

Johnson Wins Mayoralty, Favors Rebuilt Mill-race

Near-complete totals of Eugene votes last night gave Edwin V. Johnson, local furniture store operator, the office of Mayor by an impressive margin. Johnson triumphed over opponents Ralph Newman and A. L. Hawn as finale to a campaign which centered about civic improvement measures.

Also on the winning side of the local election were councilmen-elect Robert Booth, ward one; Jesse Godlove, ward two, Ray E. Allen, ward three; and J. Don Smith, ward four. Stanley Darling of the first ward won in the only contest for a Eugene Water Board position.

Annexation Approved

South Friendly Street and South Willamette district annexation proposals were approved by an overwhelmingly majority. Rejected, however, was a proposal by the city council to rezone the Byers property, Franklin Boulevard, to permit establishment of a drive-in.

One important measure up for approval, the amendment to construction of a new jail separate from the city hall, was given a practically unanimous approval by voters. Latest reports gave the amendment a "yes" lead of 5-1.

County voting gave Earl L. McNutt, present Eugene mayor, victory in his bid for a seat in the state house of representatives. Closely following him were Herman P. Hendershott and Earl H. Hill. All three candidates ran on the Republican ticket.

Straight Slate

Lane County endorsed the state and national Republican ticket without a single exception, giving all GOP candidates decisive leads over Democratic opposition.

Mayor-elect Johnson is a UO graduate of the class of 1928. In his campaign he advocated restoration of the mill-race and voiced approval of city financial participation in race up-keep.

Johnson thought closing Thirteenth avenue impractical at the present time.—"As much as I would like to see it closed to traffic, I don't see how it can be done under the present conditions." However, he had alternate proposals to alleviate traffic problems, including the widening of Alder street.

Miss Summers To Talk at YM

Marcia Summers, UO junior, is slated to speak at a general YMCA meeting tonight from 7 to 8.

Miss Summers has recently returned from New York City, where she was a member of the College Summer Service. She worked in slum district settlement houses.

At the same meeting YM members will discuss membership policy and the recreation program for the fall and winter terms.

One regularly scheduled YM activity is a Friday night open house. Dancing and other recreation will begin at 8 p.m., continuing throughout the evening.

Vergil S. Fogdall Not Successful In Sheriff Race

Although write-in votes have not been officially tallied, according to the election desk of the county clerk's office, it appears fairly certain to UO students that Vergil S. Fogdall, director of men's affairs, was unsuccessful in the race for Lane country sheriff.

Fogdall's candidacy was supported by an anonymous "Lane County Student Committee," who distributed green handbills at campus living organizations on election eve.

The University director yesterday issued this statement regarding the election:

"Since I have been unable to contact my enthusiastic campaign manager, may I use this means of expressing my sincere thanks for his energetic campaign in my behalf."

Joes to Meet

Candidates for Joe College have been asked to be at Gerlinger hall tonight at 8:30 by Jim Hershner, contest chairman. Slacks and sweaters should be worn.

Women's Pictures Continue Schedule

Members of three women's houses are scheduled to have pictures taken for the 1949 Oregana today. They are Ann Judson house, Highland house, and Zeta hall.

Schedule for the week includes Gammahall and Pi Beta Phi, November 6; Orides and Sigma Kappa, November 6.

Live Talent Wanted

"Thousands" of students are needed to gaze at Student Union construction this morning at 9:30.

A picture is going to be taken for the 1949 Oregana and Editor Trudi Chernis says "human interest" is wanted in the shot.

All students with "a few free minutes are asked to come to Onyx Street between Thirteenth and Fourteenth this morning to appear in the picture.

Emerald Classified Ads

WANTED: Need replacement for Vet's Dorm immediately. Call or see me at 121 Nestor Hall. Ext. 324. Bob Bennett 37

FOR SALE: Fine 35 mm. color camera. Like new, with all accessories. 1572 Villard. 1311-R (Ask for Hank) 37

WANTED: Ride to or close to Oakland this weekend. Call 1692-W 36

FOR RENT: Room with kitchen privileges. Inquire after 5. 659 B St., Springfield. 36

WANTED: Waitress, full time on morning shift. Must have experience. Vet's wife preferred. Liggett's Cafe, 340 Bethel Dr. 39

FOUND: One pocket watch near Falcon. Contact Jack Riback, Sigma Hall. 38

FOR SALE: Season Skipper & two wool dresses. Size 14. Phone 1307 between 12-1. 38

FOR SALE: Man's topcoat size 34, blue, one year old, $25.00 cash. Call Dan Sellard at 6859-M or 6187. 36

FOR SALE: Webster intermix record changer like new. Peter Linde—Room 5A McClure Bldg.

FOR SALE: 48 Chev. convert. excellent condition, must sell. See Bill Lance Sigmum Nu. Phone 324. 36

THEY'VE ARRIVED!

a new shipment of Lanameres,

Cana-knits, Lana-Lams, and Caledonias!

Hi, There!

Yep, I'm back
Keepin' track
Of all your fun
At OREGON
in the

1949 OREGANA

This lasting record of an active year at the University is now being compiled for YOU.

Hard up for cash?

Then you need put only $3.00 down if you order before November 13.

Living off campus?

See our representative in the Co-op today.

In a living organization?

Ask your vice-president how you can help your house get a free copy of the OREGANA.

Orders may also be placed in the OREGANA Business Office or Educational Activities Office, McArthur Court.

ORDER YOUR BOOK OF THE YEAR TODAY!