

Committee Tells Prerequisites For Graduation

The academic requirements committee at a recent meeting declared its intention to enforce all academic regulations of the University, including the 2.00 GPA requirement for graduation.

It is no longer possible for students with less than a 2.00 to graduate by earning a 2.25 GPA during their last 45 hours, Kenneth J. O'Connell, committee chairman, announced yesterday.

However, O'Connell added, for a limited time the committee will accept petitions from students who had previously been led to expect a waiver of this requirement, provided they earn a 2.25 their last 45 hours.

A committee meeting to consider such petitions will be held today.

Dr., Nurse Aid Infirmiry Staff

To ease the present congestion at the Student Health Service, a new doctor and nurse will be added to the staff.

Dr. D. N. Brittain will take his post at the campus infirmiry on Monday, according to a statement of the health service. The nurse will be added sometime in the near future.

A large number of students have made use of health facilities during the first few weeks of the year, and many have complained of the long wait for attention at the infirmiry. With these additions to the staff, patients will be cared for in shorter time.

At the present time there are fourteen bed patients at the infirmiry, which is far above the normal registration.

should be a thriller ballgame. It's a tossup, but we like the Boiler-makers. Purdue by 7. At Evanston, Ill., the Northwestern Wildcats bump head-on into the powerful Gophers from Minnesota. A tough ballgame, but the Wildcat offense is terrific this year. Northwestern by 10.

Army tackles Illinois and we think the Cadets should win by 12 points. Indiana tackles a hard luck TCU squad that will be gunning for an upset. We think it'll be close, but not that close. Indiana by 7.

The rampaging Buckeyes of Ohio State will have their hands full with Iowa Saturday. The Iowans are stubborn but fourth quarter Buckeye power should give them a 13 point win. Michigan State takes on Notre Dame. We predict the Spartans will put up a stiff battle before Notre Dame wins by 13.

On the Pacific Coast conference, Oregon's still mighty Ducks travel inland for their only breather of the season, against Idaho. Notwithstanding a Vandal Homecoming we think the Webfoots are good for a 27 point victory margin.

UCLA will have a tough assignment against the Washington

Huskies. We predict a narrow, 6 point Bruin win. OSC looks 27 points better than little Portland U and ditto for Nevada over North Texas State.

We look for WSC to ruin Montana's Homecoming with a 20-point win. Down California way, Southern Cal tackles a tough aggregation from Rice. The Trojans are due, and should take a 13 point win. California should somewhat redeem the honor of PCC with a two TD victory over Wisconsin, and, last but not least, we'll pick Santa Clara to upset Stanford by 1 point.
