Nurse Doltz Sophomore Named Four Try Visiting Campus

and professor of nursing at the Oregon Medical School in Portland, Oregon, will not be at the University today, tomorrow and Friday, in order to hold conferences with the pre-nursing and registered nurses on the campus.

The schedule of events will include; a sack lunch for pre-nursing students at Wesley House, twelve o'clock, November 3; a sack lunch for registered nurses, twelve o'clock, November 5, the place to be announced later. Also individual conferences will be held for girls interested in nursing but not registered in this field.

Miss Doltz, whose parents were missionaries, was born and raised in the Phillipine Islands. After completing her required training in the United States she returned to Manila to be in charge of the Mary Johnston School of Nursing.

In addition to her present duties in the department of nursing education in Portland, Miss Doltz is the president of the Oregon State Board of Nurse Examiners and she is also the Treasurer of he National League of Nursing Education.

Such strips to the university are not infrequent for Miss Doltz. Usually she visits once a months for the purpose of holding conferences, and in general supervises the school of nursing education at the University of Oregon.

City Editor Anne Goodman

Copy des: Mollie Copeland, Truty Klebaum, Starly Sparks, Diana Dye, June Goetze, Captivating Holmes.

> Asst. Adv. Manager Leslie Tooze

Layout staff: Lee McGraw, Kay Kuckenberg, B. Metcalf.

BOOK SALE

BOOKS FROM OUR RENTAL LIBRARY AND STOCK ARE BEING MARKED DOWN TO CLEAR OUR SHELVES FOR CHRISTMAS STOCK. THESE BOOKS ARE.

AT BARGAIN PRICES

Come in and browse through our rental library.

The Co-op

To Women's Page

journalism, was named Women's editor of the Emerald yesterday by Bill Yates, editor.

Miss Jackson, a member of Kwama, was a reporter and night editor on the staff of last year's paper. She is affiliated with Pi Be-

She is replacing Vinita Howard.

Carol Brice To Sing omorrow

Carol Brice, contralto, who will be heard tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. in McArthur court by students and residents, started her career at the age of three when she appeared at Town Hall in New York with the Sedalia singers of North Carolina.

The daughter of a Congregational minister and a school teacher, Miss Brice won a fellowship to the Juilliard graduate school of music after receiving her music degree at Talladega college in Ala-

In 1944 she won the coveted Naumberg Foundation award, entitling her to a concert in Town Hall.

Tomorrow's concert, open to all students who show their registration cards at the door, is second of the series sponsored by the Eugene and University Civic Music asso-

Chosen to sing at the third inauguration of the late president, and later, at the White House for Mrs. Roosevelt, the contralto was asked eight years later to sing before the Democratic national convention in Philadelphia.

She has appeared as soloist with several major symphony orchestras, directed by such famous names in music as Serge Koussevitsky and Fritz Reiner.

In private life Miss Brice is the wife of Neil Scott, of the public relations firm that bears his name. She is the mother of a four-yearold son, Neil, Jr.

Students to Vie For Rebec Award

The George Rebec prize in philosophy will be awarded again this year to the undergraduate student submitting the best essay on a Asklepiads to Meet philosophical topic, according to H. G. Townsend, head of the philosophy department.

annually since 1940, when it was Thursday at 7 p.m. in room 20 established to give students an opportunity to express themselves on philosophical subjects and to perpetuate the memory of Dr. George Rebec.

The essay may present any philosophical point of view, provided it shows adequate familiarity with the history and literature of the subject chosen. It must be typed on one side of standard typing paper, and must not exceed 10,000 words in length. It must conform to the standards of good English, must be a coherent and unified presentation of a single topic, and must show a genuine intellectual effort on the part of the writer. Essays must be submitted by May 1, 1949.

"I want to stress especially," Dr. Townsend said, "that this contest is open to all undergraduate students, not just those enrolled in philosophy courses."

Faculty members of the philosophy department will be glad to confer with students on problems concerning the topic or preparation of the essay.

Connie Jackson, sophomore in For Rhodes Gurnalism, was named Women's Scholarship

Four UO candidates for Oxford university's Rhodes scholarships have been chosen this week by the University selection committee, according to Dr. Gordon Wright, committee chairman.

War Service category, and will appear before a board of selection on December 7 and 8 in Portland. Candidates are Robert B. Frazier and Harry R. Stivers, both of Eugene; John N. Wyzong, Salem; and Robert K. Thomas, Portland.

Stivers, a junior in political science, served as an MP during the war. Frazier is a graduate of the school of journalism and is currently employed as city editor of the Eugene Register-Guard. He served as editor of the 1947-48 Em-

Wyzong, a senior in English, has studied both at OSC and Biarritz university, France. Thomas was engaged in civilian war service during the war years, and is at present an instructor in the UO English department.

Approximately 15 men will appear before the Portland board. Three will go before a district committee who will select candidates from six yestern states; finalists will be among 32 men to represent the United States at Oxford.

Campus Calendar

WEDNESDAY

HOLY COMMUNION services, Gerlinger at 7 a.m., sponsored by Canterbury club.

CONDON CLUB business meeting 4 p.m. in room 108 Condon hall. SCABBARD AND BLADE meeting at 6:30 p.m. in ROTC building.

THETA SIGMA PHI meeting at 7 p.m. at Hendricks hall.

FRIENDLY HOUSE discussion series on Comparative Religions, led by Mrs. Turnipseed, at 7:30 tonight. "Confucianism" is the topic. ONE WORLD CLUB will meet at 7:30 in the YMCA. ASKLEPIADS meet in room 20 Friendly at 7 p.m. Dr. Donald M. Brinton will explain group's history and traditions.

"History and Traditions of Asdepiads" will be the subject on which Dr. Donald M. Brinton will The $25 prize has been presented address a meeting of Asklepiads Friendly.

Year Book Space Payment Now Due

Living organizations which have contracted for space in the Oregana must make payments right away, according to Olga Yevtich, business

Payments will be accepted at the Oregana office in McArthur court between 3 and 5 daily.

The men are eligible under the Faculty Chest Drive to Open On Nov. 15

First meeting of the University section of the campus community chest drive among faculty members was held yesterday in the Guild hall. Paul Washke, chairman, addressed workers, who will attempt an early completion of its 100 per cent participation mark.

General campaign in Eugene and Lane county is scheduled to get underway November 15; however, by organizing early, Washke hopes to obtain better results for the University group, which is the largest in the education division.

Julio Silva, general chairman of the Lane county drive, spoke to the meeting, pointing out the importance of the campus drive. Washke thanked workers for their interest on behalf of President Newburn, head of the education division, and himself.

A student drive under the leadership of Virgil Tucker is scheduled to begin within the next few days. It will be conducted by Alpha Phi Omega, national service honorary. lican state officials, however.

Circulation Men Offer $750 Aid In Master Work

Two $750 scholarships will be awarded by the International Circulation Managers' association this year to students who will take a year of graduate work leading to an MA degree in circulation man-

This is the fourth year that the awards have been made under an educational program to establish professional standards in circulation management and to interest college-trained men in this field of newspaper work.

Students selected for these awards will select the university for graduate work, provided facilities are available for graduate study in this specialized field.

Applications are available at the school of journalism. They may be submitted until May 10, 1949.

McKay in

(Continued from page one) tion Qualification Bill, the Old Age Pension proposal, and the Personal Income Tax exemptions proposal approved by a comfortable mapority. Apparently defeated were the controversial Liquor-by-the-drink Act, the World War II veteran's bonus, and the Secretary of State Tax

Two voting records were made in the state: it was expected that final totals would show an unprecedented vote in the state, which voted for Republican president for the first time in twenty years. Oregon has consistently elected Repub-

Why Wait for buses

when a

Terminal Taxi will Give You Quick Service Right to Your Door?

PHONE

450 Willamette

Everything You Need

Dinners

Luncheons

Snacks

Quality Groceries — Reasonably Priced

ELLIOTT'S