

These Three to Lead Warrenmen

TWO OTHER CAGERS likely to crack the first five for the Webfoots are Bob Amacher (above), another 6-foot, 8-incher at forward, and Guard Bob Lavey (below), a speed-burner who fits right in with Coach John Warren's fast-breaking offensive system.

BIG ROG WILEY, 6-foot, 8-inch letterman center, is certain to hold down a starting position for John Warren's Oregon basketball team December 1, against the Willamette university Bearcats.

Duck Cagers Drill For Willamette Tilt Slated Next Week

Coach John Warren sent his varsity cagers through another long scrimmage session yesterday, as the date of the opening 1948-49 season game moved closer. Warren is worried that Willamette University, the Ducks' first opponent, will spring another upset as they did last season. And Johnny Lewis, Bearcat coach, has been working his squad hard in hopes of doing just that.

Just who will start for the Webfoots on December 1 is uncertain, with more than five men still in the race for opening berths. Big Roger Wiley at center is the only certain starter, the 6-foot, 8-inch letterman being one of the top stars in workouts so far.

Probably joining Wiley on the first five will be another letterman, guard Bob Lavey. Lavey has also been showing well, and will be the boy to take over for Stan Williamson in setting up the duck plays.

Possible Starter

Paul Sowers, the blond transfer from Vanport, is a good possibility to see a lot of starting duty, and he can play at either guard or forward. Sowers is an excellent point-maker, a good ball-handler, and one of the fastest men on the team.

Letterman Bob Amacher and Kenny Seeborg might also break into the opening quint, Amacher at forward and Seeborg at guard. Others that could also start are forwards Bob Don, Lynn Hamilton, Paul Cooper, Will Urban, and Dale Warberg. Backing up Wiley at center will be Rod Slade and Jerry Switzer with Amcher also available for pivot duty.

Guards Plentiful

There are plenty of guards around in Dick Unis, Johnny Neeley, Don Peterson, Leroy Coleman, Jack Keller, Mel Krause and Bill Hutchinson, all capable of seeing action.

Yesterday's scrimmages started off with the "skins" rolling to a 20-14 win over the "shirts". Wiley was the guiding factor in the win, dumping in eight points and controlling the boards. Lavey chipped in with six and Peterson four to aid the victors.

The big guns for the losers were Will Urban and Jerry Switzer who sparked on the boards against Wiley and scored six and three points each.

Wiley on Boards

Wiley's backboard work was a deciding factor in the second tilt, though Seeborg topped the scorers with two buckets. Art Milne with three points led the losing five.

Dale Warberg dropped in three quick buckets to lead the "skins" to a 12-6 win in the third tilt, and looked good in grabbing rebounds. Peterson's three points were high for the "shirts."

Wiley was again high, scoring four points in a 15-11 "skin" victory. Lavey helped out with three points and a good floor game. The losing five were paced by Mel Krause with four points and Cooper with three.

Narrow Win

With the score tied 8-8, Kenny Seeborg dropped in a free throw for the "skins" and followed up with another a few moments later, the
