

Cyklar to Lead UO Symphony In First Concert

The University Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Dr. Edmond Cyklar, associate professor of Musicology, will perform in the music school auditorium at 4 p. m. today. The program will consist of lesser known orchestral works by 18th century composers.

This will be the first concert to be given his year by the 70-piece orchestra. During the remainder of the school year, it will serve in a supporting role, accompanying the music school productions of the "Messiah" and three one-act operas. No admission will be charged for this concert and all students and citizens of Eugene are invited to attend.

The program is: "Overture from Allegro" from the La Sultain Suite, by Couperin-Milhaud.

"Suite in D Major" by Johann Sebastian Bach. This number features
