

Record Concert Sunday in Libe

Works of Benjamin Britten and Prokofiev will be played in the browsing room of the library this Sunday afternoon at 4, according to Mrs. Burr Fisher who will be hostess for the Mu Phi Epsilon patronesses, who are sponsoring the record concert.

Records to be played include Britten's "Sea Interludes," and "Passaeglia," from Peter Grimes, and Prokofiev's "Classical Symphony," and "Violin Concerto No. 1."

These informal Sunday afternoon browsing room concerts will be sponsored regularly by Mu Phi Epsilon throughout the rest of the school year, and everyone is invited to attend.

This Sunday's records were selected from the library of Roy Andrews, instructor of physics and Chemistry.

ATO, Sigma

Sterling playing by Walt McClure, Pete Miller, and Tom Gurney spearheaded the ATO onslaught.

Moving quickly into the command in both rounds, Sigma Chi soundly trounced Campbell club 15-4 and 15-5 to tuck away the only "A" loop contest of the day.

Sigma Chi's control of the ball was almost flawless as they set up kills which Ed Eveland punched through the Clubber's defenses.

Most bitterly contested battle of the afternoon was Delta Theta Pi's three-round win over Phi Gamma Delta. The Betas dropped the initial round 15-3, then annexed the next two, 15-12 and 15-3.

In the final and deciding encounter a two-point lead separated the two teams until the Fijis moved out in front by a 13-10 margin. At this point, the Betas called time out. When play was resumed, a coordinated Beta attack netted five straight points and the victory. Jim Stanley and John McBee were

Foreign Students' Thanksgiving Dinner to Have 'All the Trimmings'

By Donna Kletzing

All foreign students on the campus will celebrate Thanksgiving the American way this year, according to Marjorie Petersen, chairman of the international affairs committee of the YWCA.

The YWCA and YMCA are sponsoring a Thanksgiving dinner November 25 at the Zeta Tau Alpha house at 4:30 for all foreign students who otherwise would not have a place to enjoy Thanksgiving dinner.

"It is our way of making them a participant of the American way of life," said Miss Petersen.

"We have tried to contact all foreign students on the campus, but if we have overlooked anyone who could come, please contact the YWCA immediately," the chairman urged.

The traditional dinner of turkey, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie, and other trimmings will be followed by games and an evening of informal entertainment. Mrs. Ethyl Mitchel, advisory board member of the committee, will be the official hostess.

Funds for the dinner are being secured from the YWCA international affairs committee, the YMCA, Kwama, Chi Omega, and Mrs. Frank Chambers, charter member of the YWCA.

the big guns in the Beta camp, while Ray Hiedenrich turned in an excellent game for the losers.

Turning in identical 15-9 scores in both rounds, Phi Delta Theta triumphed over a stubborn DU team.

In the first stanza, after Delta Upsilon had edged away to a lead, Marv Rasmussen served eight counters for the Phi Deltas and put them on the victory trail. In the second fray, Max Maude headed the Phi Delt Drive as he consistently came through with shoestring saves of DU thrusts.

Delta Tau Delta's "B" squad continued its winning ways as it snowed the Kappa Sigs under with final point-producing surges in both wins, 15-9 and 15-4.

Kappa Sigma's only attempt to down the Deltas came in the first round, when they slipped out to a 6-3 lead. The Deltas came to life and quickly tied the score at 6-all. From this point on, it was Delta Tau Delta all the way.

In the final game of the afternoon, Sigma Chi's "B" boys also turned in identical scores of 15-2 in both rounds as they romped off with games from Campbell club. Ji mStanley and John McBee were
