

Greek Fantasy' Pageant Theme

The first performance of "Greek Fantasy," Amphibian pageants, will be tomorrow night at 8 in the men's publ. New effects in lighting, costumes, and scenery will be featured in the three act program, according to Joan Carr, chairman.

The first act, "Olympia," will include "The Dance of the Weavers" and "The Dance of the Grape Pickers" with choreography by Betsy Moffett, and "The Three Nymphs." Act II, entitled "Hades," will include "Duet of the Devils" with Miss Moffett and Janet Harris, "Hades" by Joan Carr, and "Phantom of Jealousy," a solo by Miss Carr.

"Kingdom Under the Sea," Act III, will be composed of "Mermaids Plunge" by Dixon Sheldon, "Dance of the Queen" by Harriet Minot, and finale, "Under the Sea."

Money from the tickets, which are selling for 50 cents in the Co-op, will go towards new costumes, stage settings, lights, and swim suits for the Amphibians.

Committee heads for the pageant include Harriet Minot, co-chairman; Joanne Skordahl, programs; Liz Sanford, tickets; Betsy Moffett and Adeline Erlick, decorations; Janet Harris and Pat Neilson, music and PA system; and Dean Sheldon, lighting.

A second performance of the pageant will be given Thursday night.

pay a full dorm house bill, but also his fraternity national and social dues."

Another consideration, Richey said, will be whether newer houses on the campus will be able to stand the transition financially.

Fraternities and sororities realize that they have problems, he concluded. The Greeks are in favor of any plan which will help solve those problems.

"But we don't see how this plan will solve any problems. Therefore we are against it."

In concluding the broadcast, the KORE announcer commented that the controversy over the plan is arousing attention locally not only of parents of University students but also of many interested citizens.

with his brother Bob, like Jim, a regular last year. Both brothers are talented backboard men and very good point-makers.

The two regular guards of 1947-48, Ted Johnson, no relation to the other two, and Tom Warren are still in the Bearcat fold and ready for another season. Both are good backcourt men and occasionally have high-scoring nights.

The game will be played in Salem on December 1 on Willamette's home floor.
