

Young GOPs Slate Meeting

Delegates to the state Young Republican convention will be chosen by the campus group at their meeting Thursday, 6:45 p.m., in 101 Oregon.

The convention was called for December 3, 4, and 5 by State Chairman Steve Anderson. It will be held in Salem.

Proposals for the Young Republican representatives to present to the convention as well as delegates' instructions will be discussed at the Thursday meeting.

All Republicans and interested students are welcome to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Wickham Speaks

Journeying to Reedsport yesterday, Golda Parker Wickham, director of women's affairs, addressed the high school Girls' League there on the subject of "Charm."

Tuesday afternoon she spoke to the Reedsport group of the Oregon Mothers.

Dress for those rainy days in raincoats—pretty as well as practical. Keep dry—Look attractive.

Education Groups Plan Coffee Hour

A coffee hour for education majors and members of the school of education faculty is being planned by Pi Lambda Theta and Phi Delta Kappa, national education honoraries, for next Monday afternoon from 4 to 5.

This is the first coffee hour sponsored by the group this term, and they hope to plan a similar event every month.

Team Welcomed, Roses for Coach

A horseshoe of 50 red roses was presented on behalf of the Oregon student body to Coach Jim Aiken last Saturday by the rally squad at an airport assembly.

The rally, welcoming back the football team from their victorious UCLA game, was covered by local radio stations, and several members of the football team and Aiken were interviewed.

Alex Murphy, chairman of the rally board, said "we want to thank Wayne's Flowers, local florists, though the lines were long and some students waited several hours, he still considered the new registration procedure a success." Casualties among the troops in the lines must have been light to inspire that little gem in fall term of 1947.

"Registration was unusually slow during the opening days." Registrar Avery again. That was in spring term last year, when the college of liberal arts decided to take a holiday during the first week. Sweet memories!

"A new system of registration requiring appointments for students . . . has proved a boon to fall term enrollment figures." Happy, happy statistics were we, last term.

"A new plan, whereby University students will be able to avoid confusion and delay has been announced by James Kline, assistant registrar." That was in Saturday's paper.

Footnote: Sorry, Mr. Kline, it seems we've heard that song before!
