

Eugene Icemen Ready for Arena Clash

Redwings Slate Corvallis In Hockey Game Sunday

It will be Oregon vs Oregon State tomorrow night at the local ice arena, as the strong Eugene Redwings meet the Corvallis Beavers at 8 p. m.

The Redwings, playing their second year of hockey and now a member team of the Oregon Hockey League, consist largely of University of Oregon players who were instrumental in the Redwing win over a potent Salem Hornet aggregation last Sunday.

Seniors Frank Sauer and Roger Newton, together with high-scoring John Olson, make up one of the powerful student combinations used to advantage by Coach Tommy Ferris, while fast-skating Don Severson rounds out the forward wall together with "townies" Tom and Dick Gillespie, Ferris, Gene Thiessen and Joe Worth.

The defensive element includes Ducks Ed Worth, Will Wall, and hawks in a rugged game at Corvallis Thursday night, but they are expected to come back into their second game with added strength.

Arena Manager Geary Worth has announced that the plan for Oregon dates to see games on one ticket will remain in force until further notice.

This plan allows Oregon men to take their date to the Sunday night games on one seventy-five cent ticket, by showing student body card.

Worth anticipates a sellout crowd, so students are warned to arrive in plenty of time to get seats.

The Beaver squad is composed of OSC students with the exception of two players, so in actuality Sunday's game will match representative teams.

Olson, injured in the final seconds of the Redwing-Salem game Sunday, is recovering from head wounds and should be able to see action. The Corvallis crew dropped their opener to the Portland Black-

Portland Pilots Win

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 15 (AP) The University of Portland Pilots rallied from an early lag here last night to defeat the Gonzaga Bulldogs in a basketball game, 60-51.

The Pilots trailed until shortly before the half. Then they squeezed ahead to hold an intermission margin of 25-22. They widened it in the second period with Ray Folen leading the scoring with 14 points. The teams meet again tonight.

New Grid Rules Favor Offensive

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Jan. 15 (AP)—There won't be much difference in the matter of wholesale substitutions running on and off college football fields next Fall, but the game will be a little more exciting and a little less rough.

Such were the deductions yesterday as members of the Intercollegiate Rules committee headed homeward after another tussle to improve the grid regulation book.

The highly controversial free substitution rule rated top attention. Admittedly, according to William J. Bingham, of Harvard, chairman, this provoked hot debate in closed door sessions during the snowbound four-day session.

No Single Substitutions
 Here are the new statutes on the subject:

Coaches will not be permitted to send one player at a time into the game while the clock is running.

They will be able, when the ball changes hands, to send in as many players as desired on either team. But subs must be in and ready to play while the clock is running and before the customary 25-second period elapses from the time the referee placed the ball in position.

Encouragement to offense is contained in these rules:

A player can elect to run back a punt from scrimmage if the ball is caught in the end zone. This used to be an automatic touchback.

Still a Touchback

If a punt receiver gets nailed in the end zone, it still goes as a touchback and the ball goes to the 20-yard line. If he is tackled on the one-yard line, that's where it goes into play.

I-M Teams End Week With Thrilling Games

MONDAY'S SCHEDULE

"B" Games

3:50

Nestor hall vs. Beta Theta Pi

4:35

Sigma Nu vs. McChesney hall

5:15

Legal Eagles vs. Phi Kappa

Sigma

Another day of intramural basketball play rolled by yesterday, with "A" teams bringing the first week's play to a close, while two "B" teams made their debut.

In "A" tilts, Sigma Nu lashed out for their second victory of the week, defeating the Tau Kappa Epsilon casab, 37-6. The Alpha Tau Omega casabans downed Beta Theta Pi, 16-5, and Campbell club whipped Kappa Sigma, 23-16.

Sigma Alpha Mu knocked off Phi Gamma Delta, 39-12, and Chi Psi bounced Phi Sigma Kappa, 17-15.

In "B" play, Sigma Phi Epsilon downed Cherney hall, 28-4.

Sigma Nu Hot

The Sigma Nu club, sparked by Dick Mobley and John McBee, showed skill-plus as they slaughtered Tekes 37-6 in "A" competition.

Mobley, Nu center, worked the boards with ease, while guard McBee crushed the TKE defense with lay-ins to score ten points. Mobley was high point man with 13 points.

Betas Lose

A rough and ready ATO five was seen yesterday when they downed the Betas, 16-5. The skillful teamwork of Dan Cudahy and J. T. Hamilton hit the net time after time.

Cudahy bucketed six points for his squad in the first half and Hamilton was hot in the second half, scoring ten points to win high score honors for the ATO club.

Campbell Wins

The Campbell club squad defeated Kappa Sigma 23-16 in a fast moving tilt.

In the second quarter of the game, the Campbell men stayed two-point leaders until seconds before the half-time whistle. The half-time score was 13-12.

During the second half, the Campbells stayed out in front and increased their score to 23, holding the Sigs to 16.

With a sharp eye for the basket, Al Cohen and Jerry Ginzburg brought the Sammies a 39-12 victory over the Fijis.

The Sammies led the Fijis at half-time, and then Cohen and Ginzburg opened up to score 22 points between them.

In the closest contest of the day, the Chi Psis nudged Phi Sigma Kappa, 17-15.

The Chi Psis were leading at the half, 10-6, but in the second half the Phi Sigs tried to get the lead, fading in the final seconds. Liska of the Phi Sigs was high with six points.

The first B game of the season saw the Sig Eps down Cherney hall, 28-4. The Sigs led all the way. Jim Eckstrom, received high point honors with ten Sig Ep counters.
