Mexico and Africa Pictured in Films

"Africa Speaks," filmed by Paul L. Hoefler, explorer-photographer, is one of the two educational-activities movies to be shown in 207 Chapman tonight.

"Forgotten Village" has scenes laid in a remote Mexican village and gives a sympathetic view of the primitive conditions and simple family life of the natives.

These movies will be shown at 7 and at 9:10 p.m., and are sponsored by educational activities.

"Webfoot Huddle Time" Heard Statewide Pre-Bowl Broadcasts

The sports interview "Webfoot Huddle Time," will be carried by seven radio stations throughout Oregon during the Christmas vacation, Bob Davy, instructor in speech, announced Tuesday.

The 15-minute program which is heard each Monday on KOAC and KASH, interviews top athletic personnel at the University. How the Oregons will shape up against Southern Methodist in the forthcoming Cotton Bowl game will be the topic of the interviews, Davy said.

Stations carrying the program are KOAC and KASH, Mondays at 8 p.m.; KFLW, Klamath Falls, each Wednesday night at 10; KMED at Medford, Fridays at 10 p.m.

Time schedules for three other stations are not yet known. They are KBKR, Baker; KLBM, La-Grande; and KNPT, Newport.

All stations except KOAC and KASH will carry the program by transcription.

WEATHER: Partly cloudy today, with occasional light rain. Cloudy, Thursday with light rain and little change in temperature. High Wednesday 48, low Wednesday night 38 degrees.
