1 Conversion Beats UW Pups

(Editor's note: Last night's game results were phoned in to the Emerald by Co-Sports Editor Bob Reed.)

Bill Bowerman's Oregon Frosh football team turned in a thrilling 25-24 victory over the Washington Pups last night, in a game played in Portland's Multnomah Stadium.

Fullback Chuck Missfeldt scored Oregon's first touchdown in the first period, while Lefthalf Tommy Edwards added another TD in the same quarter on a pass from Jim Calderwood. The toss was good for 35 yards. Jerry Leslie kicked the extra point for what was to be the winning margin.

Washington's Norton also tallied in the first period, making it 13-6, Oregon Frosh. Palmer went over for the twelfth Pup point in the second quarter. Both conversion tries failed. Oregon led 13-12 at the half.

After the intermission, Olfen intercepted a Duckling lateral and scampered 35 yards for Washington to put the Pups in the lead, 18-13.

Edwards evened it up by taking another Calderwood pass good for 22 yards and a touchdown. Missfeldt powered over in the third period to put the Ducklings out in front 25-18.

Wiley completed the game's final 25-24 score by going over for Washington, also in the third period. No scoring was done in the last quarter.

IM Touch Teams Win Close Tilts

In yesterday's intramural football action, a strong Theta Chi team swamped Nestor hall 20-0, Pi Kappa Alpha defeated French hall 9-6, Sigma Chi edged Omega hall 9-6, Phi Delta Theta downed Lambda Chi Alpha 7-0, and the boys from Phi Kappa Sigma turned in a 6-0 victory over Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Theta Chi unleashed a powerful attack to swamp Nestor hall 20-0. Bill Hutchinson tossed two touchdown passes to Ed Vannet, and one to Dick Steelhammer for the other TD.

A touchdown pass from "Dutch" Reicin to Slack, Bob Bradlee's conversion, and a touchback added up to a defeat for French hall. Dick Unis received a pass from Bob George for the French tally and a 9-6 final score.

Another touchback figured in Sigma Chi's victory over Omega hall. Leroy Coleman tossed one to Jones for a white cross score, and a Furchner-Petteoff pass combination gave Omega its score. Jones blocked an Omega punt for the touchback.

In the afternoon's closest game, Phi Delta Theta defeated Lambda Chi 7-0. Jack O'Conner hit Jack Keller with a perfect pass for the Phi Delt score. Keller went through center for the extra point.

Phi Kappa Sigma defeated Sigma Phi Epsilon 6-0, on a short pass from McCullough to Lyons. Sig Ep speedy Denny Clark was held down by an alert Phi Sig defense.

The University of Oregon Webfoots, ready for their third victory of the season, are two-touchdown favorites to spoil an Idaho Homecoming this afternoon, when they meet the Idaho Vandals at Neale Stadium in Moscow.

It will be a conference football power against a 1948 three-time loser today. The Ducks have lost to Michigan but are tabbed to finish near the top in PCC standings, while Idaho has dropped successive contests to Oregon State, Utah, and UCLA.

The weather bureau has forecasted fair weather for all parts of Idaho today, so a capacity crowd of 15,000 will see the teams play on a dry field.

KASH to Broadcast Game
Eugene radio station KASH, 1600 key., will carry the game broadcast, starting at 1:45 this afternoon.

The Webfoots, winners of two conference games this season, will be at top offensive strength. Only DeWayne Johnson, defensive linebacker, is on the doubtful list. Fullback Sam Theis, out with a leg injury, is the lone Idaho player not ready.

Van Will Throw Passes
Duck Coach Jim Aiken is expected to use the same offensive lineup which has started in previous games. Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin will direct Oregon's feared passing attack, with a quartet of top backs to pace the Webfoots on the ground.

Johnny McKay at left half, George Bell, right half, and Fullback Bob Sanders complete Oregon's starting backfield. Woodley Lewis, McKay's alternate, will also see action against the Vandals.

The Duck line will be at full strength, with Ends Dan Garza and Dick Wilkins adding to Oregon offensive punch on the receiving end of Van Brocklin's passes.

Vandals After Upset
Idaho Coach Dixie Howell has been drilling his team hard in practice, and they should be keyed for an upset. The Vandals will always take a chance, and have a fast attack to throw at Oregon.

Pass defense has been a weak point for both squads, so most of the scoring may be on passes. With a dry field, the teams will probably turn in a high-scoring game.

Oregon's 37-man traveling squad will leave Moscow after the game, arriving in Eugene at 11:50 a.m. tomorrow.

WSC Frosh Defeat Idaho Yearlings, 14-7

PULLMAN, WASH., Oct 9—(AP)—A touchdown sparked by Quarterback Bud Roffler in the last five minutes gave Washington State College freshmen a 14-7 victory over a tricky University of Idaho frosh team yesterday.

Idaho scored early in the second period when Halfback Bill Cole tossed an 11-yard pass to End Lowery Bennett to wind up a 60-yard march. Cole, Larry Bell and Don Christenson completed nine of 10 Idaho pass attempts in the first half.

On the first play of the fourth period, Halfback Sonny Galloway of Exeter, Calif., broke off tackle into the clear and raced 40 yards for the first Washington State touchdown.

With five minutes left and the score tied, Roffler intercepted a pass on Idaho's 28 and ran to the 12. He passed from there to End Dave Nordquist for the winning touchdown.
