

37 Ducks on Way To Stanford Game; McKay May Start

Coach Jim Aiken and a 37-man traveling squad of Oregon football players left Eugene last night on the 8:48 Cascade, on their way to Pleasanton, California, and a game with the Stanford university Indians Saturday afternoon at Stanford stadium.

The Ducks are scheduled to arrive in Pleasanton around noon today, in time for a pre-game loosening-up workout at the Old Hearst Ranch, their California headquarters.

Aiken ordered a short, light workout without pads last afternoon before train time. The Webfoots lived up to their nickname by sloshing around on the practice field for 30 minutes, although raincoats were worn during the drill.

Two Regulars, Eleven 'S' Vets In Red Backfield

(Editor's note: Following yesterday's summary of Marchie Schwartz's front line prospects, the Emerald sports page gives its readers a look at Stanford's backfield.)

Stanford has returning lettermen at every backfield position, including two regulars from last year's team. They did lose two top quarterbacks, the most vital position in a "T" formation, plus their best runner and line backer.

The biggest single loss was at quarterback, where Ainslee Bell and Al Morris were one and two last season. However, letterman Paul Campbell, who was one of the sparks against San Jose, looks as good as if not better than Bell. Campbell is a deadly passer, a fine field general, and can run with the ball if no receiver is open. He is speedy and plays a fine defensive game.

Tom Shaw at Quarter
Number one man behind Campbell is a former all-city man from Portland, Tom Shaw, who led Grant high to the state title in 1946. Shaw was an outstanding star for the Indian Frosh a year ago, but needs more varsity experience.

Who Marchie Schwartz will start at left half is doubtful, but it will probably be either Andrews (184) or Turriziani (178). The former is a scooter, adept at running the end and hauling in passes. Turriziani is not as fast as Andrews, but is a reliable halfback.

Fast Backfield
Also in the left half picture is Benson (162), another speed-demon and Durket (162), a punting specialist who can also run. Benson played primarily on defense against San Jose, and was outstanding. Durket boots a long, high kick that gives the ends plenty of time to get downfield.

In line with the speed-boy pat-
(Please turn to page seven)

PINSETTERS WANTED

EARN SPARE MONEY

by setting pins in the evening and your spare time.

U-Bowl

29 West 11 — Call 6716

Front Line Indian Scout

OREGON GUARD ED CHROBOT, a 200-pound starter, will help to anchor Jim Aiken's "Iron Man" line in Saturday's conference game with the Stanford Indians at Palo Alto. Chrobot's speed and agility make him a valuable man on both offense and defense. Although injured in a summer auto accident, Chrobot has been playing good football to keep his starting right guard post for the Webfoots. The stocky veteran sticks at guard on the six-man line defense, but pulls out to back up the line when the Ducks switch to a 5-3-2-1 defensive pattern.

Duck Traveling Squad
The following players were named to make the Stanford trip:

Ends: Bob Anderson, Wayne Bartholemey, Dan Garza, Darrell Robinson, Lou Robinson, Dick Wilkins, and Win Wright; Tackles: Steve Dotur, Bob Roberts, Don Stanton, and Norm Yatchmenoff.

Guards: John Arnold, Jim Berwick, Ed Chrobot, Chet Daniels, Larry Hull, Ted Meland, Sam Nevills, Bus Newcomer; Centers: Brad Ecklund, and Dave Gibson.

Backs: Jim Aiken Jr., George Bell, Bud Boqua, Keith DeCoursey, Bob Easter, Tommy Hines, Ben Holcomb, DeWayne Johnson, Woodley Lewis, Ken Maine, Johnny McKay, Bob Oas, Bob Sanders, Earl Stelle, Joe Tom, and Norm Van Brocklin.

McKay to Start
Before leaving for the Palo Alto trip, Aiken announced that Johnny McKay will start at left half against the Indians in place of Woodley Lewis, who was slightly injured in the Santa Barbara game. Although Lewis is in good shape now, he won't be used until needed.

Aiken's complete offensive starting front line probably will include Dan Garza at left end, Steve Dotur at left tackle, Ted Meland at left guard, Brad Ecklund at center, Ed Chrobot at right guard, Don Stanton at right tackle, and Dick Wilkins at right end.

Norm Van Brocklin will call offensive plays from his quarterback post, George Bell is set to open at right half, and Bob Sanders will be at fullback.

A football referee covers about three times as much ground as any player in a football game.

I-M Touch Tourney Draws 38 Squads

Thirty-eight teams have cast their hats in this fall's intramural touch football ring thus far and will begin competition within the next few days.

Some 100 games will be played during the course of the season, the tournament to be run off on a round-robin basis. The teams entering have been divided into several leagues, and winners of these will be pitted in the playoff series. Intramural Director Paul Washke said Thursday that schedules are in the mail, and rules and regulations have been sent to competing organizations. All games will be played on the intramural field just below McArthur court.

All teams are requested to have their own individual jerseys if possible, and are reminded that games will get away on time.

Washke also announced that a manager's meeting has been set for Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in room 122 of the PE building.

Take a SNACK

Back to your SHACK you

Hungry Ducks

Fruits — Pastries — Candy

UNIVERSITY GROCERY

790 E. 11th Phone 1597

DANA'S

Gay Bandit
LIP DESIGNER
$2.00

Barbara Gould
Night Cream — Reg. $2.50
SPECIAL $1.00

Atomette
PERFUME DISPENSER
purse size
$3.75

Lipstick and Perfume
by
DERMETIER, TABU, COLONIAL
DAME, BARBARA GOULD,
MARCELLE, MAX FACTOR, and
MANY OTHER NATIONALLY
KNOWN BRANDS

PENNYWISE DRUGS

36 East Broadway 769 West Sixth