

Ducks Smash Bruins 26-7

OREGON Daily EMERALD SPORTS

Today's the Day!

Although the exact arrival time isn't known, a victorious Oregon football team will return to Eugene today, sometime in the early afternoon. Duck fans have been requested to turn out in force to cheer them on to the Rose Bowl.

Sanders, Bell Lead Mighty Webfoots To Impressive Win

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13—(AP)—Oregon's powerful football team scored a resounding 26-7 victory over UCLA last night and roared on to a possible New Year's Day date in the Rose Bowl.

Maintaining a perfect slate in the six Pacific Coast Conference games, the good-looking Webfoots broke a 15-year jinx by whipping the Uclans in the Coliseum and hit the scoreboard for a touchdown in each of the four quarters.

The win left the Oregon eleven still neck and neck with California in the Coast drive for the Rose Bowl honor against the Big Nine New Year's Day.

UCLA Scores

The Uclans, trailing 26 to 0 in the last quarter, crossed the midfield for the second time of the entire game and traveled 93 yards for their lone touchdown.

Quarterback Norman Van Brocklin guided the Webfoots masterfully, hardly opening up in his feared passing attack as the runners carried the mail.

Fullback Bob Sanders scored three touchdowns, and Halfback George Bell got the other.

Game Summary

First Period: Oregon got to the UCLA 32 but had to punt midway in the first quarter. From the 14, UCLA started back, but Halfback Howie Hansen fumbled and Wayne Bartholomey recovered on the 23. Five plays later, Fullback Bob Sanders hit center for a yard and a touchdown. Chet Daniels kicked the extra point.

Second Period: Oregon got another Bruin fumble on the 32 but got nowhere. Later, Norm Van Brocklin sent the Webfoots from their 16 to the Bruin 21 but UCLA End Don Hunt snared a Van Brocklin pass on the one. After taking the Bruin punt, Van Brocklin passed to Dick Wilkins for 13, to Dan Garza for 29, Woodley Lewis made three and in two smashes, Sanders scored. Half time score—Oregon, 14, UCLA 0.

Ground Drive

Third Period: Oregon scored its third touchdown on a 60-yard drive, all on the ground. It halted a first UCLA scoring threat, and as the third period ended the Webfoots were within scoring range again. Sanders, Lewis, Tom Hines and Bell moved the ball to the two,

These Three Paced Webfoots

NORM VAN BROCKLIN quarterbacked his Oregon team like an All-American last night, leading the Bowl-bound Webfoots to a smashing 26-7 victory over UCLA Bruins.

TWO BLASTING BACKS, Bob Sanders, above, and George Bell, below, paced their high-flying Oregon mates to an important PCC win last night. Sanders boomed for three touchdowns, and Bell went over for one more.

of bounds at the far end of the court.

The Fijis, led by the playmaking of Ray Hiedenrich, trounced Phi Sigma Kappa 15-2 and 15-8. The Fijis set up the play toward the center of the court where Hiedenrich would slap a hot drive through the Phi Kap defenses. Hiedenrich's line drive serves was also a definite factor figuring in the Fiji win.

In the final game of the afternoon, Stan Ray hall defeated a determined, but undermanned Campbell club squad 15-5 and 15-9.

Action was limited to the "B" circuit yesterday, as intramural volleyball passed the halfway mark in the current season.

Victors of all games posted reasonably easy wins, as the Phi Delt stopped the Sammies, the Fijis rolled over Phi Sigma Kappa, Stan Ray hall knocked off Campbell club, and Sigma Chi flattened SAE. Delta Upsilon and the Betas both annexed forfeit victories, when Hunter hall and Sittzer hall failed to field teams.

Sigma Chi stole the show from the other teams by turning in the first 15-0 round of the season, crushing SAE 15-0 and 15-6.

In the opener, Sigma Chis missed a perfect round by losing the serve one time about midway of the set. However, the second stanza was a different story as SAE moved out into the lead and held it until Sigma Chi was able to organize its defense and stem the momentary threat.

Depending heavily on outstanding net play, the Phi Delt romped to a 15-7 and 15-2 triumph over Sigma Alpha Mu. The Sammies seemed to be over anxious as they consistently slammed the ball out
