Varsity, Frosh

Jim Stanley, Warren Broacher, Art Bayly, George Moorhead, and Ralph Higginbotham.

In the freshman bracket, Ted Antonsen has looked so good in the backstroke that sideliners are tabbing him as one of the most promising recruits to enter Oregon in many a year. In the distance it is Peter Van Dijk who has been making onlookers gawk. He goes well in the 440.

ob McKinney, in the freestyle sprints, and Dick Ruckdeschel, in the breast stroke, have also been exceedingly impressive with their recent improvements.

Nobel Prize Out, Committee Says

OSLO, Norway, Nov. 18—(AP) The Nobel peace prize committee said today it would make no award this year.

As is usual when there is no award, the five-man committee appointed by the Norwegian parliament gave no reasons for its negative decision.

But the announcement was interpreted to mean that no worthy candidate had been found in this period of cold war.

Lambda Chi Colony Gets Chapter
