

ISA Elections Held Tonight In Commerce

ISA elections will be held tonight at 105 Commerce at 6:30 p.m. Offices to be filled include secretary, treasurer, and positions on the organizational committee.

Petitions for offices must be obtained from the office of student affairs. Senators from every independent house are urged to attend the election.

An ISA dance will be held on the evening of October 30—Hallowe'en, from 9 to 12 p.m. in Gerlinger annex. A theme will be announced at a later date.

In charge of mixer arrangements is Liz Sanford. Other committee heads are Ray Rasmussen, music; Francis Linkletter, distribution; Joyce Ransom, refreshments; Joan Samuel, decorations; and Ray Cromme, publicity.

Freshmen to Help With Homecoming

Each men's living organization is asked to select six freshmen to assist with Homecoming traditions, Roger Wiley, Order of the "O" president, announced. The freshmen are to meet at McArthur court Saturday at 9 a.m. Old clothes are a requirement.

Two freshmen will be sent with Bob Weber to scrub the seal with their toothbrushes; two freshmen will accompany Dale Warberg to Skinner's Butte to paint the "O"; two freshmen will assist Willie McCullough in polishing trophies.

In a negligible sort of way, it's trouble is a germ and not an ordinary hangover.

State of the nation may be judged from the demand that there should be more catastrophe insurance.

Jean-Clad Freshmen To Cleanup Campus

Clad in jeans or old clothes and armed with baskets and boxes, cleanup workers will scour the campus for every bit of stray paper and other foreign material tomorrow afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30.

The cleanest section of the grounds will earn its workers a trophy. Judging will take place from 4:30 to 5:30. Warren Davis, Druids president; Barry Mountain, Skull and Dagger head; Betty Jean McCourry, WAA prexy, and Ann Fenwick, campus social chairman will select the winner.
