

Hopes That Britishers Enjoy New Union 'Best Yet'

By BARBARA STEVENSON

"One of the most outstanding student union buildings in the country" was the hope expressed by Dick Williams, newly appointed student union director and educational activities manager, in an interview yesterday. He added the desire that the students will want to run the program of the building as much as possible, adding, "We'll do all we can from the administrative point of view. For the size of this University the Erb Memorial will be one of the most complete unions in the country." The opening is scheduled for approximately January, 1950.

Mid-Winter Trip

A trip east is tentatively planned by Williams for sometime winter term and will probably include visiting unions at Wisconsin, Minnesota, Cornell, Purdue, Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, Utah, and Ohio State. Some of the details to be investigated will be: finding out the internal organization of the unions at these schools; accounting procedures; equipment and furnishing experiences; how the union cooperates with the various schools and departments; the types of student committees and how the students are selected for them. This attempt to profit by the experiences of other unions should help to open Oregon's building with not only more efficiency but with a more complete understanding of the problems facing union directors and staffs.

Dick Williams graduated in June 1941 as a journalism major. While in school he was business manager of the Oregonian for three years. He was a member of Skull and Dagger, Friars, Sigma Delta Chi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon. He earned a letter in tennis for two years.

Married in 1941 to the former Marjorie Jane Kellogg, who was also an Oregon student, Williams is the father of four children, three boys and a girl. He took the position as educational activities manager in August, 1941. In June 1943 he entered the navy as ensign and returned to the University in March, 1946 as a lieutenant.

Kappa Lineup

Britishers Enjoy First US Journey

Anthony Cox and Reginald Galer, British debaters who appeared here last Monday, declared in a radio interview yesterday that they were very impressed with the broad expanse of the United States on their first trip here.

They were interviewed on tape recording by Paul Ryman, of the University radio studios, following their debate here which was the third in a series of some 25 appearances at points throughout the nation. On Tuesday they were at Oregon State college.

"We undersand there is, perhaps shall we say, a little rivalry between the two schools," Cox commented.

Last Saturday they saw their first football game, the Stanford-USC game. "It took us until about half-time to get the hang of it," Galer said. "Finally we found what a fourth down meant."

One of the most impressive features of the United States, they said, is its great area. They compared the size of England to that of California. At the time of the debate here they had spent ten days in this country.

Their series of debates will cover a variety of topics, including planned economy and world government and will take them nearly 16,000 miles throughout the nation.

Galer is a history student at Birmingham university and Cox is from Bristol university.

In seven past games, the St. Mary's Gaels have won six and Oregon one. Total points scored favor the Saints, 99 to 32.

Here's how YOU can win the Gold Bars of an Army Officer

TWO NEW WAYS TO JOIN THE RANKS OF AMERICA'S YOUNG LEADERS

DIRECT COMMISSION

A commission as second lieutenant in the Officers' Reserve Corps with a 2-year initial tour of active duty is ready for you if you meet these requirements: one year of honorable service in any of the Armed Forces between 7 December 1941 and 30 June 1947; have completed two years at an accredited college or university; U. S. citizenship; AGCT score of 110 or better; not more than 32 years old; physically fit. Once commissioned, you'll be assigned to a 3-month officers' training school, and, on successful completion, you'll be free to compete for a Regular Army Commission if you meet the competitive tour age requirements. Go to your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station for complete details at once.

OCS FOR HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

If you've graduated from high school or can pass an equivalent examination, are between 19 and 28 years old, are a U. S. citizen, and have necessary physical qualifications, apply now for enlistment for Army OCS. After your application is approved, you'll be enlisted as a Sergeant and given basic training if you have not had it already, then sent direct to Officer Candidate School, subject to quotas, of course. Upon graduation, you'll be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Reserve, and placed on two years of active duty. Top OCS graduates are commissioned in the Regular Army—all others may compete for a Regular Army Commission. Get all the facts about applying for OCS entrance at your nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station without delay!
