will expand and develop that field here.

Both Mr. Goodman and Dr. Szatrowski are now living in the Amazon Flats, south of the campus.

Allen Receives Hunter Plaque

BOB ALLEN, ASUO president, watches as Dean Eldon Johnson of the college of liberal arts and Carl W. Hintz, librarian, (standing on chair), place the Maurice Hunter Leadership award on the wall of the library browsing room. Allen is the first student to be awarded the plaque.

Tenor Jan Pierce to Open Guest Artist Series at McArthur Court

Jan Pierce, Metropolitan opera tenor, will appear in McArthur court Thursday, September 30, as the season's first guest artist on the Eugene and University Civic Music association series.

Seven concerts are scheduled for this school year, announced G. E. Gaylord, president of the association.

Must Show Cards

To be admitted to a performance, students should show their registration cards at the south entrance of McArthur court, and Eugene residents and others their membership cards.

The membership campaign of the association closed Saturday night with a full quota of subscribers, meaning that the anticipated budget for coming artists is covered, said Gaylord.

No tickets will be sold at the door of any concert.

Other artists in the order of their scheduled performance are:

Carol Brice, contralto who has done concert, radio and recording work, November 4; the Vienna Choir Boys, December 6; Florence Quartararo, young leading soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company who made her debut two years ago, January 5.

Robert Casadesus, French pianist, January 24; Nathan Milstein, violinist, March 9; and the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra conducted by Dimitri Mitropoulos, April 8.

The above dates may be subject to change.

U O Aid Brings French Thanks

Personal letters of thanks from the city of Tours, France, were received recently by Dr. David M. Dougherty, head of the language department. The letter were from Canon Sadoux and the archbishop of Tours.

The letters expressed thanks for the aid extended to the city last spring by Les Thelemites, the campus French club; Pi Delta Phi, national French honorary; and the U. of O. language department.

The moral aid was much more important than the material aid, wrote Canon Sadoux, although both were appreciated greatly.

The material aid consisted of 13 large cases of food and clothing totaling nearly one and one-half tons which was collected in an all-campus drive last April.

Registration Total Increases to 5661

The number of students who have registered at the University totaled 5,661 at the closing of the registrar's office yesterday, according to Clifford Constance, registrar.

A report of the number of students attending each of the different schools on the campus and other statistics on registration will be released today.
