Spirit, Rules Emphasized At 1948 Homecoming

Increased competitive spirit and strict adherence to rules will be emphasized in this year's Homecoming noise parade, according to Joe Warren, chairman of the event, scheduled for October 22.

It is the hope of Warren and his committee that this year's method of judging will end the complaint, voiced in recent years, that competitive spirit is lacking in the parade.

"In years past, the noise parade has been rated as one of the most colorful events on the campus. Everything should be done to revive this colorfulness and to bring added interest to the parade," Warren stated.

The parade will form at Mac court and begin at 7:00. It will proceed south to 19th street, turn right and follow 19th to Hilyard. Turn right on Hilyard; at 13th and Hilyard, the band will join the parade which will go on 13th, past the Side. A right turn on University will take the parade past Mac court to 18th street where the procession will turn left and go to the bonfire at the intramural field. Floats are to form a square around the bonfire.

Rally Follows

This year's winners, to be announced at the rally following the frosh bonfire, will be selected on the basis of four points, each carrying equal weight.

1. Sustained noise in passing the judges' stand (upstairs windows of the College Side).

2. Ingenuity in noisemaking methods.

3. Colorfulness in outward appearance; this includes comical noisemaking methods.

4. Spirit shown by occupants of truck.

Judges will be A. H. Smith, assistant professor of law, Donald M. DuShane, director of student affairs, and J. C. Stovall, assistant professor of geography.

Regulations Added

Warren and his committee also list additional regulations for the parade.

1. Each vehicle must be one single conveyance; no trailers or semi-trucks will be allowed.

Meet at Court

2. All vehicles must meet in front of Mac court between 5:30 and 6:30. The parade will start promptly at 7:00.

3. Each pairing will take its place in line in accordance with the numbers assigned at the drawing last week. These numbers will be announced sometime this week.

4. Latecomers must fall in at the end of the line.

5. Each vehicle must have a large recognition number and sign on both sides.

6. No vehicle may enter a hospital area, according to police regulation.

7. Judges' decision will be final. Any violation of these rules will result in immediate disqualification of the offending entry.

Other Events Told

"Your University student body card entitles you to vote for your choice in this year's Homecoming contest," Leslie Tooze, chairman of the selection, said in urging students to vote today and tomorrow.

"Balloting will be held today and tomorrow only," Miss Tooze emphasized. Booths will be set up in the Co-op between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The victorious candidate will not be announced until half-time of the Oregon-USC game at Portland Saturday, Miss Tooze said.
