

Theta Sigma Phi Slates Lunch

Methods of writing publicity that can be published without bribing the editor will be discussed at a luncheon sponsored as a service project by Theta Sigma Phi, women's national professional journalism fraternity.

Publicity chairmen and presidents of all campus clubs and organizations are invited to the gathering Thursday noon, November 11, at the Anchorage, June Goetze, president of the fraternity said.

Gordon A. Sabine, assistant professor of journalism, will explain the essentials of publicity work. Time will be allowed for questions and discussions.
